2. Chri - ste e - le - i - son.

(All other Masses)

to the tune LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored.

WINTER SHELTER VOLUNTEER TRAINING Results from the 2010 One Night Count showed over 2,750 people living on the streets of King County. With difficult economic times in our nation; we are likely to see even more people facing a homelessness crisis. As part of our response to the need in our community, St. James will again be hosting a Winter Shelter from October to April. We are gearing up for our 19th year of operation and will be holding a training for all new and returning volunteers on Sunday, September 19 at 7pm in Cathedral Hall. We are in need of overnight hosts, someone to organize our toiletries donations, and volunteers to make breakfast in the mornings. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515 or pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

CARPENTER NEEDED for a minor repair project on the kneelers on a few pews in the Cathedral. This mainly involves installing new hardware and repairing stripped out screw holes. Information, Larry Brouse, 206-382-4280 lbrouse@stjames-cathedral.org

ATTENTION YOUNG ADULTS... We have had a number of recent inquiries regarding events, activities and Bible studies for young adults in our parish. What we are in need of is a small team of young adults to determine the "what" and "when" and also to facilitate the events or activities along with staff assistance. Being team can be as much fun as the events! Information, TerryAnn Bowen, tbowen@stjamescathedral.org or 206-382-2018.

Praying at Home

September 2010

The Grace of Work

Life is to live and life is to give and talents are to use for good if you choose. Do not pray for easy lives. Pray to be stronger. Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers. Pray for powers equal to your tasks—then the doing of your work shall be no miracle but you shall be a miracle. Every day you shall wonder at yourself... at the richness of life which has come to you by the grace of God.

A favorite prayer of Venerable Solanus Casey (1870-1957), great-uncle of Sister Anne Herkenrath

A Student's Prayer

It's never easy to be a student.
Every day brings more assignments until it seems that the hard work will never end.
I know I'd rather watch TV or listen to music
many times when I sit down to study, but please, Lord, help me to realize that knowledge, like your love, can never be lost.
Help me never to underestimate myself as a student because anything can be accomplished with your guidance and love.
Let me be helpful and understanding toward my fellow students,
and not judge them but radiate the same love
you show us through your lasting mercy. Amen.

From Day By Day, the Notre Dame Prayerbook for Students

A Fall Meal Prayer

Bountiful God,
as the season of fall begins,
we are grateful for the rich harvest of the earth:
for corn and wheat, for apples and peaches,
for fish and fowl.
As the days grow shorter and the nights turn colder
we rely on your love to warm us and sustain us.
As we are grateful for your gifts
make us mindful of others and generous with what we have.
Bless this meal which we share in the name of Jesus the Lord. Amen.

From Let's Say Grace by Robert M. Hamma

Aspirations for September

On September 14, we celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

- Hail O Cross, our only hope!
- The Cross is my sure salvation.
The Cross it is that I worship evermore.
The Cross of our Lord is with me.
The Cross is my refuge. (St. Thomas Aquinas)
- We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you, because by your Holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

A Prayer for the Church

Let us continue to pray for our Church in this time of transition, as Archbishop Brunett prepares to retire, and we await the appointment of the next Archbishop of Seattle.

Come, Holy Spirit!
Come to the Church in our time of need:
Heal, cleanse, and renew us.
Raise up for us prophetic leaders,
humble, compassionate shepherds,
with wisdom to read the signs of the times in the light of the Gospel.
Come to our world,
and teach us to reverence the earth
and all of creation.
Come to our hearts,
and fill us with your gifts,
that we may live the faith we profess and commit ourselves anew
to the Gospel of Christ.
Come, Holy Spirit,
with the wind and fire of a new Pentecost.
Amen.

Holy Father's Intentions for September

GENERAL INTENTION: That in less developed parts of the world the proclamation of the Word of God may renew people's hearts and encourage them to work actively toward authentic social progress.

MISSION INTENTION: That by opening our hearts to love, we may put an end to the numerous wars and conflicts that continue to bloody our world.

Honoring Our Lady of Sorrows

September 15 is the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows. There is a beautiful image of the Sorrowful Mother in the stained glass triptych above the Blessed Sacrament Chapel.

If you love Mary, then share in her great sorrow, so that she might come to your assistance when you yourself are burdened with trials... Stand for a time next to the Virgin Mother and learn from her, whose bitter tears are capable of penetrating the depths of your heart, what it is to lament.

St. Thomas à Kempis

Lord our God,
in your mysterious wisdom
you fill out the passion of Christ through the suffering that his members endure in the many trials of this life.
As you chose to have the mournful mother
stand by your Son in his agony on the cross, grant that we too may bring love and comfort
to our brothers and sisters in distress.
Grant this through Christ our Lord.
