The Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL November 15, 2009

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

November 15, 2009

Dear Friends,

If you see a little less of me this weekend than usual, or if you observe that my gait is a little gimpy (or I'm using crutches or a walker!), don't feel too sorry for me. I had some surgery on my legs this past week that will necessitate my wearing "moon boots" for a couple of weeks and, inevitably, will probably cut down on my activity. You can imagine how happy that makes me! The surgery is one I've been putting off for years but I finally decided that delaying wasn't going to improve things. So, I'll appreciate a prayer or two for a quick recovery, and I'll also appreciate your patience if it takes me a little longer to get from the chair to the pulpit to the altar!

I want to say a big thank you to Anna Horton and David Unger for their really wonderful presentation on Sacrificial Giving at the Masses last weekend, as well as to everyone who has turned in a Sacrificial Giving commitment form. And I would like to say a word of encouragement to those of you who have yet to do so. This parish depends on the generosity of each of our parishioners and families. I believe everyone can give something, even if it's only the prayers you offer for your parish or the time and talent you share with our many ministries. And when it comes to your monetary contribution and how much you should give, all I would say is that it should reflect what God has given you. When you are at peace with yourself about the amount of your giving and don't find yourself making an excuse for it, then you are probably giving at the right level. For some of you, that would probably be quite a lot because God has blessed you with considerable means and your gift can help make up for those who have much less. This is a wonderfully generous parish but, to be honest, too few are supporting too many! Someone asked me what our "goal" was for this campaign. Our only goal is that everyone in the parish will participate—everyone! Maybe it's naïve to think we'll ever get 100% participation. But I think you'll agree St. James Cathedral can do better than the 40% participation we had last year! Please fill out our commitment card today, even if you are unable to make a pledge, and save the parish from spending a lot of money on costly follow-up mailings. Thank you!

During these November days, please continue to remember our deceased parishioners and friends, especially those whose names are printed on the cover of the bulletin. Their generous remembrance of the Cathedral in their estate planning has accounted for a significant part of the parish's annual income over the years. Without their generous gifts we wouldn't be who we are. Do keep them in your prayers.

Father Michael G. Ryan

to the tune LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored. (Text by Edwin LeGrice)

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

FLOWERS IN THE CATHEDRAL are a gift from an anonymous donor. Flowers at the Sacred Heart shrine are from the Saturday wedding of Brynne Ann Sack and Christopher Jackson. Flowers at the North Transept shrine of the Blessed Virgin Mary are offered in memory of Lindy Berry, on the 7th anniversary of her death, from Katherine and Sean Berry.

THIRD SUNDAY SCRIPTURE DISCUSSION AND INFORMAL WINE AND CHEESE Young Adults "21 to 30-something" are invited to gather TODAY Sunday, November 15, at 4:00pm in the Fireside Room at the Pastoral Outreach Center for fellowship and scripture sharing. Come and add to our discussion of how the writings of many centuries ago are alive, valid, and pertinent in our contemporary lives. Readings will be for the current Sunday and can be reviewed ahead of time at www.usccb.org/nab. Information, youngadults@stjames-cathedral.org or TerryAnn Bowen 206-382-2018.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Andrew in Sumner and St. Francis Xavier in Toledo.

FOUNDATIONS IN FAITH—MORALITY Using the Bible, The Catechism of the Catholic Church, and Church documents, this adult enrichment program will explore the Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes as the framework of a moral life, identifying the call to dignity for each human person and the common good as two foundations of a moral life. Participants will look at objective moral truth and the sources of moral norms in the Church, and explore the Christian virtues and how they are relevant to moral decision-making. In addition, they will discuss what is meant by a “well-formed conscience” and a process for Catholic moral decision-making as well as the primacy of the Church’s moral teaching in the life of the believer and the inviolability of human conscience. Please bring your Bible and copy of the Catechism to the class. The class will take place on Sunday, November 22 at St. Peter’s in Beacon Hill from 1:30-5:30pm. Cost: $5 per class. (The program is cosponsored by St. James Cathedral with the South Seattle Deanery) Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514.

HELP A SENIOR IN NEED Many in our community are in need of help with transportation, shopping, laundry, housework, and more. Age, illness, economics, and disabilities can all be barriers to accomplishing these routine, daily tasks. By volunteering just a few hours a month, you can make a huge difference in someone’s life, provide them peace of mind, and help them stay in their own home rather than going to an institutionalized setting. If you are interested in joining this rewarding ministry, please come to the orientation in the Mother Cabrini Room, Pastoral Outreach Center on Tuesday, December 1 at 6:30pm. Information Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjames-cathedral.org.

Sacrificial Sunday Giving 2010

Please drop your 2010 commitment card in the offering basket today. As David Unger and Anna Horton reminded us last week: “Whether or not you actually spend the night on the floor for the Winter Shelter, you should know that when you participate in Sacrificial Giving, you are there. You may not teach a Sunday school class, or sing in the choir, or drive seniors to an outing, or clean an oven in a chore ministry, but through Sacrificial Giving, you are a part of all these things.”

Our goal is not a dollar amount. Instead, we’re going for 100% parishioner participation. We have a long way to go!
