

We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.

The first Nowell

THE FIRST NOWELL

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 The first Nowell, the angel did say,
Was to certain poor shepherds
in fields as they lay:
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep: | 4 This star drew nigh to the northwest,
O'er Bethlehem it took its rest;
And there it did both stop and stay,
Right over the place where Jesus lay. R |
| R Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
Born is the King of Israel. | 5 Then entered in those wise men three,
Full rev'rently upon their knee,
And offered there, in his presence,
Their gold and myrrh
and frankincense. R |
| 2 They looked up and saw a star
Shining in the east, beyond them far,
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night. R | 6 Then let us all with one accord
Sing praises to our heav'nly Lord;
Who with the Father we adore
And Spirit blest for evermore. R |
| 3 And by the light of that same star
Three wise men came from country far;
To seek for a king was their intent,
And to follow the star wherever it went. R | |

COMMUNION

(10:00)

We have seen his star in the East, and we have come with our gifts, to worship the Lord.

O Holy Night

Adam

*O Holy Night! The stars are brightly shining,
It is the night of the dear Savior's birth.
Long lay the world in sin and error pining.
Till He appeared and the Soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn.
Fall on your knees! Oh, hear the angel voices!
O night divine, the night when Christ was born;
O night, O Holy Night, O night divine!*

*Led by the light of faith serenely beaming,
With glowing hearts by His cradle we stand.
O'er the world a star is sweetly gleaming,
Now come the wisemen from out of the Orient land.
The King of kings lay thus lowly manger;
In all our trials born to be our friend.
He knows our need, our weakness is no stranger,
Behold your King! Before him lowly bend! (Roquemaure, trans. Dwight)*

AFTER RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION, please return to your place and kneel or be seated. This is the norm for large parishes in the Archdiocese of Seattle and we thank you for following our practice.

Office Hours: Monday through Friday, 9:00 am - 5:00 pm

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

PARISH OFFICE CLOSED On Monday, January 3, 2011, the Parish Office will be closed in observance of New Year's Day. Masses in the Cathedral will follow the usual weekday schedule.

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC WHO HAS BEEN AWAY FROM THE CHURCH? Our Welcome Back program provides a safe place, in the company of others who are also examining their faith, to ask questions about returning to regular church attendance, to the sacraments, and to learn about changes in the church. The sessions are offered on Mondays, January 3 through April 4, 7:00-9:00pm on 2nd floor Cathedral Place. Classes are offered without any obligation. Information, TerryAnn Bowen, 206-382-2018 or tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org.

THE CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO CART is up and running! Your friendly Cathedral baristas will be serving espresso drinks after the 10:00 Mass. During the month of January, all proceeds will benefit the Cathedral's Youth Music Program. If you are interested in becoming a Cathedral barista, please call Sean and Katherine Berry at 206-571-6868. Training is provided!

CATHEDRAL CHOIR OPENING We have an opening for a tenor and a low bass in the Cathedral Choir. If you have a love for the liturgy, strong sight-reading skills and good intonation, and time to participate with our famous choir, please contact Stacey Sunde at 206-382-4874 or musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. A new inquiry session will begin on Wednesday, January 12. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org. You can also check out our website at www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Bothell, and St. Mary in Castle Rock and Centralia.

FINDING HOPE IN A TOPSY-TURVY JOB MARKET: PRINCIPLES AND TOOLS TO JUMP START YOUR JOB SEARCH Beginning in January a two part series of classes will be offered during the coming year that will incorporate efforts to search for a job within a context of faith and hope. Part one, which will take place on the first Tuesday evening of each month, will focus on the principles and tools needed for effective job searching, including resume writing, interviewing techniques and networking. Part two, which will take place on the third Sunday morning of each month (following the 10:00 am Mass), will focus on the application of concepts learned in part one, including sharing strategies and struggles with real life experiences of looking for a job. Sessions will be facilitated by parishioners who are professionals in this field. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

ANNUAL MASS AND MARCH FOR LIFE Please join Archbishop J. Peter Sartain in celebration of the Annual Mass for Life, Tuesday, January 18 at 10:00am at St. Michael Parish in Olympia. Following Mass, participants will process to the Capitol steps where they will call on their legislators and elected officials to work for public policies that protect all human life. Two cathedral vans will be available for parishioners who would like a ride to this event. Information: Suzanne Lee, 206-654-4640 or slee@stjames-cathedral.org.

