Joy and Hope in Christ: Vatican II

Part 8 in a series

April 29, 2012

This year, 2012, marks the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council, which began on October 11, 1962, and closed on December 8, 1965. Throughout the year, we'll mark this milestone anniversary by celebrating the Council, and exploring its teachings through bulletin inserts, lectures, and a variety of special events.

Renewing the Liturgy

As we have seen, the liturgy was the first topic tackled in the Council debates, beginning in October, 1962. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, also known as Sacrosanctum Concilium, was the first document passed by the Council Fathers and approved by Pope Paul VI, on December 4, 1963. So what was decided? What does the Constitution actually say?

The liturgy is all about the paschal mystery of Christ's passion, death, and resurrection, a mystery in which we are all immersed by our baptism in Christ and our sharing in the Eucharist. "The Church has never failed to come together to celebrate the paschal mystery: reading those things 'which were in all the scriptures concerning him,' celebrating the eucharist in which 'the victory and triumph of his death are again made present.'" (CSL 6)

Christ is present in the liturgy in various ways: "He is present in the sacrifice of the Mass, not only in the person of His minister... but especially under the Eucharistic species. By His power He is present in the sacraments, so that when a man baptizes it is really Christ Himself who baptizes. He is present in His word, since it is He Himself who speaks when the holy scriptures are read in the Church. He is present, lastly, when the Church prays and sings, for He promised: 'Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them'" (CSL 7).

The liturgy is the most important thing we do as the people of God. Through our participation in the liturgy, we express our faith and are formed into the Body of Christ. "The liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed; at the same time it is the font from which all her power flows. For the aim and object of apostolic works is that all who are made sons of God by faith and baptism should come together to praise God in the midst of His Church, to take part in the sacrifice, and to eat the Lord's supper." (CSL 10) We celebrate the liturgy to be sent forth and evangelize the world, that more and more people may come to the table and give worship to God.

The participation of the people really matters: it is both our right and our duty. It is not enough to follow the rubrics, though that is important. "When the liturgy is celebrated, something more is required than the mere observation of the laws governing valid and licit celebration; it is their duty also to ensure that the faithful take part fully aware of what they are doing, actively engaged in the rite, and enriched by its effects" (CSL 11). The participation of the people becomes the guiding principle for the reforms of the liturgy. "Mother Church earnestly desires that all the faithful should be led to that fully conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy. Such participation by the Christian people as a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a redeemed people, is their right and duty by reason of their baptism. In the restoration and promotion of the sacred liturgy, this full and active participation by all the people is the aim to be considered before all else." (CSL, 14) An obvious first step is the use of the vernacular rather than Latin. (CSL, 38)

These basic principles of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy are reflected in the liturgical reforms which were carried out in the years following the Council by the Consilium, a group of bishops from around the world appointed by Pope Paul VI, and assisted by scholars from many nations. These are some of the accomplishments of the Consilium in bringing the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy to life:

- Clarification of the Mass and other rites, on the principle of "noble simplicity" (CSL 34)
- Development of the Lectionary for Sundays and weekdays—in the course of three years, we hear virtually all of the New Testament, and a good portion of the Old
- Restoration of the catechumenate and development of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)
- Reform of the liturgical year, removing feasts of non-historical saints, and keeping the focus on the Paschal Mystery of Christ
- Reform of funeral rites are to be reflections of the paschal mystery, the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Christ
- Sacred music, art and architecture should reflect both the great tradition and foster and encourage contemporary artists.

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are from Julia Richardt in memory of her grandmother Gerta Hocke, who died March 21 in Kassel, Germany at the age of 91.

CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO Stop by Cathedral Hall after the 10:00am Mass today for a latte or mocha. All proceeds during the month of April benefit our babysitting program.

FIRST FRIDAY EXPOSITION AND HOLY HOUR On Friday, May 4, we will have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament following the 8:15am Mass, and continuing until 1:00pm. There will be a Holy Hour at 12 Noon with Midday Prayer and rosary. What a wonderful way to begin "Mary's month"! All are welcome.

