ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

June 7, 2009

Dear Friends,

It's always good to have good news to share with you and today I have some very good news. Our parishioner, Todd Strange, will be ordained to the priesthood here in the Cathedral next Saturday, June 13.

Many of you know Todd. He came into the church back in 2001 through our RCIA program. After that he served as one of our Eucharistic Ministers and quietly reached out in loving service to people with special needs, including people in nursing homes and hospitals.

Todd is a gentle servant of the gospel and will be a wonderful priest.

Vocations to the priesthood are formed and fostered in many ways, but I firmly believe that a parish community has a critically important role to play in this regard. And Todd, I am sure, would be quick to affirm that about our parish, about you. You have had a part in leading him to the priesthood and his ordination is your celebration as well as his.

The ordination will take place in next Saturday at 10:00 in the morning. Seating will be limited because there are several men being ordained, but the next day, the feast of Corpus Christi, Todd will preside at a Mass of Thanksgiving at the noon Mass here in the Cathedral, and there will be plenty of seats for that! The Mass will be followed by a reception in the Cathedral Hall to which you are all invited. I hope you will be able to join Todd and his family next weekend as they and we give thanks to God for his vocation to service and leadership in the Church.

Father Michael C. Ryan

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!

St. James is proud to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today.

FLOWERS IN THE CATHEDRAL are in memory of Thomas Comer from his wife Anne, on the 10th anniversary of his death.

MUSIC AT 10:00AM SUNDAY The Cathedral Chamber Orchestra is made possible through a donation in appreciation for all the musicians of St. James.

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION The gift bearers at noon Mass today are our wonderful Children's Faith Formation volunteers who faithfully prepare lessons and teach the ways of faith to the children of our parish every Sunday throughout the year. Others watch the door and help keep our children safe. We honor thank them for helping these children to grow in their faith and their loving relationship with Jesus.

THE CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE Stop by the bookstore today for a great selection of Cathedral souvenirs... postcards, notecards, books, mugs, magnets, and more!

THE GLOBAL WATER CRISIS: A CHRISTIAN

RESPONSE Seattle University Professor of Christian Ethics Gary Chamberlain, author of Troubled Waters: Religion, Ethics and the Global Water Crisis, will speak on the intersection between our faith and the increasing problem of lack of access to water in many areas of the world. Monday, June 8, 2009, 7:00 pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. Registration required. Information, or to register, Patty Bowman, 382-4515, or pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

SUMMER FILM FESTIVAL Join us on Second Tuesdays of the summer months in Cathedral Place, 2nd floor at 7:00pm for the return of this popular summer series. Popcorn and lemonade will be provided and you are welcome to bring your favorite treats. First showing: The Visitor (PG-13) on Tuesday, June 9. The film is about an American professor and an immigrant family from Syria, and explores the effects of our immigration and detention system on the lives of immigrants. It has received great reviews! Co-sponsored by St. James ESL Program. Information, Helen Oesterle 206-382-4514 or hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of Holy Trinity in Bremerton, St. Anthony in Renton, and St. Anthony Mission in Carnation.

THE NEXT SENIOR TRIP Wednesday, June 10, will take us to the Point Defiance Zoo. This zoo is large enough to offer an wide array of animals yet small enough to let you get really close to them. You'll see seahorses and sharks, peacocks and penguins, wolves and walrus, all in one place. It offers beautiful views of Puget Sound, Mount Rainier and the Olympic Mountains, too. Space is limited and priority will be given to registered parishioners! Information, or to reserve your place, John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, at 206-274-3173 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

HELP A SENIOR IN NEED Many in our community are in need of help with transportation, shopping, laundry, housework, and more. By volunteering just a few hours a month, you can make a huge difference in someone's life, provide them peace of mind, and help them to stay in their own home rather than going to an institutionalized setting. If you are interested in joining this rewarding ministry, please come to the orientation on the 2nd floor of the Pastoral Outreach Center on Wednesday, June 10 at 6:30pm. Information Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

YOUNG ADULTS (21-35) "FIRST-THURSDAY" SOCIAL (on the 2nd Thursday!) Journey to an exotic place without leaving town. On Thursday, June 11 we will gather at The Marrakesh Moroccan Restaurant, 2334 Second Ave, Seattle. We will be transported to a lush tent in the North African desert: soft lighting and draped fabrics... best of all, a wonderful menu of tantalizing foods! RSVP by noon Wednesday, June 10 so we know how many to plan for. Information and RSVP, youngadults@stjames-cathedral.org or TerryAnn Bowen 206-382-2018.

SUMMER SHELTER TRAINING This July and August, St. James will be partnering with Noel House and Operation Nightwatch to provide overflow shelter on Friday and Saturday nights to homeless women in our community. We will be holding an orientation for all interested volunteers on Tuesday, June 16 at 7pm in the hall. Volunteers must be female and over the age of 18. Information, Jennifer Ibach 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

THE ALL PARISH CHOIR NEEDS YOU Sunday, June 21, at 10:00am, join voices with other parishioners and cathedral choristers in a celebration of our great singing community. Anyone of any age or vocal capability is welcome. Rehearsals are in the Cathedral Thursday June 18, 7:30-9:00 pm and Sunday June 21, 9:05 am. Information, Stacey Sunde, 206-382-4874 or musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org.

WORLD PREMIERE Sunday, June 28, 8:00pm Organist Douglas Cleveland, "a brilliant performer with prodigious technique," joins Cathedral Resident Ensemble Seattle Pro Musica in the first performance of an exciting new work by Bruce Neswick, commissioned by the American Guild of Organists for the AGO Regional Convention. Free and open to all.

