GLORIA

to the tune LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring,
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin,
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within.
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord,
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshipped and adored. Text by Edwin Le Grice

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James is proud to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today. Last week, we had visitors from McKinney, TX; Duluth, GA; Cardiff, United Kingdom; and many other places! The winner of our drawing was from Flemington, NJ.

SUMMER TOURS During the summer months, June, July, and August, we offer a tour of the Cathedral each Wednesday at 1:00pm. This is a great opportunity to share your Cathedral with out-of-town guests. No reservations are necessary; gather in the west vestibule.

SUMMER FILM FESTIVAL—"OF GODS AND MEN" Join us on Tuesday, July 12 in Cathedral Place, 2nd floor at 7:00pm to watch this critically acclaimed film. It centers on the monastery of Tibhirine, where nine Trappist monks lived in harmony with the largely Muslim population of Algeria, until seven of them were kidnapped and assassinated in 1996 during the Algerian Civil War. (Rated R) This is the movie Father Ryan talked about in his homily on Easter Sunday. Popcorn and lemonade will be provided and you are welcome to bring your favorite movie treats. Information, Helen Oesterle 206-382-4514 or hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND/OR BECOMING CATHOLIC?

You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. You can learn more by going to www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA. A new inquiry session will begin Wednesday, July 13 at 7:00 pm in Cathedral Place, second floor. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

THE NEXT SENIOR TRIP will be Wednesday, July 13. Come and experience the glorious views and wildflower meadows at Paradise in Mount Rainier National Park. Space is limited and priority will be given to registered parishioners! Information, or to reserve your place leave a message with John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, at 206-274-3173 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Benedict and St. Bridget in Seattle.

THE ST VINCENT DE PAUL CONFERENCES of St.

James thank cathedral parishioners for their generous donations last month. During June, we made 50 home visits to our low income neighbors and continued to focus on preventing homelessness. Your contributions made it possible for us to help 33 families and individuals stay in their homes, and 15 households avoid utility shut-offs. In addition, we provided food and furniture to 20 households, and supplied 10 St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store vouchers for housewares and clothing. Members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society follow Jesus through service to those in need. Bearing witness to Christ's compassionate and liberating love, we show our commitment through person-to-person contact. Home visits are always made in pairs. As calls for help increase, we actively seek new members. Please consider joining this beautiful ministry to the poor among us. Information, Rob Millar 206-954-8902 and Tammy Bendix 206-595-9158.

TALLIS SCHOLARS SUMMER SESSION EVENTS The world-famous Tallis Scholars return to St. James for four exciting events: July 24, 8:00 pm, Tudor Choir directed by Peter Phillips and David Willcocks; July 27, 3:15 pm, organ recital by David Woodcock; and 5:30 pm Mass, Renaissance Polyphony, Peter Phillips, conductor, Father Ryan, Presider; July 29, 8:00 pm, concert featuring Thomas Tallis' monumental 40-voice Spem in alium for eight 5-voice choirs. Information www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

SUMMER CHOIR sings at the 12:00 Noon Sunday Mass during the month of August. It is open to anyone who wishes to "make a joyful noise" and who is able to rehearse just before the Mass. This spirit-filled, music-filled, prayer-filled opportunity is open to any and all singers: young and old; trained and untrained; small voice and big voice; in-tune and in-some-other-tune singer; visitors and parishioners; travelers and locals; first time and long time—all are welcome! Rehearsals are Sundays of August, 11:15 am, at the Choir Room in Cathedral Place; enter up stairway on Terry Avenue.

IS GOD CALLING YOU TO A MINISTRY AMONG CHILDREN, helping them to grow in their relationship with Jesus? The wonderful children in our parish need volunteers to help in Sunday school as catechists (teachers), assistants, a third supportive adult presence in class or as the welcoming presence at the doors. Information, Lita McBride, 206-654-4658, Marianne Coté, 206-382-4512, or Theresa Van de Ven, 206-219-5822.

EMMAUS COMPANIONS are parishioners who are available during the weekend Masses and coffee hours to assist people who have come to the Cathedral in crisis or with special needs. We are looking for a few new people to join us in this important ministry of welcoming and presence. All that is needed is a listening ear and an open heart. Training and mentoring are provided. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515.

We welcome our visitors

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

July 10, 2011

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!

St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the Cathedral's ambo.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence today.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

AMBO

"Just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth... so shall my word be" (Isaiah 55:10-11). The Cathedral's ambo illustrates the words of the prophet Isaiah about the power of God's word. Just as the rain and snow water the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, so God's word is full of energy and purpose, changing those who hear.

The ambo is the work of Long Island artist Randall Rosenthal, who also carved the wheat and grape panels on the east side of the altar. It is carved in intricate detail and depicts the lush abundance of the Pacific Northwest, with clouds pouring down rain, dense forest, and luxurious undergrowth. The inscription, "Isaiah 55:10-11," points to the fact that the imagery is a metaphor for what should happen in the assembly when God's living word is proclaimed from the ambo: it should make things grow and change in us.

The platform on which the ambo stands is made of black slate and white marble, the same materials used for the altar and altar platform, thus creating a visual link between the "two tables" of the Mass: the table of God's word and the table of Christ's Body and Blood.
