ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL
The First Sunday of Lent
March 13, 2011

ORDER OF CELEBRATION FOR THE FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

OUT OF RESPECT FOR THE LITURGY WE ARE ABOUT TO CELEBRATE, PLEASE TURN OFF YOUR CELLULAR PHONE.

A NOTE ON THE CHANTS: This First Sunday of Lent is unusual in the Church's liturgy in that it draws on just one psalm, Psalm 91, for all the propers of the Mass — the introit, the gradual, the tract, the offertory, and the communion. Psalm 91, a prayer for God's protection and for the gift of new life, is particularly associated with the catechumenate. As we sing the refrain again and again during this Mass, we pray for those in our midst, and throughout the entire Church, who seek "life long and full" in the saving waters of baptism.

INTROIT

JOURNEY OF THE ELECT

Beginning this week, those preparing to be baptized at the Easter Vigil (our newly Elect) are wearing brown or red robes while attending Mass and other liturgies in the cathedral. This helps them to know, in a concrete way, that they have entered a new and significant stage in their final preparations for Easter. It also anticipates another significant moment that will take place when they emerge from the baptismal waters at the Easter Vigil and change into white robes. Seek them out in our midst and, if possible, introduce yourself to them after Mass. Let them know you are praying for them and looking forward to Easter when they will join us at the Eucharistic table.

LENTEN PRAYER PARTNERS FOR THE ELECT The Church tells us that it is the entire parish's responsibility to support and welcome those preparing for baptism this Easter. One of the many ways you can do this is to become a prayer partner for one of our Elect. You are asked to pray everyday for him/her during Lent, asking for God's blessings and guidance. Also, notes and cards will be collected during Holy Week to be given to the Elect before Easter. Prayer cards are available at the place of prayer located in the north aisle of the west nave of the Cathedral (where you can also learn more about each of them in our Book of the Elect), in the bookstore, and in Cathedral Hall during Sunday morning hospitality. You can also meet our Elect by going to our parish website: www.stjames-cathedral.org Your prayers make a difference!!! Information Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

CALLED TO PROTECT FOR PARENTS AND FAMILIES

The Archdiocese is offering Safe Environment Training for parents and families on Saturday, March 15 at 7:00pm, at St. Alphonsus Church, 5816 15th Ave NW, Seattle. Please note that this training does not satisfy the Archdiocesan requirement for new employees or for volunteer service. Information, Elizabeth Falzone, 206-622-3559, ext. 3977

As we enter the desert of Lent together, Jesus shows us that to live fully the life God has given us, we must obey the Commandments and follow the Holy Spirit. Just as we are called to care for the gift of our eternal life, we are also called to care for the gift of God's creation. Catholic Relief Services' Operation Rice Bowl supports agriculture programs in Haiti and around the world that teach farmers effective and ecologically sensitive growing methods which allow them to get the most out of their land while preserving it for future generations. For more information on Haiti, refer to your Rice Bowl calendar or visit CRS online at orb.crs.org/countries/haiti/.

The Way of the Cross

St. James Cathedral has been given a set of Stations of the Cross, which will hang in the Cathedral each year during the season of Lent. The stations are the work of Joan Brand-Landkamer.

Joan Brand-Landkamer began work on these stations many years ago, completing them in the fall of 2009. She used “found objects” from the beach near her home in Ocean Shores—wood, rope, and wire—to create a contemporary interpretation of the centuries-old devotion of the Stations of the Cross.

Joan’s previous work for the Cathedral, an extensive set of icons, drew on the tradition of Russian and Ethiopian iconography. The Stations are quite different, and were inspired by the work of Georges Rouault, the 20th-century French artist, and in particular his series of engravings entitled Miserere. In Joan’s words, “I stood on the shoulders of Rouault, the master.”

Rouault originally created the drawings that make up Miserere during World War I, but for various reasons their publication was delayed until 1947. The series speaks powerfully of human suffering and betrayal, and includes a number of images of the suffering Christ, juxtaposed with images of suffering humanity: corrupt judges and politicians, fools, prostitutes and prisoners. “Form, colour, harmony... oasis or mirage for the eyes, the heart, or the spirit,” wrote Rouault in his preface to the volume; “Jesus on the cross will tell you better than I.”

Rouault’s drawings are dark, intense, emotional, thoroughly modern and thoroughly Catholic. Art critic Anthony Blunt wrote of Miserere, “That he is a fervent Catholic is obvious from some of his works and certainly deducible from all of them, even from the least evidently religious. But he is a Catholic reacting to the peculiar conditions of the 20th century.... When he paints the crucified Christ it is not as a remote event in the past or as a traditional symbol, but as the expression of a faith which he believes can still move mountains.” Rouault himself said, “My only ambition is to be able someday to paint a Christ so moving that those who see him will be converted.”

Though Rouault never created a series of Stations of the Cross, his introspective style and focus on the suffering Christ blends perfectly with the traditional devotion, which challenges our complacency and calls us to action.

An etching by Georges Rouault, above, inspired Station XII

Two cruel faces from Georges Rouault's Miserere are echoed in Station XI, Jesus is Nailed to the Cross.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS AT ST. JAMES

The Stations of the Cross are prayed Mondays after 12:10pm Midday Prayer, Wednesdays after 5:30pm Mass, and Fridays after 8:15am Mass (except First Fridays). Father Ryan will pray the Stations with the children of the parish on Sunday, April 3 following the Noon Mass.

OTHER PRAYER OPPORTUNITIES DURING LENT

Each Friday during Lent, we have a Lenten Holy Hour from Noon until 1:00pm. The holy hour includes Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Liturgy of the Hours, Rosary, and prayer in silence.

Your Community Blood Center

Puget Sound Blood Center is an independent, volunteer-supported, nonprofit community resource. Most of us will require a blood transfusion at some point in our lifetimes. To meet the transfusion needs of patients in our community, at least 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

Who can donate blood?

Most people can donate blood. Those who are at least 18 years old and weigh at least 110 pounds may donate blood every 56 days. Those 16 or 17 may donate with a signed Blood Center permission slip; there is no upper age limit. Some health conditions or medications may temporarily or permanently prevent people from donating blood.