Sacred Steps

Sacramental Celebrations at St. James

WE CELEBRATED THE RITE OF RECEPTION FOR FULL COMMUNION into the Catholic Church on Sunday, May 31 with Maya Blechschmidt, Beverly Gleeson, Kevin King, Alina Kovalenko, Yoshiaki Nakazawa, Angelica Napenias, Eliza Penalosa, Jeffrey Porter, Barbara Romero, Ului Teulilo, Jr., Dajeanne Washington, Deon Washington, Desiree Washington, Alison White, and Ricardo Zepeda. They made a Profession of Faith and celebrated the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation, and now join us as full members of our Catholic Christian family. We welcome them with great joy!

CONGRATULATIONS also to Christian Wilgis who made his First Holy Communion last weekend.

SEATTLE SOUNDERS vs. HOUSTON DYNAMO Tickets are going fast for the Sounders game at Qwest Field on Saturday, July 11 at 1:00pm. $20/person. Reserve your tickets now! (The game is sold out so this is the only way to see our home team!) Information, Theresa Van de Ven, 206-219-5822, tvandeven@stjames-cathedral.org

PART-TIME ASSISTANT BABYSITTING COORDINATOR NEEDED Applications are currently being accepted for this paid position. The job involves assisting the Babysitting Coordinator in caring for Cathedral children on Sunday mornings during the 10:00 and 12:00 Masses, once a month on a Saturday morning for our Baptism Seminars, and at various other events. Averages 10-15 hours per month. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

Annual Catholic Appeal 2009

Results through May 31, 2009

Pledges received	797 (of 2,497 households)
% participation	32%
Combined Parish & Archdiocesan goal	$454,000
Percent of goal reached	93%

"Annual Catholic Appeal" season is drawing to a close. But as you can see, we're not quite there yet. We are about $30,000 short of our goal! Every dollar that comes in now will be returned to the parish in the form of a rebate to support our Cathedral Kitchen and other outreach ministries. This isn't just a "bonus"—these are funds we actually rely on to make these important ministries happen. Your support at this time is crucial!

Corpus Christi Procession

with the Blessed Sacrament
on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body
and Blood of Christ

Sunday, June 14, 2009
10:00am

As Catholics have done on this day for nearly a millennium, we take to the streets with procession, prayer, bagpipes, and song to celebrate and show forth to our entire First Hill community our faith in Christ's abiding presence in our midst in the holy Eucharist.

"We bring Christ, present under the sign of bread, onto the streets of our city. We entrust these streets, these homes, our daily life, to his goodness. May our streets be streets of Jesus! May our houses be homes for him and with him! May our life of every day be penetrated by his presence!

"With this gesture, let us place under his eyes the sufferings of the sick, the solitude of young people and the elderly, temptations, fears - our entire life. The procession represents an immense and public blessing for our city: Christ is, in person, the divine Blessing for the world. May the ray of his blessing extend to us all!

"In the Corpus Domini procession, we walk with the Risen One on his journey to meet the entire world."

—Pope Benedict XVI

THE YEAR OF ST. PAUL

ST. PAUL & THE TRINITY

Sixth in a Series

June 7, 2009

Those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Romans 8:14-17

A Family of Faith

The mystery we celebrate in today's feast—the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity—is at the very core of our Christian faith. "The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the 'hierarchy of the truths of faith'" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 234).

It took centuries for the Church to come to a formal understanding of what it means to be baptized "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." When St. Paul wrote his letters, the Church had no creed, no formalized statements of dogma. Paul would certainly not have recognized the name of today's feast, "The Most Blessed Trinity"! But that is not to say that he would not have recognized the mystery that language seeks to describe. Paul's writings have helped to shape the Church's understanding of the Trinity. Several of his letters end with a distinctly Trinitarian blessing, which is echoed in the liturgy: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with all of you" (2 Corinthians 13:13).

Today's reading from the Letter to the Romans speaks of our adoption as sons and daughters of God, an adoption in which all three persons of the Trinity play a part. God becomes our Father because through the

Icon of the Most Holy Trinity. Joan Brand-Landkamer, Cathedral Iconographer

Son, we are given the Spirit, who is a "Spirit of adoption." In the power of this Spirit, we are able to call on God as father. Children are, of course, heirs, and if we are children of God then we are God's heirs—"joint heirs with Christ." And Christ himself, St. Paul says, is the way to perfect this relationship, for we must suffer with him if we are to be glorified with him.

St. Paul uses the language of father, son, and adoption to express the mystery we celebrate today: God is a God of relationship. Through our baptism we are drawn into relationship with God.

Novena in Honor of St. Paul

We will conclude this Year of St. Paul with a special novena of prayer, beginning Saturday, June 20 and concluding on the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Monday, June 29. All Masses during the novena will conclude with a special procession to the place of prayer in honor of St. Paul.

Prayer for the Year of St. Paul

Glorious Saint Paul,
Apostle to the Gentiles,
when the Lord called, you answered,
and you spread the good news of the Gospel
to the very ends of the earth.
Pray for us, that we may serve Christ as you did:
proclaiming the name of Jesus
in good times and bad,
when convenient and when inconvenient.
Pray for us, that we may welcome
all the people we meet
with compassionate hearts and open minds.
Pray for us, that Christ may live in us as he lived in you.
We pray in the name of the One who is your Lord and ours,
Christ Jesus the Lord. Amen.
