ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL
Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 20, 2009

Because of the importance of this year's Build Hope Campaign, Father Ryan's letter of last Sunday is being reprinted for the sake of those who may not have been able to be here.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

September 13, 2009

Dear Friends,

This is "Back to School" time for many of our children. It may also be "Back to the Cathedral" time for families that have been traveling this summer or perhaps attending church closer to home. In any case, it's wonderful to be together again! While summer brought us the largest number of visitors in my memory, no visitor could ever take your place!

It's good, too, to have the Cathedral Choir back with us at the 10:00 Mass. Next week, we will welcome back the Women's Schola to the Sunday evening Mass.

The special "Build Hope" collection today has an importance beyond what it has had in past years. A major purpose of this collection has long been to fund, at the national level, the use of the media for preaching the gospel message. This year, however, the emphasis will be on buying time on local media (especially television). During Lent 2010, the Archdiocese will be undertaking a massive local media campaign called "Catholics Come Home." It will involve a series of very thought-provoking television spots addressed to Catholics who no longer practice their faith as well as others who might be interested in exploring the Catholic faith. Needless to say, the television time is extremely expensive but I think you will agree that the cause is more than worthwhile.

Our parish has been asked to contribute $12,000 to the "Catholics Come Home" media campaign. In order to meet this, I need to ask that you consider giving a larger gift to the Build Hope collection than you may have done in the past. I know each of you will do what you can because you always do. A suggestion: a gift of $35 from each of our regular contributors would allow us to meet our goal.

Let me thank you in advance. As always, I am deeply grateful for your generosity.

Father Michael G. Ryan

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

FLOWERS IN THE CATHEDRAL are in memory of David Pettigrew, from his family. Floral offerings are a venerable custom in the Church, and a wonderful way to remember a deceased loved one, celebrate an anniversary, or give thanks for an answered prayer. Information Kay Kaiser, 206-654-4650, kkaiser@stjames-cathedral.org.

BUILD HOPE COLLECTION The Archbishop has asked us to raise $12,000 for this important collection which will fund a major local media campaign in Lent, 2010. Thank you to all who donated $8,030 last week. A gift of $35 from each of our regular contributors would allow us to meet our goal. Thank you in advance for your generous response!

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION Registration continues this Sunday. You can also download the registration form at the cathedral website, www.stjames-cathedral.org/kids. Children's Faith Formation sessions begin on September 27 and continue every Sunday thereafter. Classes are from 11:00am to 11:50am. Information, Lita McBride, 206-654-4658 or Theresa VanDeVen, 206-219-5822.

BLOOD DRIVE SIGNUP TODAY! Our Fall Parish Blood Drive will be held on Wednesday September 23 in the Pastoral Outreach Center from 1:00pm to 3:30pm and 4:15pm to 7:00pm. Help to make sure that the Puget Sound Blood Center has an adequate supply of blood to meet those in need in our community. Sign up today at the coffee hours after the 10:00am and noon Masses. Or contact John Simpson, jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org, 206-274-3173, to sign up or to find out more.

JOURNEY THROUGH GRIEF Are you seeking comfort after the death of a loved one? Join others who have also experienced loss in a prayerful supportive environment. In a six-week guided group process we will journey through our grief and gently embrace our mourning so that ultimately we may find healing. Information, John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, 206-274-3173 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Matthew in Seattle, St. Gabriel in Port Orchard, St. Jerome in Ocean Shores, St. Therese in Seattle and St. Theresa in Federal Way.

CATHOLIC 101: THE TEN COMMANDMENTS—

LIVING A MORAL CHRISTIAN LIFE Join us on

Tuesdays, September 22 and 29, 1:00-3:00pm or 7:00-9:00pm, Cathedral Place—second floor for an ongoing look at the newly published US Catechism for Adults. YOUNG ADULTS (21-40) 3RD SUNDAY INFORMAL WINE AND CHEESE Sunday, September 20 at 4:00pm. Enjoy fellowship from 4:00 to 4:30 followed by guided study of the Scripture readings for the day. The study will finish in time to attend 5:30 Mass. Young adults over the age of 21, single or married, gather in the Fireside Room of the Pastoral Outreach Center. Newcomers and those not new to the parish are all welcome! Information, youngadults@stjames-cathedral.org or TerryAnn Bowen, 206-382-2018.

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC WHO HAS BEEN AWAY FROM THE CHURCH? It is not too late to join our Welcome

Back program—a safe place, in the company of others who are also examining their faith, to ask questions about returning to regular church attendance, returning to the sacraments, and to learn about changes in the Church. The 1st session was last Monday, but you can still join us Monday, September 21 from 7:00-9:00pm and then each Monday through December 7 in Cathedral Place, 2nd floor. Classes are offered without any obligation. Information, TerryAnn Bowen, 206-382-2018 or tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org.

BAPTISM AND FIRST COMMUNION FOR CHILDREN

Registration will take place September 20 following the 10:00am and Noon Masses. Classes begin September 27. Information, TerryAnn Bowen, tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-2018.

