JUSTFAITH Are you interested in exploring the social justice tradition of your faith? Do you want to know more about the spiritual journey of Francis of Assisi, Mother Theresa, Oscar Romero and the prophets? Did you participate in the Living the Gospel series and want to take those issues a step further? Consider taking part in JustFaith, an intensive program that explores Catholic Social Teaching, the church's "best kept secret." The program includes readings, videos, conversations about challenging topics, face-to-face encounters with the poor, and an investigation into the intersection of spirituality and Christian activism. JustFaith changes people; those people change the world! An information night will be held Tuesday, September 6 at 6:30pm. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515, pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

ESL ADVISORY BOARD If you want to make a difference in the lives of refugees and immigrants, and can commit to a few hours per month, we want you! We meet on the third Tuesday of each month from 6:00 to 7:30pm. We ask for a commitment of two years. Information: Chris Koehler, 206-382-4511 or ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC WHO HAS BEEN AWAY FROM THE CHURCH? Our Welcome Back program provides a safe place, in the company of others who are also examining their faith, to ask questions about returning to regular church attendance, returning to the sacraments, and to learn about changes in the church. The sessions are offered on Mondays, September 12 through December 5, 7:00-9:00pm on 2nd floor Cathedral Place. Classes are offered without any obligation. Information, TerryAnn Bowen 206-382-2018 or tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org.

Or, at least 7 years old baptized in another Christian tradition seeking full communion in the Catholic Church? Or, at least 9 years old, baptized Catholic and needs to prepare for First Holy Communion? LOW GLUTEN HOSTS Have you been diagnosed with Celiac disease or gluten intolerance? The Cathedral is investigating the possibility of offering special hosts which have been approved by the Church, and shown to be safe for celiac sufferers by the Center for Celiac Research. We are trying to get a sense of how many would take advantage of these special hosts, if offered. Please e-mail Corinna Laughlin at claughlin@stjames-cathedral.org or phone 206-622-3559, extension 3996, if you would be interested in participating, and please indicate which Mass you usually attend.

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!

St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the image of Our Lady of Seattle in the Cathedral Chapel.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence today.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

OUR LADY OF SEATTLE

The Cathedral Chapel is home to two beautiful images of the Blessed Virgin Mary – the Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci, and a polychromed plaster statue known as “Our Lady of Seattle.” This well-loved is said to be the first image of Our Lady to be publicly venerated in the city of Seattle. The statue was originally installed at the Church of Our Lady of Good Help in the early 1870s by Msgr. Francis Xavier Prefontaine, Seattle’s pioneer priest. He was the first to encourage Bishop O’Dea to consider moving his episcopal seat from Vancouver to Seattle, as early as 1896. Our Lady of Seattle briefly became the pro-Cathedral when Bishop O’Dea finally did move to Seattle in 1903. After the building of St. James Cathedral in 1907, the parish became a station of the Cathedral, and was staffed by Cathedral priests until 1949, when the old church sustained significant damage in an earthquake and had to be torn down. The statue of Mary has been at St. James ever since.

The brightly-colored image shows Mary standing on a serpent with an apple in its mouth, imagery recalling Genesis 3:9-15. Beneath her feet is a globe, with clouds and stars, suggesting Mary’s queenship over creation. Mary looks down at those who kneel before her, her hands outstretched in a gesture of welcome and of prayer to God.

Our Lady of Seattle, pray for us.
