GLORIA

LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored.

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James is proud to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today. Last week, we had visitors from Barcelona, Spain; Rapid City, SD; and Rock Island, IL. The winner of our drawing was from Canyon Lake, TX.

FLOWERS IN THE CATHEDRAL Floral offerings are a wonderful way to remember a deceased loved one, celebrate an anniversary, or give thanks for a prayer that has been answered. This week's beautiful arrangements are from the Saturday weddings of Sara Jackman and Anthony Fabian; and Anne Mathern and Nicholas Fenton. If you have been inspired to give thanks with flowers, please contact Peggy Behnken at 206-654-4650 or pbehnken@stjames-cathedral.org for more information.

GUEST HANDBELL CHOIR Saturday, 5:30 We welcome the Calvin and Chapel Ringers from First Presbyterian Church, Red Bank, New Jersey, directed by Judith Werner.

CHORAL MUSIC THIS SUMMER AT ST JAMES During the months of July and August the choirs of St. James are particularly active. At three masses each Sunday the Cathedral's choral ensembles support and transport the assembly. At various times during the summer months the our professional Cathedral Cantorei, the Women of St. James Schola, the children's Schola Cantorum, and our annual Summer Choir will participate in the liturgies. In addition, the Tudor Choir and the Tallis Scholars will help us celebrate the Jubilee Feast of St. James. For a complete list of summertime choral activities visit www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

Praying at Home

July 2010

Morning Prayer

O God, early in the morning I cry unto you.
Help me to pray and to think only of you.
I cannot pray alone.
In me there is darkness but with you there is light.
I am lonely but you do not leave me.
I am feeble in heart but you do not leave me.
I am restless but with you there is peace.
In me there is bitterness, but with you there is patience.
Our ways are past understanding,
but you know the way for me.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

A Summer Meal Prayer

God of light and love,
we thank you for this season of summer,
a time of warmth, of growth, and of fun.
May the brightness of the sun remind us of your love.
May the coolness of the waters renew us in your care.
As we rejoice in this season,
help us to be grateful for all your gifts,
especially the food on our table.
Make us mindful too of those who are hungry,
and teach us how to care for them.
We ask this through Jesus, our light and our Lord. Amen.
From Let's Say Grace by Robert M. Hama

In the Compostela Holy Year

This year, the Feast of St. James falls on a Sunday, making this a "Holy Year" in Santiago de Compostela. More than 100,000 pilgrims will walk the ancient camino to the Spanish town where the relics of St. James have been venerated for centuries. For us, it is a special year, too. This month, why not pray in these words, based on the prayer of Pope John Paul II when he visited Santiago de Compostela in the Holy Year 1989? If you would like to make this a novena of prayer in preparation for the feast on July 25, begin praying this prayer on July 16.

St. James!
We come to you in eager pilgrimage.
We come as part of a great throng of pilgrims
who through the centuries have come to this place,
where you are pilgrim and host, apostle and patron.

We come to you today
because we are on a common journey.
Place yourself, patron of pilgrims,
at the head of our pilgrimage.
Teach us, apostle and friend of the Lord,
the WAY which leads to him.
Open us, preacher of the Gospel,
to the TRUTH you learned from your Master's lips.
Give us, witness of the faith,
the strength always to love the LIFE Christ gives.
We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

On Prayer

"Speak to me about everything in a completely simple and human way; by this you will give Me great joy. I understand you because I am God-Man. This simple language of your heart is more pleasing to Me than the hymns composed in My honor. Know, My daughter, that the simpler your speech is, the more you attract Me to yourself."

Words of our Lord to St. Faustina Kowalska

Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for July

GENERAL INTENTION: That the election of officials in all nations may be carried out with justice, transparency, and honesty, respecting the free decisions of citizens.

MISSION INTENTION: That Christians may strive to offer everywhere, but especially in great urban centers, an effective contribution to the promotion of education, justice, solidarity and peace.

Aspirations for July

Some of the words of Jesus to our patron James make good aspirations for this month of July.

Come after me. (Matthew 4:19)
What do you wish me to do for you? (Mark 10:35)
Can you drink the cup that I drink? (Mark 10:38)

On Vocation

Venerable Cardinal Newman will be beatified this September by Pope Benedict XVI. Here, Newman reflects on the mystery of our Christian vocation.

God has created me to do him some definite service;
He has committed some work to me which he has not committed to another. I have my mission; I never may know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I have a part in a great work; I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good, I shall do His work; I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it, if I do but keep His commandments and serve Him in my calling.

Praying to Mary

On July 17, we observe the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and we pray in gratitude for the presence of our own Carmelite Sisters in Shoreline.

O Mary, Beautiful flower of Mount Carmel,
Fruitful vine, Splendor of Heaven,
Virgin Mother of the Son of God,
assist us in our present necessities... (here mention intentions)
O Star of the Sea, come to our aid and show yourself a Mother to us.
O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth,
we humbly ask you from the bottom of our hearts to help us,
for nothing can withstand your powerful intercession.
O show us that you are our Mother.

HELP US HELP THEM

At Coffee Hour on Sunday, July 11, St. James Youth Migrant Project volunteers will collect donations for migrant families. These much needed items will be distributed during our mission trip. Please bring your donations to Coffee Hour or drop them off in the Parish Office by July 9. Thank you!

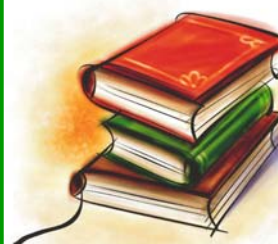

The youth will be selling tostadas as well. The funds raised from the tostada sale will help to buy books, food, art and school supplies for the migrant families, as well as offset trip costs.

Items needed:

- Children's Arts and Crafts supplies
- Rice, beans, flour, and sugar
- Baby formula, especially Enfamil in powder form with the yellow label
- Disposable diapers in all sizes, wipes, baby bottles, baby blankets
- Sleeping bags and blankets
- Casual coats, jackets, and sweaters
- School supplies and new children's books
- Farm workers' needs do not end with summer. Your donations continue to help families in need year-round. Cash or checks payable to St. James and marked "Migrant Ministry" are welcome too.

*For I was hungry
and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and
you gave me drink,
a stranger and
you welcomed me,
naked and you
clothed me.
