WELCOME: If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

IN MEMORIAM The new violet vestment worn on this Laetare Sunday is the gift of the family and friends of parishioner Paul Fritzler, who died in May, 2008. May he rest in peace.

THE CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE Stop by the Cathedral Bookstore today for a wide variety of Lenten reading, including a wonderful new Lenten book by Timothy Radcliffe, OP, Why Go to Church. Father Radcliffe preached the Seven Last Words at St. James in 2003.

THE ANNUAL CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES COLLECTION is an important source of funding for the Church's efforts to provide relief and development overseas, to welcome and care for migrants and refugees, and to work on policies that promote justice and peace. Envelopes for this important collection are available in the pews this weekend.

NEW ON THE WEBSITE Log on to the website to read (or listen to) Father Ryan's homily of last Sunday. Find out about coming events, pray the Stations of the Cross online, download our Holy Week and Easter Schedule, and much more! There are also lots of fun features specifically designed for kids. Make www.stjames-cathedral.org your homepage!

OPERATION RICE BOWL calls us to walk in solidarity with our brothers and sisters in need. During this fourth week of Lent, we focus on Honduras, where Operation Rice Bowl helps to support water projects providing clean drinking water. Catholic Relief Services also supports the Country School for Small Farmers, providing skills training to improve farming operations, and learning how to participate in Fair Trade programs. Let us accept the challenge of Operation Rice Bowl: to pray that we overcome indifference to the needs of others; to fast in solidarity with those who are hungry by eating simply; to learn about the needs of the poor, and to give money saved by fasting and eating simply to Operation Rice Bowl.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Joseph in Ferndale and Issaquah, and Holy Redeemer in Vancouver.

YOUNG ADULTS INFORMAL WINE AND CHEESE GATHERING will take place this Sunday, March 22 immediately following 5:30 Mass. Young adults over the age of 21, single or married, gather for fun, refreshments, and fellowship in the Fireside Room of the Pastoral Outreach Center. Newcomers and those not new to the parish are all welcome! Information youngadults@stjames-cathedral.org or TerryAnn Bowen, 206-382-2018.

SUMMER MISSION TRIP FOR TEENS The Youth Migrant Project is back! This July, teens from St. James and St. Mary's will head back up north to volunteer in daycare centers and migrant camps, work the fields, and distribute donations. This is a fun and life-changing week that includes volunteer time during the day and activities and reflections in the evening. The trip is open to all incoming 9th graders through graduating 12th graders and will run from July 5-10 (note: this is a date change as well as an eligibility change). Interested teens and their families are invited to attend an information session at St. Mary's (611 20th Ave S, Seattle 98144) TODAY, Sunday, March 22 at 2:00pm. Applications are due by April 5. Information, Jennifer Ibach 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

FOUNDATIONS IN OUR CATHOLIC FAITH: THE GOSPELS OF MATTHEW AND MARK TODAY, Sunday, March 22, 1:30-5:30 PM at St. Peter's Parish Hall. In this course, participants learn the concept of Synoptic Gospels and their sources. They will explore the themes and theological emphases, literary forms, and the social and historical contexts for both Gospels. They will discuss Jesus' Parables and explain what messages can be gleaned for the modern believer. Please bring your Bible and copy of the Catechism to the class. This program is a wonderful opportunity to continue to grow as mature and well-informed Catholics. (Co-sponsored by St. James Cathedral with the South Seattle Deanery) Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

A LENTEN BIBLE STUDY...ST. PAUL'S LETTER TO THE ROMANS Tuesdays, 1:00-3:00 or 7:00-9:00, Cathedral Place, second floor. We complete our two year review of the writings of St. Paul by studying his letter to the Romans--the most compelling and challenging of all his letters. All are welcome and no bible experience required! This Week: Jews and Gentiles in God's Plan (9:1-11:36)

LENTEN HOLY HOURS Each Friday during Lent, join in a special Lenten Holy Hour beginning at 12 Noon. With Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Liturgy of the Hours, Rosary, and time for silence, Holy Hour is the perfect Lenten retreat for the end of a busy week.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS DURING LENT There are three opportunities to pray the Stations each week: on Mondays following 12:10pm Midday Prayer, Wednesdays following the 5:30 pm Mass, and Fridays following the 8:15am Mass (except on First Fridays).

JOURNEY OF THE ELECT

This week we celebrate the second of the three Scrutinies with the retelling of the story of the man born blind. This Gospel challenges our Elect to reflect more deeply upon their lives, with particular focus on the "blind spots" that prevent them from even seeing the effects of sin and evil in their lives and in the lives of others. Later this week, the Elect will be presented with our Creed. The Church "lovingly entrust to them...this ancient text that has always been regarded as expressing the heart of the Church's faith and prayer." The Creed is presented in order to enlighten the Elect and it recalls the wonderful deeds of God for the salvation of the human race. The Elect are to commit the Creed to memory and will recite it publicly on Holy Saturday. Continue to enter into these solemn rites in prayer with our Elect as they prepare for baptism, Eucharist and confirmation, and to pray for them every day, for your prayers do make a difference!

FINDING WORK... WITH GOD'S HELP! Our parish is offering a series on the art of looking for work that is grounded in prayer and community. Whether you're recently unemployed or just thinking of making a switch, these sessions will help refine your job search strategy and outline concrete steps you can take to improve your visibility in the market. They will take place on Tuesdays, March 24 and 31 from 7:00-9:00 PM in Cathedral Place, second floor. This Week's Topic: Interviewing Techniques—Part 1. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

THE YEAR OF ST. PAUL

During the Year of St. Paul, watch this space in the bulletin for reflection questions that will lead us deeper into the writings and example of St. Paul. You are also invited to visit the Place of Prayer in the west aisle and on the website.

