WELCOME: If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

REST IN PEACE Please pray for the repose of the souls of Gordon Pugel, Katharine Frasher, and Jean Thorpe.

THE CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE Stop by the Cathedral Bookstore today for a terrific selection of books, including In Due Season, a brand-new memoir by Paul Wilkes, who spoke at the Cathedral last summer. "In Due Season ranks alongside Merton's best because Wilkes absorbed Merton, then moved forward with him, and ultimately beyond him" (NCR).

EASTER FLOWERS Your generous offerings will help to beautify the Cathedral for the coming great feast of Easter. Envelopes are available in the pews. Thank you for your generosity.

EASTER SUNDAY Please note that there will be no coffee hour offered on Easter Sunday morning, and the Cathedral Bookstore will be closed.

Hurry—space is limited, with priority given to registered parishioners!

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC WHO HAS BEEN AWAY FROM THE CHURCH? Our Welcome Back program provides a safe place, in the company of others who are also examining their faith, to ask questions about returning to regular church attendance, returning to the sacraments, and to learn about changes in the church. The sessions are offered on Mondays from 7:00-9:00pm, April 20 through July 13 in Cathedral Place, 2nd floor. Classes are offered without any obligation. Information, TerryAnn Bowen 206-382-2018 or tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org.

Volunteer Opportunities

ESL ADVISORY BOARD MEMBERS If you care about making a difference in the lives of refugees and immigrants, and can commit to a few hours per month, we want you! The ESL Advisory Board advocates for immigration reform, helps plan, raises funds, evaluates the program, and provides general program oversight. We meet on the third Tuesday of each month from 6:00 to 7:30pm. We ask for a commitment of two years. Information, Chris Koehler, (206) 382-4511 or ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org.

WOMEN HELPING WOMEN During the summer months when satellite winter shelters are closed, many people find themselves out on the streets with no place to go. Homeless women are especially vulnerable during this season. St. James is partnering with Operation Nightwatch to meet the housing needs of these women by establishing a 3-month summer shelter for women. We are looking for women volunteers (18+) who are interested in serving as overnight hosts in pairs. We are hoping to host the shelter here so we will need a core of committed volunteers. Please consider serving one or two nights a month. Information, Jennifer Ibach 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALLGAME! Join us for Cathedral Night at Safeco Field as the Seattle Mariners take on the San Francisco Giants on Friday, May 22 at 7:10pm. $12/person (some accessible seating is available—first come, first serve). JOURNEY OF THE ELECT

Our Elect are now entering their final week of preparation for the Easter Vigil, where they will be baptized, confirmed and receive Eucharist for the first time as one with us in the faith. They will participate with us in our Holy Week liturgies, being dismissed for the last time on Holy Thursday evening. They will also participate in a daylong retreat on Holy Saturday in their final preparation rites prior to the celebration of the Vigil of all vigils! You are encouraged to join us at the Easter Vigil to celebrate this most important day of their lives where we, the baptized, will also renew our baptismal promises as we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord.

PRAYER CARDS FOR THE ELECT Thank you for keeping our Elect in your prayers during this season of Lent. Now is the time to turn in your personalized cards or notes for our Elect that will be distributed to them on Holy Saturday. You can drop off your cards in the baskets located at the place of prayer in the Cathedral, in the Hall during hospitality on Sunday mornings, at the Parish Office, or in the Bookstore during its regular hours. They need to be turned in no later than Good Friday evening. Information, Helen Oesterle 206-382-4514.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. A new inquiry session will begin Wednesday, April 29. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

THE YEAR OF ST. PAUL

Be sure to visit the place of prayer for the year of St. Paul in the south aisle of the Cathedral.

- Christ takes on “the form of a slave” for our salvation. The saints have followed Christ’s example, becoming the servants of all (think of Mother Teresa, or of St. Martin de Porres). Are there people in your life who follow Christ’s example of service?
- “Christ humbled himself, becoming obedient.” What does it mean to be humble? When in your life have you encountered an example of true humility?

