The Church of Christ in ev'ry age

OLD 100TH

- 1 The Church of Christ in ev'ry age
Beset by change but Spirit led,
Must claim and test its heritage
And keep on rising from the dead.
- 2 Across the world, across the street,
The victims of injustice cry,
For shelter and for bread to eat,
And never live until they die.
- 3 Then let the servant Church arise,
A caring Church that longs to be
A partner in Christ's sacrifice,
And clothed in Christ's humanity.
- 4 For he alone, whose blood was shed,
Can cure the fever in our blood,
And teach us how to share our bread
And feed the starving multitude.
- 5 We have no mission but to serve,
In full obedience to our Lord:
To care for all without reserve,
And spread his liberating Word.

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are in memory of Patrick Lanphier, from his family, on the third anniversary of his death.

ROSARY FOR LIFE Each Thursday in October, the rosary will be prayed in the Cathedral at 6:00 pm (shortly following the 5:30pm Mass). What better way to observe Respect Life Month, than by praying the rosary together for a greater respect for all life, from conception to natural death?

FOUNDATIONS IN FAITH SERIES: ISRAEL'S SACRED HISTORY AND INSTITUTIONS: Today, October 18 at St. Peter's Parish Hall on Beacon Hill from 1:30-5:30 pm. In this Scripture class, participants will explore the historical books and the Major Prophets in the Old Testament – becoming familiar with the characters. They will learn about the importance of the roles of priest, prophet and king in Israel's history and understand how, through baptism, we are called to be priest, prophet and king. Cost: $5 per class. Please bring your Bible and copy of the Catechism to the class. (Co-sponsored by St. James Cathedral with the South Seattle Deanery) Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514.

YOUNG ADULTS (21 - 30-SOMETHING) 3RD SUNDAY INFORMAL WINE AND CHEESE Today, October 18 at 4:00 pm. Enjoy fellowship from 4:00 to 4:30 followed by guided study of the Scripture readings for the day. The study will finish in time to attend 5:30 Mass. Young adults over the age of 21, single or married, gather in the Fireside Room of the Pastoral Outreach Center. Newcomers and those not new to the parish are all welcome! Information youngadults@stjames-cathedral.org or TerryAnn Bowen, 206-382-2018.

SOLEMN MASS OF ALL SOULS November 2, 7:30 pm. If you would like to remember someone in the printed program or be a patron, please put your donation in an envelope marked "All Souls Patron" and drop it in the offering basket or send to the parish office. Be sure to include the name of the person you want to remember, as well as your name and address. Information, Music Office, 206-382-4874.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of Our Lady of the Lake, Seattle; Our Lady of Mt. Virgin, Seattle; and St. Jude, Redmond.

"BREAD FOR THE WORLD SUNDAY" is coming! Bread for the World is an ecumenical Christian voice urging our nation's decision makers to end hunger at home and abroad. On the weekend of October 31 and November 1, St. James Cathedral will participate in the Bread for the World campaign by having available volunteers to assist you in writing your letters to congressional representatives, urging them to support anti-hunger legislation. To learn more about hunger, and what you can do to make a difference, see Bread for the World's website at www.bread.org. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515 or pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. A new inquiry session will begin Wednesday, November 4 at 7:00 pm. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org You can also check out our website at www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA.

WINTER SHELTER TOILETRIES DONATIONS NEEDED As part of their overnight stay, the men receive toiletries they can use to freshen up before heading out for the day (many go to work). We are able to provide these toiletries thanks to generous donations given by St. James parishioners. Please drop off any of the following unused items in the blue bin at coffee hour: disposable razors, cough drops, individually wrapped toothbrushes and travel-sized toothpaste. Information, Denise Carlascio, 425-687-7495.

"PEELING THE ONION: THE MORAL DIMENSIONS OF HEALTH CARE REFORM" (Co-sponsored by St. James Cathedral and SU School of Theology and Ministry) The event has been postponed due to ongoing legislative efforts in Washington D.C. More information to come soon!

SEATTLE HOUSING LEVY RENEWAL Proposition 1 on November's ballot will renew the Seattle Housing Levy. You can see one success of the past levy across 9th Avenue from the Cathedral at Ozanam House. Our Catholic faith teaches that a basic moral test of society is how it treats the poor, and that every person made in God's image has a fundamental right to life and to those things required for human decency, including shelter. Please prayerfully reflect on these teachings of our faith as you vote on the Housing Levy. More info at www.yesforhomes.org.

