Then Jacob dreamed, and behold, a ladder was set up and its top reached to the heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And the Lord said: "Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go; for I will not leave you." Then Jacob awoke and said "How awesome is this place. This is the house of God and the gate of heaven"

When you return to your seat after receiving holy communion, please kneel or be seated. This is the norm for large assemblies in the Archdiocese of Seattle and we thank you for following our practice.

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James is proud to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today. Last week, we had visitors from Los Angeles, CA; Rosario, Argentina; DeForest, WI, and many other places! The winner of our drawing was from Indianapolis, IN.

FLOWERS IN THE CATHEDRAL are from the Saturday wedding of Michelleann Bonoan and Archimedes Alnas. Floral offerings are a wonderful way to remember a deceased loved one, celebrate an anniversary, or give thanks for a prayer that has been answered. If you have been inspired to give thanks with flowers, please contact Peggy Behnken at 206-654-4650 or pbehnken@stjames-cathedral.org.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO LEARN MORE ABOUT YOUR CATHOLIC FAITH WHILE ALSO HELPING OUT ANOTHER PERSON? We continue to have many new inquirers coming to participate in our Christian Initiation process to learn more about the Catholic Church (RCIA). We need St. James parishioners to be companions with our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. All training and support will be provided and the time commitment is reasonable—a minimum of 2 sessions a month (Wednesday evenings). Our next Sponsor Information Meeting is Wednesday, August 17, 7:00-9:00 pm. Information, Helen Oesterle at 206-382-4514 or www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of Assumption in Seattle and Bellingham, and Mary, Queen of Peace in Sammamish.

SUMMER TOURS Please note that there will be no Wednesday 1:00pm tour this Wednesday, August 17. Our last two tours of the summer will be at 1:00pm on August 24 and 31. JUSTFAITH Are you interested in exploring the social justice tradition of your faith? Do you want to know more about the spiritual journey of Francis of Assisi, Mother Theresa, Oscar Romero and the prophets? Did you participate in the Living the Gospel series and want to take those issues a step further? Consider taking part in JustFaith, an intensive program that explores Catholic Social Teaching, the church's "best kept secret." The program includes readings, videos, conversations about challenging topics, face-to-face encounters with the poor, and an investigation into the intersection of spirituality and Christian activism. JustFaith changes people; those people change the world! Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515, pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

LOW GLUTEN HOSTS Have you been diagnosed with Celiac disease or gluten intolerance? The Cathedral is investigating the possibility of offering special hosts which have been approved by the Church, and shown to be safe for celiac sufferers by the Center for Celiac Research. We are trying to get a sense of how many would take advantage of these special hosts, if offered. Please e-mail Corinna Laughlin at claughlin@stjames-cathedral.org or phone 206-622-3559, extension 3996, if you would be interested in participating, and please indicate which Mass you usually attend.

ESL ADVISORY BOARD If you want to make a difference in the lives of refugees and immigrants, and can commit to a few hours per month, we want you! We meet on the third Tuesday of each month from 6:00 to 7:30 PM. We ask for a commitment of two years. Information: Chris Koehler, 206-382-4511 or ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org

THE ST VINCENT DE PAUL CONFERENCES of St. James thank cathedral parishioners for their generous donations last month. During July, we were extremely busy. We made 69 visits to our low income neighbors, focusing primarily on preventing homelessness. Your contributions enabled us to keep 41 families and individuals in their homes! In addition, we helped 8 households avoid the shut off of their utilities, gave out 32 vouchers for food, and provided 35 St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store vouchers for clothes, housewares, beds and other furniture. Members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society follow Jesus through service to those in need. Bearing witness to Christ's compassionate and liberating love, we show our commitment through person-to-person contact. We always make our home visits in pairs. As calls for help increase, we actively seek new members. Please consider joining this deeply rewarding ministry to the poor among us. Information, Rob Millar 206-954-8902 and Tammy Bendix 206-595-9158.

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC WHO HAS BEEN AWAY FROM THE CHURCH? Our Welcome Back program provides a safe place, in the company of others who are also examining their faith, to ask questions about returning to regular church attendance, returning to the sacraments, and to learn about changes in the church. The sessions are offered on Mondays, September 12 through December 5, 7:00-9:00pm on 2nd floor Cathedral Place. Classes are offered without any obligation. Information, TerryAnn Bowen 206-382-2018 or tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org.

DO YOU HAVE A CHILD WHO IS: at least 7 years old seeking Baptism in the Catholic Church? Or, at least 7 years old baptized in another Christian tradition seeking full communion in the Catholic Church? Or, at least 9 years old, baptized Catholic and needs to prepare for First Holy Communion? Please call for information about RCIA Adapted for Older Children, designed to teach children who fall within these guidelines about our Catholic faith and to prepare them for the Sacraments of Initiation. Information and registration, TerryAnn Bowen tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-2018.

NEED PASTORAL CARE? If you are sick or homebound and would like to receive communion, or would like a CD of Sunday's Mass, or need the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, we can help! Information John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, 206-274-3173, jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

We welcome our visitors

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

August 14, 2011

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!

St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the image of Our Lady in the Cathedral Courtyard.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence today.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

OUR CATHEDRAL ICONS

St. James Cathedral is fortunate to possess a significant collection of icons, the work of parishioner and Cathedral iconographer Joan Brand-Landkamer. The icons represent the central mysteries of faith and the feasts of the Church year in the language of the traditional Russian Orthodox icons. In the Orthodox tradition, icons are revered as sacred objects, and form an integral part of the liturgy; they are seen as “windows” on the divine. In the past century, the art of the icon has gained in popularity in the west, as Christians of many denominations have found the icons to invite reflection and prayer on the mysteries of Christ.

At St. James, one of the icons is carried in procession each Sunday, and placed on a stand for viewing. The icon pictured above represents the Dormition of the Blessed Virgin Mary – the same feast we in the Roman Church call the “Assumption.” Mary lies on her deathbed, surrounded by grieving Apostles, who seem to be unaware of Christ, standing in their midst. Looking closely at the figure of Christ, he seems to hold an infant in his arms: this represents his Mother, who is “newly born” as she is taken, body and soul, into heaven. It is a striking, poetic reversal of the traditional image of the Mother and Child.