Parking during Holy Week & Easter at St. James Cathedral

We are doing our utmost to provide ample free parking for the Holy Week and Easter liturgies. For the evening liturgies on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of Holy Week free parking is available at the Cabrini Garage, the O'Dea High School parking lot, the "P-1" lot under Chancery Place, and the Cherry and Terry Lot. The O'Dea High School Parking lot is also available for parking during the Tre Ore service from 12-3 on Good Friday.

On Easter Sunday, all of our lots will be open for free parking; in addition, we will have uniformed police officers on duty during the morning Masses to help direct traffic.

In addition to our regular parking, the Frye Art Museum has offered its parking lots for our use for certain liturgies during Holy Week. Look for the Cathedral Parking signs; they will tell you when these lots are available.

If you have any questions about these changes, please contact Larry Brouse, Pastoral Assistant for Administration, 206-382-4280 or e-mail lbrouse@stjames-cathedral.org.

Remembering the Holocaust

On Thursday, April 16, 2009, at 7:00pm, Holocaust survivors will join Jewish, Christian, and Muslim leaders in the service, which will also feature the music of Seattle Pro Musica and youth musicians from Temple de Hirsh Sinai. The service will conclude with a candle-lighting in memory of the six million who lost their lives in the Holocaust.

Pope John Paul II has said, "We remember the tragic sufferings of the victims not for the sake of reopening painful wounds or of stirring up sentiments of hatred and revenge, but rather in order to honor the dead, to acknowledge historical reality and above all to ensure that those terrible events will serve as a summons for the men and women of today" (15 January 2005). News from the Cathedral Kitchen

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

April 2009

Dear Friends,

It has been almost two years since the “Family Kitchen” turned over their operation to St. James Cathedral. Since the changeover the Cathedral Kitchen has made some revisions of the entrance criteria. Instead of limiting our guests to men over 55 years of age, families, and women, we have opened our doors to all who come, clean and sober.

After a year and a half of this changeover, the last couple of months we have had an opportunity to reevaluate this change, recognizing that there is no perfect solution to feeding our guests. At the present time we distribute 150 tickets daily to those in need of nourishment. We recognize that this procedure has had some drawbacks and has created concern within the neighborhood and other parish programs. After a considerable amount of discussion and prayer, and in light of the current financial crisis which is putting such a burden on all of us, we have decided to renew our commitment to serve all people in need, regardless of age. At the same time, we commit ourselves to working with our neighbors and our guests to find creative solutions to challenges as they arise.

NETWORKING

Where does all of our food come from? Operating a meal program such as the one at St. James requires the participation of many in our community. The Kitchen gleans from three PCC stores and Madison Market on a daily basis, and QFC University Village on Fridays. We select the items we need, and repack the boxes for St. Mary's Food Bank, four days a week. They in turn supply us with basic items that we are lacking for our meal such as milk, tomatoes, etc. On Fridays we share our gleaning load with the Seattle

Indian Center or the Cross Church in White Center. Our coffee is donated from various coffee establishments and is picked up every two or three weeks. Desserts come from various stores in the Magnolia area, homemade cookies from various parishes and Sugar Bakery on Madison. Other donations are gleaned from the Northwest Harvest warehouse in Kent and the Union Gospel Mission. Items that we are unable to glean or trade for are purchased by cash gifts made to the Cathedral.

The old adage that “it takes a village to raise a child” can be revised to “it takes a city to take care of our brothers and sisters in need.”

ONGOING NEEDS

As the number of guests served continues to increase, we continue to need more volunteers, particularly for cleanup. There is also a need for gleaners, as well as good cooks. If you'd like to volunteer, call 206-264-2091 or e-mail jmcauliffe@stjames-cathedral.org. We'd love to hear from you!