HELP A SENIOR IN NEED Many in our community are in need of help with transportation, shopping, laundry, housework, and more. Age, illness, economics, and disabilities can all be barriers to accomplishing these routine, daily tasks. By volunteering just a few hours a month, you can make a huge difference in someone's life, provide them peace of mind, and help them stay in their own home rather than going to an institutionalized setting. If you are interested in joining this rewarding ministry, please come to the orientation on the 1st floor of the Pastoral Outreach Center on Tuesday, September 22 at 6:30pm. Information, Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

ADVOCACY TRAINING During the year over 24,000 people experience homelessness in King County, many of whom are families with children. On Saturday, October 10 from 10:00am-Noon in Cathedral Hall, the St. James Housing Advocacy Committee will co-host a training program for making advocacy for the homeless politically effective, simple, and yes, even fun! This free program will be conducted by Nancy Amidei, a national expert in advocacy training who is renowned for her knowledge and the joy she brings to this important learning event. Information, Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

DO YOU GIVE AT THE OFFICE? Help refugees and immigrants to learn English, become citizens, and connect to community resources. When you make a gift through the United Way or other workplace giving campaign, you can designate the St. James ESL Program. For United Way, simply write in "St. James ESL Program" for the specific agency you want to designate. If you work for Boeing or Microsoft, your gift will automatically be matched, doubling your donation. Visit our website at www.stjames-cathedral.org/esl to see what a difference your donation can make. Information, Christopher Koehler at 206-382-4511, or ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org

PARISH CENSUS For the first time in many years, we are conducting a census of our parish families, inviting each registered household to update phone and e-mail information. A huge thank you to the more than 500 families who completed the census via e-mail this past week. If you are registered at St. James Cathedral, look for a letter in the mail this coming week. It will only take a moment or two to review the information and return it to the parish office. You may also bring it with you to Mass and drop it in the offering basket (this will save on postage!). Thank you!

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

WE LOVE OUR VOLUNTEERS

Over 120 volunteers participate in the Cathedral Kitchen. With their selfless love they contribute their time and talent as well as their generous gifts. With the summer winding down, we would like to highlight a couple of our volunteers' outstanding contributions which have made a BIG difference in our program:

HOW WOULD I SPEND A $500 AWARD?

One of our student volunteers wrote the following letter to the Major's Scholar Award Committee:

"I would really enjoy receiving $500 for my education. Who wouldn't? In tough times like these it would be a much appreciated bonus. However, if I were fortunate enough to be honored with a Mayor's Scholar Award, I would very much like the money to be donated to the St. James Cathedral Kitchen which has been directed over the past two years by Jim and Jill McAuliffe. St. James Cathedral Kitchen is an organization that is completely reliant on donations of money, food from both individuals and generous local grocery stores, and time. I don't know who pays the water and energy bills for cooking the food and washing the dishes but they must be unbelievable. The volunteers who work with Jill and Jim are all wonderful people who work very hard for others after working hard all day at their jobs. The 150 guests of the Cathedral Kitchen who receive the hot meals and sack lunches every weeknight truly need them. The food banks which receive the leftovers produce from Cathedral Kitchen make sure that everything reaches the plates of the needy. The Cathedral Kitchen has an amazing and self-sacrificing staff and their efforts have a wide and significant impact on our community."

MarieClaire Ebragia
8th Grade
St. Joseph School

God has indeed blessed MarieClaire, as well as the Kitchen for her participation in an activity that reaches far beyond her personal needs. Thank you, MarieClaire, for your consideration of the needs of others before your own. And thank you to the City of Seattle for awarding the Cathedral Kitchen $500.

THANK YOU, VINCE

Once a week, 52 weeks a year, Vince Brennan gleans at Northwest Harvest. This past fiscal year (July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2009) Vince picked up 16,683 pounds of food. UNBELIEVABLE!!! THANK YOU, VINCE.

AN ANONYMOUS DONOR

Mrs. H has been faithful to the Cathedral Kitchen for many years with her annual donation of 400 pounds of Thanksgiving turkey and oodles of rice. This summer she went way over the top and bought us $5,000 gift cards to Uwajimaya so that we have the option to buy what we need at the Kitchen in order to serve a nutritious and satisfying meal for our guests. She told us that she doesn't want anyone to go hungry. THANK YOU, MRS. H!!!

THANK YOU ROSEMARY TUBEN

Rosemary, a Sr. Operations Project Analyst at Bank of America, has not only been volunteering at the Kitchen, this past year, working side by side with our Seattle University student volunteers on Friday afternoons, but with her 100+ hours, Bank of America has matched her hours with a $500 gift to the Cathedral Kitchen. Thank you, Rosemary, for all you do for us.

Your Community Blood Center

Puget Sound Blood Center is an independent, volunteer-supported, nonprofit community resource. It is a key link in the healthcare network, providing blood, tissue and specialized laboratory services in Western Washington and across the Northwest. Blood Center physicians offer 24-hour consultation to the medical community on transfusion and transplantation medicine issues, and provide valuable education aimed at improving patient care.

Who needs blood?

Most of us will require a blood transfusion at some point in our lifetimes. To meet the transfusion needs of patients in our community, at least 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

Who can donate blood?

Most people can donate blood. Those who are at least 18 years old and weigh at least 110 pounds may donate blood every 56 days. Those 16 or 17 may donate with a signed Blood Center permission slip; there is no upper age limit. Some health conditions or medications may temporarily or permanently prevent people from donating blood.
