At the conclusion of Mass, Father Ryan will pray the rosary with the children of the Faith Formation programs. You are invited to remain for this prayer, which will conclude with the crowning of the image of Our Lady, Seat of Wisdom, in the Cathedral Courtyard. The Prayers of the Rosary

THE APOSTLES' CREED

LEADER: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell; the third day he arose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the living and the dead.

ALL: I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

LEADER: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

ALL: Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

HAIL MARY

LEADER: Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

ALL: Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

GLORY BE

LEADER: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

ALL: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

HAIL, HOLY QUEEN

ALL: Hail, Holy Queen, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to you do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us, and after this exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

LEADER: Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

ALL: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Rosary Procession

May is Mary's month! We pray the rosary in her honor immediately following the Noon Mass today, May 24. The children of the parish will join Father Ryan in a procession. You are invited to join the procession, too! If you don't know all the prayers by heart, don't worry! You'll find the complete text in the panel at the left. We will pray each of the Glorious Mysteries before a different image in the Cathedral. The beautiful art of our Cathedral will help us to meditate on the good news of Easter: Christ is risen!

After each decade, the cantor will lead the assembly in singing "Be Joyful, Mary."

Cantor, then all: Be joyful, Mary!

Cantor, then all: Rejoice, rejoice, O Mary!

THE FIRST GLORIOUS MYSTERY

The Resurrection of Jesus

We pray the first decade before the South Transept windows by Charles Connick. In the center window, we see Jesus, risen and alive. Angels kneel before him. The two side windows show the disciples of Jesus on the first Easter morning. On the left, we see the women coming with spices to anoint the body of Jesus. On the right, we see Peter and John running to the empty tomb.

THE SECOND GLORIOUS MYSTERY

Jesus Ascends into Heaven

We pray the second decade before the image of Jesus in the South Transept. This statue, called The Sacred Heart Pleading, shows Jesus praying to his Father. He reaches up to heaven with a loving gesture of prayer. His heart is on fire with love for his people.

THE THIRD GLORIOUS MYSTERY

Jesus Sends the Holy Spirit on his disciples

We pray the third decade before the icon of Pentecost. This icon was created by Joan Brand-Landkamer. It shows the disciples in prayer. As they pray, Jesus sends the Holy Spirit upon them. The Spirit rests on the head of each of them, like a flame. The dove, the symbol of the Holy Spirit, hovers over this image of the church at prayer.

THE FOURTH GLORIOUS MYSTERY

Mary Is Assumed into Heaven

We pray the fourth decade before the image of Our Lady of Grace in the North Transept. This statue has been in the Cathedral since it was dedicated one hundred years ago, on December 22, 1907. It shows Mary as a simple, humble maiden. She is the one who always said "yes" to God.

THE FIFTH GLORIOUS MYSTERY

Mary is Crowned Queen of Heaven

We pray the last decade of the rosary in the Cathedral Courtyard, around the image of Mary as the Throne of Wisdom, Sedes Sapientiae. Mary is called the Throne of Wisdom because the great King, Jesus, is sitting in her arms. For many years, this statue of Mary holding Jesus in her arms stood on the grounds of St. Edward's Seminary in Kenmore.

THE YEAR OF ST. PAUL

ST. PAUL ON THE ASCENSION

Fourth in a Series

May 24, 2009

May the eyes of your hearts be enlightened, that you may know what is the hope that belongs to his call, what are the riches of glory in his inheritance among the holy ones, and what is the surpassing greatness of his power for us who believe, in accord with the exercise of his great might, which he worked in Christ, raising him from the dead and seating him at his right hand in the heavens, far above every principality, authority, power, and dominion, and every name that is named not only in this age but also in the one to come. And he put all things beneath his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of the one who fills all things in every way.

(Ephesians 1:18-23)

Christ's Ascension is Ours

We know that Christ ascended to the Father forty days after his resurrection from the dead, and that nine days after that, at the Jewish feast of Pentecost, he sent the Holy Spirit upon his disciples. But the Ascension is not an easy mystery to relate to. What does it have to do with us?

The Letter to the Ephesians begins with a prayer that we might understand this mystery—because it is our mystery! In the resurrection and ascension of Christ, the letter says, are our “hope,” our “inheritance,” the revelation of the “power” and “might” of God. For in raising Jesus from the dead, and placing him at his right hand, God has rearranged the whole order of things. God gave Christ “as head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of the one who fills all things in every way.” In the Ascension, Jesus vanishes from the sight of his disciples, but God gives him back to them in a new and greater way: he is the head, we are the body. The Ascension of the Lord fills the Church, the mystical body of Christ, with the divine presence. The Church is, in the astonishing words of the Letter to the Ephesians, “the fullness of the one who fills all things.”

As the Preface for today's feast expresses it, Christ “has passed beyond our sight, not to abandon us but to be our hope. Christ is the beginning, the head of the Church; where he has gone, we hope to follow.”

St. Paul... and Friends

St. Paul spent a considerable amount of time in Ephesus (three years, according to the Acts of the Apostles) but since the 16th century scripture scholars have doubted that the letter to the Ephesians is the work of the apostle himself. The style is quite different from the other Pauline letters, and the approach to certain themes – the Church, in particular - suggests that the letter was written by another writer, probably a later follower of St. Paul.

Whether it was authored by St. Paul or only inspired by him, Ephesians speaks powerfully to us today. As scripture scholar Vincent Smiles has observed, the letter “represents the voice of the faithful struggling under new and difficult circumstances to recall and remain faithful to the original inspiration of the gospel.... Ephesians invites a continuing rediscovery of the ancient tradition so that that love can be more vibrant in the church and so that the church can reach out more effectively to the world” (The New Collegeville Bible Commentary).

Prayer for the Year of St. Paul

Glorious Saint Paul,
Apostle to the Gentiles,
when the Lord called, you answered,
and you spread the good news of the Gospel
to the very ends of the earth.
Pray for us, that we may serve Christ as you did:
proclaiming the name of Jesus
in good times and bad,
when convenient and when inconvenient.
Pray for us, that we may welcome
all the people we meet
with compassionate hearts and open minds.
Pray for us, that Christ may live in us as he lived in you.
We pray in the name of the One who is your Lord and ours,
Christ Jesus the Lord. Amen.

Novena in Honor of St. Paul

We will conclude this Year of St. Paul with a special novena of prayer, beginning Saturday, June 20 and concluding on the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Monday, June 29. All Masses during the novena will conclude with a special procession to the place of prayer in honor of St. Paul in the Cathedral's west aisle.
