ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

July 24, 2011

Dear Friends,

Happy Feast Day! As I write this, early in the week and only too aware of how iffy our weather has been, I find myself wondering what kind of a day we're going to get for our patronal feast day and parish picnic. Hope springs eternal, and we do have history on our side. Not once in all my years here have we been rained out on St. James Day. May our record continue!

I have phenomenally good news to share with you. We have gone over our goal for this year's Annual Catholic Appeal. When I say "goal," I'm referring to our combined Archdiocesan and parish goals. The Archdiocese asked us to raise $310,000 and we set an additional goal of $175,000 in order to support the great work of the Cathedral Kitchen. As of this week, we have more than met that combined goal. The last figure we received from the archdiocese is $519,000! Those are the numbers. The real story is the sacrifice so many of you made in order to make this possible; the real story is the generous response of just over 900 of our parish households. Admittedly, this represents only about 40 percent of our registered parishioners but, even so, it is a remarkable achievement and one that far exceeds that of any other parish in the archdiocese. I wish I could thank each of you personally for your amazing response but there's no way I can. But I do trust that you know how truly grateful I am - and how proud I am to be your pastor.

Enjoy St. James day, rain or shine, and together, let us commit ourselves to following together in the steps of our great patron, St. James the Apostle, who is our constant companion on the great pilgrimage of life and faith.

Father Michael G. Ryan

ORDER OF CELEBRATION FOR THE SOLEMNITY OF

Saint James, Apostle

OUT OF RESPECT FOR THE PRAYER OF OTHERS,
PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES.

IMAGES OF ST. JAMES Several images of our patron are featured in the liturgy today. Carried in the entrance procession is a 16th-century RELIQUARY BUST of Saint James, the gift of a generous parishioner. The ICON of St. James by Cathedral iconographer Joan Brand-Landkamer includes vignettes of the many scriptural references to St. James. And in the concluding procession at the 10:00am and Noon Masses, an 18-foot PUPPET of St. James by Kitty Kavanaugh makes an appearance. The puppet is modeled on large-scale puppets used during the festivities in Santiago de Compostela today.

ENTRANCE

For thy blest saints

ST. ANNE

1 For thy blest saints, a noble throng,
Who fell by fire and sword,
Or early died, or flourished long,
We praise thy Name, O Lord.

3 He stood with thee beside the dead;
He climbed the mount with thee,
And saw the glory round thy head,
One of the chosen three.

2 For James who left his father's side,
Not ling'ring by the sea;
He heard what could not be denied,
Thy summons, "Follow me."

4 He knelt beneath the olive shade,
He drank thy cup of pain;
And slain by Herod's flashing blade
He saw thy face again.

5 Lord, may we learn to drink the cup,
And meek and firm be found,
When thou shalt come to take us up
Where thine elect are crowned.

In the courts of the angels.

Let us sing with great rejoicing, on this day when JAMES, Apostle,
 Christ's own soldier, goes to glory,
 Tasting heavenly joys forever in the courts of the angels.

By Herod decapitated, and therefore crowned by Christ,
 JAMES has been made rich in the heavenly homeland,

And so, his feast celebrating, his hymns singing,
 Let us offer up in veneration sweet praises to the Lord
 in the courts of the angels.

We welcome our visitors

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

July 24, 2011

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!

St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the Cathedral's images of St. James the Greater.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence today.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

IMAGES OF ST. JAMES

The Cathedral's primary image of Saint James was created by the Rambusch studios as part of the 1950 remodel of the building. It originally formed part of the reredos behind the altar, and was moved to its present location in 1994.

The image, carved from wood by Italian craftsmen, features traditional symbols of the saint. The scallop shell, staff, and gourd are reminders of the great shrine of Santiago de Compostela, where the relics of Saint James have been venerated for many centuries. In the Middle Ages, this shrine became one of the most popular pilgrimage places, alongside Rome and Jerusalem, and to this day hundreds of thousands of pilgrims make their way to the Cathedral of Santiago on foot, bicycle, or horseback. The walking stick and gourd for carrying the day's water were indispensable on the pilgrim way, and the scallop shell was the sign of the pilgrim who had completed the journey.

In addition to the carving above the north doors, the Cathedral has two other images of Saint James. The first window on the left as you enter the west doors of the Cathedral represents James — see if you can spot the traditional emblems of the Apostle. For many years, this window by Charles Connick was the only image of the Cathedral's patron. St. James also appears high above the doors on the west façade of the Cathedral, in the central niche, in a limestone carving dating from 1950.