TO HUNGER FOR GOD Join us on Thursday, January 27 from 7:00-8:30 pm in Cathedral Hall as Father Mike Raschko (Associate Professor at the School of Theology and Ministry at SU, Theologian for the Archdiocese, and parish priest) returns to talk about his most recently published book, A Christian Understanding of Human Nature: To Hunger For God, describing the relationship between God and the human person. He will also be available for book signings. As many of you know, he is a dynamic speaker who can translate spiritual and theological ideas into meaningful and practical concepts for our own faith lives. Suggested donation: $10. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

FROM SOUND TO SILENCE: THE SPIRITUALITY AND PRACTICE OF CENTERING PRAYER Are you seeking calm in the midst of the busyness of your life? Would you like to give your prayer life a "jump-start" before the Lenten season? If so, join Sr. Joyce Cox, BVM, (Formation and Spiritual Director of the Palisades Retreat Center for the Archdiocese of Seattle; Cathedral parishioner) as she shares her wisdom and expertise in the ancient practice of centering prayer. Saturdays, February 5, 12, 19 & 26, from 10am-Noon in the Pastoral Outreach Center. Whether you are a beginner or regular practitioner, there will be something new to learn and experience. Suggested donation $20/series. Information: Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514; hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A WAY TO HELP OTHERS AS A NEW YEAR BEGINS WHILE ALSO LEARNING MORE ABOUT YOUR CATHOLIC FAITH? Consider being a sponsor for one of our many new inquirers coming to participate in our Christian Initiation process to learn more about the Catholic Church (RCIA). We need St. James parishioners to be companions with our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. All training and support will be provided and the time commitment is reasonable-a minimum of 2 sessions a month (Wednesday evenings). To learn more, come to our Sponsor Information meeting on Wednesday, January 12 from 7:00-9:00 pm at Cathedral Place, second floor. The rewards are many, including renewal and update of your faith and "kudos" in heaven. Information, Helen Oesterle at 206-382-4514.

ST. JAMES IS A PLACE FOR CHILDREN We encourage all of our parishioners who attend Mass with young children, and we welcome them into our midst. Many families find that sitting in the front rows, where the view is unobstructed, allows children to participate more fully. Others are more comfortable sitting at the ends of the aisles, so that they can easily step into the west vestibule or the Cathedral Chapel, if their child needs a quiet place away from the assembly. We have provided a sound system in these areas so you can continue to participate in Mass. We appreciate your effort to be with us and to include your child in our worship. Please note that babysitting is available in the Mother Cabrini Room at the Pastoral Outreach Center during the 10:00 am and 12 Noon Masses.

ARE YOU A REGISTERED PARISHIONER AT ST. JAMES? Many who attend St. James regularly and consider the Cathedral their parish have never officially registered. We strongly encourage you to register. Registered parishioners receive important mailings from the Cathedral (including offering envelopes!), are regular recipients of the Cathedral's quarterly journal In Your Midst, are able to celebrate their wedding at the Cathedral, and their children may attend any of the five Catholic Rainbow Schools at parishioner rates (and become eligible for Cathedral scholarship money). In addition, if you are a registered parishioner and use envelopes, or are on the direct debit program, we will mail you a quarterly report of your contributions to the parish. Registration cards can be found in the vestibule. Please drop the completed card in the collection basket or put it in the mail. If you're not sure whether you're registered at St. James, call the parish office at 206-622-3559.

PRAYER WITH MUSIC FROM TAIZÉ Each Friday at 6:30 pm in the Cathedral, all are invited to join in an ecumenical service of readings, silence, candlelight, and the music of the ecumenical community of Taizé in France. This simple, reflective prayer is the perfect way to end a busy week.

ARCHBISHOP HUNTHAUSEN LIBRARY Visit your friendly and accessible Archbishop Hunthausen Library in Cathedral Hall during the Sunday coffee hours. We have a good selection of old favorites and recent releases.

