Litany of Saints

GLORIA

LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored.

SEQUENCE (10:00)

Lauda Sion

chant

*Sion, praise thy Saviour singing,
Hymns with exultation ringing
Praise thy King and Shepherd true.*

*Honor Him, thy voice upraising,
Who surpasseth all thy praising;
Never canst thou reach his due.*

*Let the Bread, life-giving, living,
Be our theme of glad thanksgiving,
Now indeed before thee set;*

*As of old the Lord provided
When the twelve, divinely guided,
At the holy table met.*

*Very Bread, good Shepherd, tend us,
Jesus, of thy love befriend us,
Thou refresh us, thou defend us.
Thine eternal goodness send us
In the land of life to see;*

*Thou who all things canst and knowest,
Who on earth such food bestowest,
Grant us with thy saints, though lowest,
Where the heavenly feast thou showest,
Fellow heirs and guests to be. Amen.*

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James is proud to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today. Last week, we had visitors from Parker, AZ; Sutherland Springs, TX; Dayton, OH, and many other places! The winner of our drawing was from Flourtown, PA.

FLOWERS IN THE CATHEDRAL Flowers at the altar are in loving memory of Joy Allan on the first anniversary of her death, from Peggy, Elizabeth, Anna, and Matthew Behnken. Flowers at the Shrine of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the north transept are from Jess and Elizabeth Hernandez in memory of Linda Condes on the second anniversary of her death. Flowers in the Cathedral are also from the Saturday weddings of Sonali Roy and Aaron Son, and Heidi Rise and Gerald Macheso.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION This weekend we take up our annual collection to support the works and ministries of the Holy Father, Benedict XVI.

THE CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO CART is up and running! Your friendly Cathedral baristas will be serving espresso drinks after the 10:00 Mass. During the month of June, all proceeds will go towards scholarships for the Schola Cantorum Choir Camp. Try our special drink of the month: the Jubi-latte! Please note that the espresso cart will be closed during the months of July and August.

SUMMER TOURS During the summer months, June, July, and August, we offer a tour of the Cathedral each Wednesday at 1:00pm. This is a great opportunity to share your Cathedral with out-of-town guests. No reservations are necessary; gather in the west vestibule.

PRAYER WITH MUSIC FROM TAIZÉ Each Friday at 6:30pm in the Cathedral, all are invited to join in an ecumenical service of readings, silence, candlelight, and the music of the ecumenical community of Taizé in France. This simple, reflective prayer is the perfect way to end a busy week.

YOUTH MIGRANT PROJECT MISSION TRIP 2011 It is not too late for high school students to sign up for a week of service and fun as we work with migrant workers and their families. COFFEE HOUR HOSPITALITY NEEDS YOU! As we move into the warmer summer weather, we will again be offering hospitality "al fresco" in the Archbishop Murphy courtyard following the Sunday morning masses. But we need your help to make this happen! We are looking for several outgoing people to help with set-up, serving and clean-up for this very important ministry of hospitality. We especially need help following the 12:00 Mass. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515 or pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

IS GOD CALLING YOU TO A MINISTRY AMONG CHILDREN, helping them to grow in their relationship with Jesus? The wonderful children in our parish need volunteers to help in Sunday school as catechists (teachers), assistants, a third supportive adult presence in class or as the welcoming presence at the doors. Information, Lita McBride, 206-654-4658, Marianne Coté, 206-382-4512, or Theresa Van de Ven, 206-219-5822.

EMMAUS COMPANIONS are parishioners who are available during the weekend Masses and coffee hours to assist people who have come to the Cathedral in crisis or with special needs. We are looking for a few new people to join us in this important ministry of welcoming and presence. All that is needed is a listening ear and an open heart. Training and mentoring are provided. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR HOSPITALITY Looking for a "few good people" to assist in setting up, greeting participants, and putting things away for our weekly RCIA gathering. The time commitment is once a month from 6:00-9:30pm. It is a great way to meet new people and support an important parish ministry. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

SUMMER FILM FESTIVAL—"OF GODS AND MEN" Join us on Tuesday, July 12 in Cathedral Place, 2nd floor at 7:00pm to watch this critically acclaimed film. It centers on the monastery of Tibhirine, where nine Trappist monks lived in harmony with the largely Muslim population of Algeria, until seven of them were kidnapped and assassinated in 1996 during the Algerian Civil War. (Rated R) This is the movie Father Ryan talked about in his homily on Easter Sunday. Popcorn and lemonade will be provided and you are welcome to bring your favorite movie treats. Information, Helen Oesterle 206-382-4514 or hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND/OR BECOMING CATHOLIC? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. You can learn more by going to www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA. A new inquiry session will begin Wednesday, July 13 at 7:00 pm in Cathedral Place, second floor. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

June 26, 2011

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!

St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the Cathedral's Blessed Sacrament Chapel and tabernacle.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence today.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

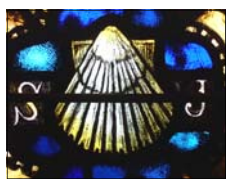

BLESSED SACRAMENT CHAPEL

The Cathedral's Blessed Sacrament Chapel brings together old and new in a space that speaks to the Church's faith in Christ present among us in the sacrament of his Body and Blood.