- Today's readings are all about light and darkness. What does it mean to live "as children of the light" in our world today?
- "You were once darkness, but now you are light." How have Paul's words come to life in your own experience? During this Lenten season, we can see them coming to life in our Elect, adults preparing for baptism at the Easter Vigil. Have you "adopted" one of our Elect to pray for each day until Easter? If not, pick up a prayer card today!

RCIA SPONSOR INFORMATION MEETING Wednesday, March 25, 7:00-9:00pm, Cathedral Place, second floor. We need St. James parishioners to be companions with our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. All training and support will be provided and the time commitment is reasonable—a minimum of 2 sessions a month (Wednesday evenings). Information, Helen Oesterle at 206-382-4514.

CATHEDRAL KITCHEN Last week we celebrated Marjorie's 85th birthday. Marjorie has been coming as a guest at the Kitchen for more than ten years. We had a beautiful homemade cake—donated by a volunteer—embellished with candles, and made it a real party with sparkling cider. Marjorie's comment: "This really is my family." Also, we would like to thank Mangetout Catering for partnering with us last month. They provided delicious major entrees on three occasions. We appreciate all the donors who make this important outreach possible.

ARCHDIOCESAN COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN "What? Crime and Human Trafficking in My Neighborhood?" is Sister Susan Francois' topic at the Central Deanery meeting of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women on Thursday, March 26, 2009. An open business meeting from 3:00–5:00pm precedes refreshments and the speaker from 6:00–7:00pm in the Issac Orr Room at the Chancery (910 Marion Street). We will also be collecting school supplies for our Community Project to Support the Somali Schools. For information or to RSVP, contact Kathleen Tansey, President, 253-630-7755 or Marie Jo Whittington, Community Concerns, 253-520-0462.

FINDING HOPE IN DIFFICULT ECONOMIC TIMES Are you facing unemployment, foreclosure, depletion of retirement funds or some other difficult situation OR are you supporting someone who is? Come for support, fellowship and sharing of ideas on the second and fourth Saturdays of the months to come from 10:00-11:00am in Cathedral Place, second floor. Next gathering: March 28. Information, TerryAnn Bowen, 206-382-2018, tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT BOOK SALE Skyline at First Hill and Trinity Parish Episcopal Church invite you to the Food For Thought Book Sale. The sale will be held at Trinity Parish Episcopal Church, 609 8th Avenue on Saturday, March 28 and Sunday, March 29 from 9:00am to 3:00pm. All proceeds will be donated directly to Northwest Harvest.

HELP A SENIOR IN NEED Many in our community are in need of help with transportation, shopping, laundry, housework, and more. Age, illness, economics, and disabilities can all be barriers to accomplishing these routine, daily tasks. By volunteering just a few hours a month, you can make a huge difference in someone's life and provide them peace of mind and the option to stay in their own home rather than going to an institutionalized setting. If you are interested in joining this rewarding ministry, please come to the orientation on the 2nd floor of the Pastoral Outreach Center on Tuesday, March 31 at 6:30pm. Information Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

ST. JAMES ESL BOOK CLUB Join us on Tuesday, March 31 in the Pastoral Outreach Center to discuss Jasmine by Bharati Mukherjee. Acclaimed by the Los Angeles Times Book Review as "artful and arresting" and "breathtaking," the book tells the riveting story of a young woman's journey and transformation from rural India to Iowa. Jasmine is a quick read, and a thought-provoking story of what it means to be American. Now available in the Cathedral Bookstore. Information, Christopher Koehler, 206-382-4511, ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. A new inquiry session will begin Wednesday, April 29. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend Alexander J. Brunett. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.

Crossing Borders: Migration, Theology, and the Human Journey

An eight-week course on Catholic Social Teaching on Immigration.

Through reading and reflection, discussion and discovery, prayer and action, together we will open ourselves to being informed, formed, and transformed on this topic that is central to Christian identity and affects so many of our brothers and sisters around the world.

The eight sessions will cover the following topics:

- The Contemporary Debate and Public Policy
- History of Migration
- The Bible and Migration
- Foundations of Migration – Root Causes
- Migration and Catholic Social Teaching
- Slavery in America
- The Human Face of the Migrant
- Eucharist and a Theology of Migration

The sessions will take place Wednesday evenings, 6:30-9:00 pm, April 15 through June 3, 2009, and it is expected that participants will attend all eight sessions. Registration is required. There is no class fee, although there is a cost for books and materials of approximately $50 per student; some scholarships available.

For information or to register, contact Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515, or pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

YOM HASHOAH

Remembering the Holocaust

On Thursday, April 16, 2009, at 7:00pm, Holocaust survivors will join Jewish, Christian, and Muslim leaders in the service, which will also feature the music of Seattle Pro Musica and youth musicians from Temple de Hirsh Sinai. The service will conclude with a candle-lighting in memory of the six million who lost their lives in the Holocaust.

Pope John Paul II has said, "We remember the tragic sufferings of the victims not for the sake of reopening painful wounds or of stirring up sentiments of hatred and revenge, but rather in order to honor the dead, to acknowledge historical reality and above all to ensure that those terrible events will serve as a summons for the men and women of today" (15 January 2005). ALL ARE WELCOME.
