LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored.

We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.*

FLOWERS IN THE CATHEDRAL are from the Saturday wedding of Brigitte Rassilyer and Jeffrey Krier. *Floral offerings are a wonderful way to remember a deceased loved one, celebrate an anniversary, or give thanks for a prayer that has been answered. MINISTRIES FAIR TODAY, Sunday, November 6, we have our annual Ministries Fair after each of our morning Masses. This is our chance to explore the many different opportunities for service at St. James Cathedral. It's also a time to celebrate the rich and varied ministries of our Cathedral parish. More than 1,100 people volunteer in 40+ different ministries at St. James each year. Come celebrate what your generous support of the Cathedral parish makes possible and find out how you can become a part of it!

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Hubert in Langley and St. Martin of Tours in Fife.

Thank you from Helen Oesterle

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! I am so grateful for the blessings and well-wishes from last Sunday. I will always treasure my years of ministry here at St. James. You have taught me a lot about God, faith, community, and compassion. I will keep you in my heart and in my prayers and look forward to the times our paths will cross again. And if you are ever in the neighborhood of West Seattle, come visit me at Our Lady of Guadalupe. Peace, Helen :)

Transitioning to the new Roman Missal

Part 9 in a series (Prepared by Corinna Laughlin)

November 6, 2011

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

Priest:

The mystery of faith.

People:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

or

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup,
we proclaim your Death, O Lord,
until you come again.

or

Save us, Savior of the world,
for by your Cross and Resurrection
you have set us free.

encapsulate the saving mystery of Christ, who died and who rose and who will come again. In different ways, each of these acclamations speak what it means to do what we do, in this and every Mass – in celebrating the Eucharist we are recalling Christ's passion. As St. Paul said (in words that are echoed in Option B): "For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes" (I Corinthians 11:23).

The Constitution on the Liturgy of the Second Vatican Council encourages the regional conferences of bishops to compose new prayers, and the 1974 Sacramentary included a fourth option for the Memorial Acclamation, based on what will be option A in the new Missal: "Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again." It is a stunningly simple expression of what we believe, and rapidly became the most frequently used acclamation for English-speaking Catholics. But it is not included in the third edition because it is not in the Latin text, and also because it is not addressed to Christ, and therefore does not involve us in Christ's saving action in the same way as the others.

The Memorial Acclamation is the name given to the brief sung or spoken response the assembly makes following the words of consecration. Before the reforms of the Council, the Eucharistic Prayer was said quietly by the priest, the people following along through his ritual gestures like genuflections, signs of the cross, and, above all, the elevations of host and chalice. With the Council reforms, the people's participation was a priority, and acclamations now punctuate the Eucharistic Prayer: the entire assembly joins in singing the Sanctus, the Memorial Acclamation, and the Amen.

After the words of consecration, the priest sings or says "mystery of faith," which refers both to what has come before—obedient to Christ's command, the words have been spoken that change bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ—and to the words with which the people now respond, words which

This book of "Mass Aids and Bible Vigils," published during the Council, was one of many efforts to help laypeople explore the riches of the Scriptures and the Church's liturgy.

Preparing for the New Language of the Mass

After all Masses
November 12-13
and November 19-20

After ALL Masses on November 12-13 and November 19-20, we will be offering a short (45-minute) session to prepare for the new Roman Missal. Many of our most familiar responses at Mass will be changing. This will be our primary opportunity to learn more and experience the responses before we begin using the new language at Mass on November 26-27. All Cathedral parishioners and regulars are strongly encouraged to participate in one of these sessions.

Evening sessions will be held in the Cathedral Chapel. Morning sessions will be held in the Holy Names Room of the Pastoral Outreach Center and hospitality will be provided.

For more information, contact Corinna Laughlin, claughlin@stjames-cathedral.org or 622-3559.

Pastoral Outreach Center
12:30pm to 6:30pm (closed 3:00–3:45pm)

Your Community Blood Center

Puget Sound Blood Center is an independent, volunteer-supported, nonprofit community resource. It is a key link in the healthcare network, providing blood, tissue and specialized laboratory services in Western Washington and across the Northwest. Blood Center physicians offer 24-hour consultation to the medical community on transfusion and transplantation medicine issues, and provide valuable education aimed at improving patient care.

Who needs blood?

Most of us will require a blood transfusion at some point in our lifetimes. To meet the transfusion needs of patients in our community, at least 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

Who can donate blood?

Most people can donate blood. Those who are at least 18 years old and weigh at least 110 pounds may donate blood every 56 days. Those 16 or 17 may donate with a signed Blood Center permission slip; there is no upper age limit. Some health conditions or medications may temporarily or permanently prevent people from donating blood.

Help save a life—sign up to donate!

Sign up at coffee hours on 11/6, 11/13, and 11/20. Or e-mail jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org to sign up or to find out more. Or call 206-274-3173.
