Discerning our Gifts in the Year of St. Paul

MONDAYS, MAY 4, 11, AND 18

7:00—8:30PM

PASTORAL OUTREACH CENTER,
COMMUNITY ROOM

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone." (I Cor 12:4)

What are the gifts God has given me?

In celebration of the Year of St. Paul, we'll explore the different gifts God gives and have time to reflect on our own gifts and how we can use them to build up God's kingdom.

During this three-part retreat, led by parishioner Nathan Standifer, we'll have the opportunity to complete the extensive "gifts inventory" from St. Catherine of Siena Institute, with individual results provided for each participant. Your gifts may surprise you!