Understanding Religious Freedom

Dear Friends in Christ,

During last fall's campaign on I-1000, the supporters of assisted suicide repeatedly attacked the Catholic Church for trying to impose its values on society. We also have seen similar charges on issues such as abortion and pharmacists' right to act according to their consciences.

Not only are such charges unfounded, they reveal a fundamental misunderstanding of the right of religious freedom and our democratic form of government. I am very concerned that such attacks not only undermine religious freedom but they are injurious to our political process. It is important to remember the vital role of this process in balancing competing interests within human society.

The Church does not seek to coerce or impose its values on anyone (God is Love, no. 28). But we will continue to insist on our right to advocate for universal values derived from our dignity as human beings.

God created human beings in His image and likeness. This is the source of our dignity. But we are not created solely as individual persons. A vital part of our identity as humans is that we are meant to be in relationship with others. And because we are in relationship with others in community, there will always be a challenge to balance the rights we have as individuals with the need to protect the common good.

I pray that each of you continue to learn more about the right to religious freedom and to have the courage to defend it when the Church is attacked. Not only will you assist the Church in its mission but you will contribute to the health of our political system.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Alex J. Brunett

Most Rev. Alex J. Brunett
Archbishop of Seattle

Two significant aspects to Religious Freedom

When considering religious freedom, there are two important aspects to keep in mind. The first is that each human being has the right to practice their religion. As Vatican II said, "the Christian faithful, in common with all other [people], possess the civil right not to be hindered in leading their lives in accordance with their consciences." (Declaration on Religious Freedom, no. 13)

The second key aspect of the right is to be free from coercion – that people not be forced by society to believe certain things. As Vatican II declared, "Religious freedom...has to do with immunity from coercion in civil society." (Declaration on Religious Freedom, no. 1)

Separation of Church and State

The beginning of the Bill of Rights, the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, reads, “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof...” It is important to understand what is meant by the separation of Church and State. It means that the government will neither designate an official Church nor interfere with people practicing their religion. In the words of Pope Benedict XVI, “The State may not impose religion, yet it must guarantee religious freedom and harmony between the followers of different religions. For her part, the Church, as the social expression of Christian faith, has a proper independence and is structured on the basis of her faith as a community which the State must recognize. The two spheres are distinct, yet always interrelated.” (God is Love, no. 28)

Our Responsibilities

With any right there are associated responsibilities. God desires us to be “lovers of true freedom” (Declaration on Religious Freedom, no. 8). True freedom does not mean that we can do whatever we please. True freedom is tempered by our duty to seek the truth, to form our consciences well. The reason the Church honors the role of the individual conscience is that “each one of us is to render to God an account.” (Romans 14:12; see also Mt. 25:31-46)

Just as there are two important aspects to the right to religious freedom, so there are two key responsibilities: (1) to develop a well-formed conscience, and (2) to respect the religious freedom of others. “Although each individual has a right to be respected in his [or her] own journey in search of the truth, there exists a prior moral obligation, and a grave one at that, to seek the truth and to adhere to it once it is known.” (The Splendor of Truth, no. 34) As followers of Jesus, we should never do what is “incompatible with the spirit of the Gospel. At the same time, the charity of Christ urges [each disciple] to love and have prudence and patience in [our] dealings with those who are in error or in ignorance with regard to the faith.” (Declaration on Religious Freedom, no. 14)

Suggested Talking Points

When talking to neighbors or people you meet throughout the day, consider raising the following points when someone argues that the Church should not impose its values on society.

☞ Everyone has the basic human right to religious freedom. The values of religious people have a place in public arenas. Just think where our society would be without religious people entering the public sphere – for example, religious people led the movements to abolish slavery and to secure civil rights for all.

☞ Society needs to consider all of the good that Catholics contribute to society: health care, education and social services, to name only three.

☞ When people suggest that the Church has no business in advocating for values in the public square, they are not upholding the U.S. Constitution. We all need to have the courage to protect and exercise our right to religious freedom.