Praying at Home

January 2011

On Christmas

We can keep all our modern, beloved Christmas trappings, as long as we see through them and as long as we know there is a reality and a future behind those things of the past. Certainly our crib and customs have their place, and no one will take them away. Still, while the world moves on in powerful strides and groans for redemption, let us not forget that it was not the babe who redeemed it, but the babe grown man, crucified, resurrected, and sitting at the right hand of the Father, whence he will come to judge the living and the dead.

H. A. Reinhold, 1961

A Prayer for the Church

January 18-25 is the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. This is a prayer for the unity of the Church by William Laud (1573-1645).

Gracious Father,
we pray to you for your holy Catholic Church.
Fill it with your truth.
Keep it in your peace.
Where it is corrupt, reform it.
Where it is in error, correct it.
Where it is right, defend it.
Where it is in want, provide for it.
Where it is divided, reunite it;
for the sake of your Son,
our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

Holy Father's Intentions for January

Each month, the Holy Father asks us to pray with him by remembering his intentions in our prayer.

GENERAL INTENTION: That the riches of the created world may be preserved, valued, and made available as God's precious gift to all.

MISSION INTENTION: That Christians may attain full unity, witnessing to all the universal fatherhood of God.

A Prayer of surrender

Father,
I abandon myself into your hands;
do with me what you will.
Whatever you may do, I thank you:
I am ready for all, I accept all.
Let only your will be done in me,
and in all your creatures—
I wish no more than this, O Lord.
Into your hands I commend my soul;
I offer it to you with all the love of my heart,
for I love you, Lord, and so need to give myself,
to surrender myself into your hands without reserve,
and with boundless confidence,
for you are my Father.

St. Charles de Foucauld (1858-1916)

Blessing our homes

It is an ancient custom to bless the home at the beginning of the New Year. Here is a simple prayer of blessing.

Blessed are you, God our Father,
for your gift of this house as our dwelling place.
Grant that all who live here
may receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit.
By our works of charity, may we show what grace your blessing brings,
so that all who come here will find the spirit of love and peace which you alone can give.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Adapted from the Book of Blessings

A Meal Blessing in the New Year

God of all hopefulness,
as we begin this new year
we ask for the presence of your Holy Spirit to guide and protect us.
We pray for good health in our family and peace in our world.
And we thank you for the gift of your mother, Mary,
and the many other blessings you give us,
especially for this food. Amen.

From Let's Say Grace by Robert M. Hamma

A Prayer for Life

In the United States of America, January 22, the anniversary of the Supreme Court decision Roe v. Wade, is observed as a Day of Penance.

God our loving Father,
grant wisdom to those who govern us,
compassion and courage
to those who work to defend human life,
and safety and care to every human being.
For you alone who formed us in our mother's womb,
and who call us home to heaven,
are God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Prayer from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

A Prayer to Mary, Queen of Peace

Father, source of light in every age, the virgin conceived and bore your Son who is called Wonderful God, Prince of Peace.
May her prayer, the gift of a mother's love,
be your people's joy through all ages.
May her response, born of a humble heart,
draw your Spirit to rest on your people.
Grant this through Christ our Lord.

When a controversial law is passed in Prince William County, Virginia requiring police to stop people for "probable cause" and ask for proof of citizenship, the entire county becomes involved. An online community debate to adopt and then repeal the policy becomes a real-life battle on the streets and in county government.

Caregiver Burnout

Saturday, January 15, 2011
Pastoral Outreach Center
10:00am—12:00pm

Families and friends take care of those who are not able to take care of themselves. Sometimes we are the caregiver and at other times the recipient of the care. Whether we are caring for an aging parent, or a child with special needs, long-term care for a friend or family member can put intense strain on the caregiver both mentally and physically.

Please join us for a presentation by STEVE EMMER, MSW, Director of Care Consultation, ElderHealth Northwest, on caregiver burnout. You will learn the signs of burnout, both subtle and not so subtle, as well as tips on how to handle and prevent it. There will be ample time for questions as well.