Wills & Estate Planning Seminar

St. James Cathedral, Pastoral Outreach Center

Thursday, November 5, 2009 at 2:00pm & 7:00pm

Did you know that an estimated 60% of adult Americans do not have a valid will? Many think that only wealthy people need an estate plan. But this simply isn't true! Even those with no dependents need an estate plan if they have any property at all and want to decide who receives it. A will can cut delays and probate costs, waive expenses, and help reduce taxes.

The Cathedral parish will provide a free seminar on Wills and Estate Planning on Thursday, November 5 from 2:00pm until 4:00pm, and again from 7:00pm until 9:00pm. JoAnne Strom, Archdiocesan Director of Planned Giving, and Celeste McDonell, Cathedral parishioner and estate planning attorney, will offer their broad knowledge and expertise. You'll have a chance to ask questions and get good advice on what to do next. The whole session is short, simple, and to the point!

All are welcome. This session will benefit people of all ages and is offered with no strings attached. Please sign up by detaching the form below and dropping it in the offering basket or returning it to the parish office. For more information, contact Maria Laughlin, Director of Stewardship and Development, 206-382-4284.

This is a FREE, no-strings-attached presentation which includes

- An attorney, available to answer your questions
- Assurance that "putting your affairs in order" is easier than you think!
- Information on distributing your estate
- Methods of increasing your retirement income
- Information on how to prepare your will
- Information on guardianship issues
- Estate gifting techniques and information on tax advantages

The Death Penalty

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH | No. 4 of 5

October 18, 2009

October is Respect Life Month! Each week during the month of October, a page in the bulletin will explore different aspects of Church teaching on the full spectrum of life issues: abortion, war, the death penalty, and euthanasia. This week, we look at the Church's teaching on the death penalty.

What does the Church say about the death penalty?

If non-lethal means are sufficient to defend and protect people's safety from the aggressor, authority will limit itself to such means, as these are more in keeping with the concrete conditions of the common good and more in conformity with the dignity of the human person. Today, in fact, as a consequence of the possibilities which the state has for effectively preventing crime, by rendering one who has committed an offense incapable of doing harm—without definitively taking away from him the possibility of redeeming himself—the cases in which the execution of the offender is an absolute necessity are, in the words of Pope John Paul II, “very rare, if not practically non-existent.”

Catechism, 2267

When someone is murdered, their death cries out for a response, but violence in response to violence only perpetuates the illusion that cruelty and the taking of human life can balance the scales of justice.... We affirm the inherent dignity of every human person regardless of their age, stage of human development, usefulness, or behavior—no matter how violent or reprehensible that behavior might be.

Washington State Catholic Conference, A Pastoral Statement on the Death Penalty in Washington State, June 2009

Reflection

Forgiveness, the act of loving my enemy, like forgiveness of self, is not a sudden event, a rapid change of the heart. Most of the time it is a long process that begins with the desire to be free, to accept ourselves as we are, and to grow in the love of those who are different and those who have hurt us or appear as rivals. It is the process of getting out of the prison of our likes and dislikes, our hatreds and fears, and walking to freedom and compassion. In the process of liberation, there may still be inhibitions, resentments, and anger, but there is also this growing desire to be free.

Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen, 1994

To understand the enemy both within us and outside of us is an important part of forgiveness. If we work at it, God works in us, and, one day, resentments start to disappear. Forgiveness is to begin to love and accept ourselves, trying to understand and appreciate all that is valuable in us all, praying that what blocks us all from being free may break like a dam, so that what is most precious in us may flow forth. That is the final prayer of Jesus: “Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.”

Jean Vanier, Becoming Human

People say that executing criminals does not take away from their dignity— if it is done with dignity. But the fact of the matter is that whether you're waiting to die by lethal injection— waiting for the poison to flow down your veins—or waiting for a bullet, or waiting for a rope, or waiting for gas, or waiting for the electric current—there is no difference: there is no lesser or greater dignity in dying. The practice of the death penalty is the practice of torture. And by the time people I have been with finally climb into the chair to be killed, they have died a thousand times already because of their anticipation of the final horror.

The profound moral question is not, “Do they deserve to die?” but “Do we deserve to kill them?”

Sister Helen Prejean, CSJ