MHM RESOURCE CENTER GRAND OPENING Today, Sunday, April 29, from 9am-2pm, you're invited to the grand opening of the Mental Health Ministry Resource Center. Stop by the Gallagher Center (enter off Columbia Street) for resources and information related to mental health/illness, emotional distress and living well. We also provide referrals to professional and medical assistance, and companioning. We will also offer blood pressure checks and information related to stress. The resource center will be open on the last Sunday of each month.

OUR VATICAN II LECTURE SERIES CONTINUES: VATICAN II AND SCRIPTURE Father James Eblen, noted Scripture scholar and priest of the Archdiocese of Seattle, will give the second in our Vatican II Lecture Series on Monday, April 30 at 7:00pm in Cathedral Place Hall. Father Eblen will explore the Council's seminal document on Scripture and revelation, Dei Verbum. "Such force and power are present in the word of God that it remains the Church's support and source of energy, and for her children a strengthening of the faith, a food of the soul, and never failing source of spiritual life... For Christ's faithful the approach to holy Scripture should lie wide open." (Dei Verbum)

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of Holy Disciples in Puyallup and St. Philip in Woodland, and the mission church of St. Joseph the Worker in Yacolt.

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC WHO HAS BEEN AWAY FROM THE CHURCH? Our Welcome Back program provides a safe place, in the company of others who are also examining their faith, to ask questions about returning to regular church attendance and the sacraments, and to learn about changes in the church. The sessions are offered on Mondays, April 23 through July 16, 7:00-9:00pm on 2nd floor Cathedral Place. Classes are offered without any obligation. Information, David Murphy, 206-274-3109 or dmurphy@stjames-cathedral.org.

WOULD YOU CONSIDER ASSISTING A PERSON who wants to become Catholic? We continue to have new inquirers coming to participate in our Christian Initiation process to learn more about the Catholic Church (RCIA). We need St. James parishioners to be companions with our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. The time commitment is reasonable – two Wednesday evening sessions a month. Training and support are provided. The rewards are many, including renewal and update of your own faith and “kudos” in heaven. Information, TerryAnn Bowen 206-382-2018 or tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org.

Getting to know Good Pope John

Later this year, thanks to some generous parishioners, a permanent shrine to Blessed John XXIII, the Pope who called the Second Vatican Council, will be established in the north aisle of the Cathedral. Throughout the year, keep an eye on this box in the bulletin to learn more about this great saint of modern times.

An obsequious Italian journalist remained stubbornly on his knees while the Pope was giving him some instructions. "Get up now and sit in this chair," the Pope asked.

"Holy Father, I am quite comfortable on my knees. I am used to a position which I always took in the presence of your predecessors."

"It's proper to pray on your knees, but not to work," the Pope replied. "Get up and sit down."

The Annual Catholic Appeal is all about being Catholic, all about being part of a Church that stretches far beyond the reach of our own parish. The Annual Appeal acknowledges that no parish (not even a great one like St. James Cathedral!) can possibly accomplish the entire mission of the Church.

The Annual Catholic Appeal helps fund many important parts of the Church's mission – things a parish can't do by itself. The amount required to meet all the needs this year is $10 million and, of this amount, our own parish of St. James Cathedral is being asked to raise $346,676. (A 10% increase over last year's goal!)

AN IMPORTANT NOTE! As in years past, everything given over and above the $346,676 goal given us by the Archdiocese will come back to us for our own parish needs. This year we have greater need than ever of this rebate. We need it to meet the considerable expenses that are involved in our many outreach ministries. In a particular way, we need it to support the work of The Solanus Casey Center, which is a drop in center (the only one on First Hill) for homeless and recently incarcerated people. Three days a week, it helps connect needy people with services and programs to get them back on their feet. This relatively new St. James program is one of the Cathedral's best-kept secrets. Like the other outreach ministries, it involves significant expenses, and that's where this year's Annual Catholic Appeal rebate will come in.