The Chapel itself dates from 1994. a skylight allows natural light to stream into this space, creating a visual link with the Cathedral's altar. The transparent gates allow the tabernacle to be seen from all parts of the Cathedral, and also allow the Chapel to be closed during Mass. The gates can also be opened wide—for First Friday devotions and for Holy Thursday adoration, for example. The north gates incorporate a beautiful stained glass triptych by Charles Connick (dating from around 1917). These windows were originally placed in the East Apse of the Cathedral, and were moved here in 1994 to allow for the installation of larger windows by Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. Inside the Chapel, a carving of the Last Supper, placed on the south wall, dates from 1907 and was originally part of the Cathedral's high altar. The sanctuary lamp, which hangs high on the wall just outside the Chapel, also dates from 1907.

The tabernacle itself is the work of Ulrich Henn. It suggests the story of the burning bush from Exodus – Moses' mysterious encounter with God at the bush which was on fire, but not consumed by the fire. It is the perfect image for this place of encounter with the living presence of Christ in our midst. An inscription in the floor near the altar reminds us: "the place where you stand is holy ground."

Praying at Home

July 2011

What is prayer?

My "holy hours" will be made in the truest sense not during the peaceful hours of these pious devotions here in church. My real "holy hours" are those hours when sufferings of body and soul come to overwhelm me. Those hours when I call out to your Father, O Jesus, and do not seem to be heard.... These are the real "holy hours" in my life, those hours when your grace working in my heart draws me mysteriously into your agony in the garden. When those hours come upon me, O Lord, have mercy on me.

Karl Rahner

Morning Prayer

O God, early in the morning I cry unto you.
Help me to pray and to think only of you.
I cannot pray alone.
In me there is darkness but with you there is light.
I am lonely but you do not leave me.
I am feeble in heart but you do not leave me.
I am restless but with you there is peace.
In me there is bitterness, but with you there is patience.
Our ways are past understanding,
but you know the way for me.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

A Summer Meal Prayer

God of light and love,
we thank you for this season of summer,
a time of warmth, of growth, and of fun.
May the brightness of the sun remind us of your love.
May the coolness of the waters renew us in your care.
As we rejoice in this season,
help us to be grateful for all your gifts,
especially the food on our table.
Make us mindful too of those who are hungry,
and teach us how to care for them.
We ask this through Jesus, our light and our Lord. Amen.

From Let's Say Grace by Robert M. Hamma

Celebrating our Patron, James

On Sunday, July 24, we celebrate our patronal feast.

St. James!
We come to you in eager pilgrimage.
We come as part of a great throng of pilgrims who through the centuries have come to this place, where you are pilgrim and host, apostle and patron.
We come to you today
because we are on a common journey.
Place yourself, patron of pilgrims,
at the head of our pilgrimage.
Teach us, apostle and friend of the Lord,
the WAY which leads to him.
Open us, preacher of the Gospel,
to the TRUTH you learned from your Master's lips.
Give us, witness of the faith,
the strength always to love the LIFE Christ gives.
We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

On Prayer

"Speak to me about everything in a completely simple and human way; by this you will give Me great joy. I understand you because I am God-Man. This simple language of your heart is more pleasing to Me than the hymns composed in My honor. Know, My daughter, that the simpler your speech is, the more you attract Me to yourself."

Words of our Lord to St. Faustina Kowalska

Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for July

GENERAL INTENTION: That Christ may ease the physical and spiritual sufferings of those who are sick with AIDS, especially in the poorest countries.

MISSION INTENTION: That religious men and women in mission territories may be witnesses of the joy of the Gospel and living signs of the love of Christ.

Aspirations for July

Some of the words of Jesus to our patron James make good aspirations for this month of July.

Come after me. (Matthew 4:19)

What do you wish me to do for you? (Mark 10:35)

Can you drink the cup that I drink? (Mark 10:38)

On Vocation

Venerable Cardinal Newman will be beatified this September by Pope Benedict XVI. Here, Newman reflects on the mystery of our Christian vocation.

God has created me to do him some definite service;
He has committed some work to me which he has not committed to another. I have my mission; I never may know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I have a part in a great work; I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good, I shall do His work; I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it, if I do but keep His commandments and serve Him in my calling.

Praying to Mary

On July 17, we observe the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and we pray in gratitude for the presence of our own Carmelite Sisters in Shoreline.

O Mary, Beautiful flower of Mount Carmel,
Fruitful vine, Splendor of Heaven,
Virgin Mother of the Son of God,
assist us in our present necessities... (here mention intentions)
O Star of the Sea, come to our aid and show yourself a Mother to us.
O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, we humbly ask you from the bottom of our hearts to help us,
for nothing can withstand your powerful intercession.
O show us that you are our Mother.

This year we celebrate our beloved pilgrim patron, Saint James, at Masses on July 23-24.

The celebration continues at the annual parish picnic on Terry Avenue, Sunday, July 24, 11:30am-3pm, with friends, food, games, prizes, and more. This is a great moment to be together and celebrate!

Many volunteers are needed!
