DISMISSAL OF THE CATECHUMENS AND CANDIDATES (10:00)

CREED (except Noon)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism
for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection
of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

BOAT TOUR OF DUWAMISH WATERWAY In 2001, the Environmental Protection Agency listed the Lower Duwamish River as a federal Superfund site, naming it as one of the most contaminated sites in the United States. The St. James Environmental Justice Committee is joining with the Duwamish River Cleanup Coalition and other Seattle faith communities in a prayerful and reflective boat tour of the Lower Duwamish River. The tour will provide an opportunity to learn about the state of Seattle's major river as well as its people, and to explore ways to live out our call to practice environmental justice. Saturday, August 18, 10:00. Registration required; suggested donation: $20 presale, $25 day of tour. Information and to register: Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515 or pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

WILL YOU ASSIST A PERSON WHO WANTS TO BECOME CATHOLIC? We continue to have new inquirers coming to participate in our Christian Initiation process to learn more about the Catholic Church (RCIA). We need St. James parishioners to be companions with our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. The time commitment is reasonable – two Wednesday evening sessions a month. Training and support are provided. The rewards are many, including renewal and update of your own faith and "kudos" in heaven. Information, TerryAnn Bowen 206-382-2018 or tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org.

SENIOR TRIP TO NORTHWEST TREK This coming Wednesday, July 11, you could be peering out of the tram at bellowing bison less than 10 feet away or standing nose-to-nose with an otter: both common wildlife encounters at Northwest Trek! Space is limited and priority will be given to registered parishioners over the age of 65. Information, or to reserve your place, John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, at 206-274-3173 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

CAMINO SEATTLE

Camino Seattle is a five-week walking/hiking and prayer event for St. James Cathedral Parish, beginning June 24, 2012 and ending July 29, 2012, the Feast of St. James.

STAGETHREE of the Camino: Burgos

The city of Burgos takes its name from the towers that rose around it to protect it from marauders from the time of its founding in 884. Its magnificent Gothic cathedral, dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary, was consecrated in 1260. El Cid, the legendary general, is buried here. Just outside of Burgos is the pilgrims' cemetery, where many pilgrims who died along the way were laid to rest. Another place even a tired pilgrim will want to visit is the Monasterio de las Huelgas Reales, a royal monastery, where kings of Castile were crowned. This is also where knighthoods were conferred, not by a person, but by St. James himself! The statue of James with an articulated arm holding a sword can still be seen here.

Reflection

Sometimes it is hard to pray, especially when we are tired out. Time for rest is essential, and we should also remember that we don't always have to pray the same way. Father Kevin Codd, in To the Field of the Stars, recommends the rosary. "The rosary is the perfect prayer for a pilgrim; its repetitive recitation of the same few words over and over remarkably falls into time with my footsteps and my arms and the whole movement of my somewhat hunched body. With the rosary, I don't have to think, invent, or even really use my imagination. It comes from and rolls around within a place other than the front of my brain. It's not a mental prayer at all. It is a physical prayer, a prayer of rhythm more than words. Five fingers do all the work trundling beads through their paces while the rest of my body goes along for the ride."

Advice for Pilgrims

It is to be carefully watched by all pilgrims on route, that there be no split or strife among them. Strife is to be completely avoided by pilgrims – and drunkenness as well. (From a 12th-century sermon on the Feast of St. James)

Prayer for Today

Mary our mother, when you received the message of the Angel, you "set forth in haste" and traveled through the hill country to share the good news with your cousin Elizabeth. May we who walk this Camino through the "hill country" of the beautiful place where we live be heralds of Christ's Gospel, who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

CAMINO EVENTS

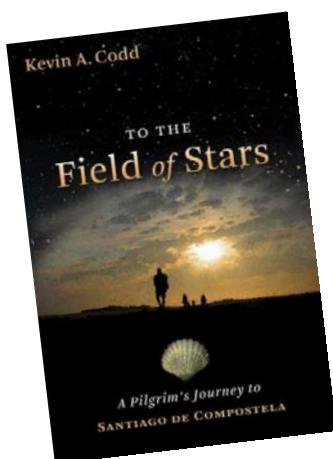

Throughout Camino Seattle, a series of special educational events will help us explore the rich history of the Camino and of our patron, James. Camino Seattle participants attending any of these events will receive a bonus stamp for the passports! There are also hosted walks each week—visit www.stjames-cathedral.org/camino to find out more and to sign up!

CAMINO PHOTO EXHIBIT Visit the Cathedral Chapel now through July 29 for an exhibit of photos of the Camino de Santiago by Rev. Dr. Sandy Brown and others. It's a vicarious pilgrimage through the beautiful landscape of northern Spain.

SUMMER FILM FESTIVAL Join us on Tuesday, July 10 for the first of our three Summer Film Festival offerings: The Way, starring Martin Sheen. It is a powerful and inspirational story about family, friends, and the challenges we face while navigating this ever-changing and complicated world. Join the main character, Tom, as he discovers the difference between “the life we live and the life we choose.” The film will be shown in Cathedral Place, 2nd floor at 7:00pm. Popcorn and lemonade will be provided and you are welcome to bring your favorite movie treats.

CAMINO STORY NIGHT Join us on Tuesday, July 17 at 7:00pm in the Cathedral Chapel, for an evening with pilgrims who have walked the Camino to Santiago de Compostela. They will share the highlights (and the low points!) of the experience, and talk about the spiritual meaning of the pilgrimage as well as some of the practical ins and outs. If you are considering doing the Camino, or if you just want to travel vicariously, this evening is for you. There will be plenty of time for questions and answers as well.

CATHEDRAL BOOK GROUP Join us on Tuesday, July 24 at 7:00pm in the Holy Names Room, Pastoral Outreach Center, for a discussion of Father Kevin Codd's illuminating account of his pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela, To the Field of Stars. He describes his thirty-five day walk across Spain, shares stories of fellow pilgrims, and describes with candor his challenges and triumphs along the way. To the Field of Stars is available now in the Cathedral Bookstore.
