CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Ministries Fair

SUNDAYS, NOVEMBER 11 & 18 after the morning masses in Cathedral Hall

God has created me
to do Him some definite service.
He has committed some work to me
which He has not committed to another.
I have my mission.
I am a link in a chain,
a bond of connection between persons.
He has not created me for naught.
I shall do good; I shall do His work.

—Blessed John Henry Newman

This year our MINISTRIES FAIR will be offered over two Sundays, November 11 and 18, after each of our morning Masses. This is our chance to explore the many different opportunities for service at St. James Cathedral. It's also a time to celebrate the rich and varied ministries of our Cathedral parish. More than 1,100 people volunteer in 40+ different ministries at St. James each year. Come celebrate what your generous support of the Cathedral parish makes possible and find out how you can become a part of it!

Sunday 5:30pm Mass-goers, please note!
There will be a "mini-Ministries Fair" in the Cathedral Chapel following the evening Mass on Sunday, November 18! Be sure to stop by!

Information, Maria Laughlin, Director of Stewardship and Development, 206-382-4284 or e-mail malaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

A SAINT FOR OUR TIME: FR. AUGUSTUS TOLTON

On Saturday, January 19, 2013, at 11:00am in the Cathedral, Archbishop Sartain will celebrate a Mass in thanksgiving for the life and witness of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and in celebration of the presence of African-American and African Catholics in the Archdiocese of Seattle. Save the date!

Father Augustus Tolton (1854-1897) was the first Black American born into slavery to be ordained a Catholic priest. Augustus was baptized in the Catholic Church by the family that owned him. His mother escaped with him from Missouri to Illinois through the Underground Railroad.

In Chicago, Augustus' attempts to obtain a Catholic education were met with bigoted scorn, racial threats and expulsion. Finally, though, a Franciscan priest recognized his giftedness and tutored him in the catechism, the classics and languages. Impressed by Augustus' intelligence and piety, several priests and nuns tried to get him into an American seminary, but these efforts failed. Blacks were still being treated as less than fully human, and Augustus was subjected to mockery and insults as he pursued his desire for ordination, year after year. Finally, in 1880, he became a seminarian in Rome and six years later he was ordained a priest at the Basilica of St. John Lateran.

Given the state of race relations in the United States, coupled with a strong anti-Catholic mood, Father Tolton was sent back home as a missionary. His Cardinal insisted, "America has been called the most enlightened nation; we will see if it deserves that honor. If America has never seen a black priest, it has to see one now."

In 1886, Father Tolton arrived in Quincy, Illinois, and was assigned to a small black parish. Soon, whites also began to seek him out for his counsel and for his rousing sermons, but this was determined to be an unacceptable mingling of the races. Father Tolton endured years of physical and emotional suffering as he sought to spread the truth about being Black and Catholic.

In 1889 the Archbishop of Chicago through the intercession of Mother Katherine Drexel, invited Father Tolton to build a new parish in the impoverished area of the south Chicago slums. Here Father Tolton accomplished much despite the insurmountable odds of the evils of racism and discrimination. He demonstrated that Blacks can be ministers of the Lord and that Black Catholics have much to offer the Church if given the opportunity to use their talents and abilities. Tragically, Father Tolton died mysteriously of "heat exhaustion" on the streets of Chicago in 1897, at the age of 43.

Currently, Bishop Joseph Perry, Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago, is heading up the Vatican's process for the beatification of Father Augustus Tolton. Please pray for a miracle through Father Tolton's intercession, so that he can become the first Black American born into slavery to become a priest... and a saint.
