to the tune LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored.

CREED chanted on one tone

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Getting to know Good Pope John

Be sure to stop by our new shrine in honor of Blessed John XXIII to offer a prayer to this great saint of modern times.

In his famous meeting with the son and daughter-in-law of Khrushchev, Pope John XXIII asked her to tell him the names of her children. "Madame, I know that you have three children, and I know their names. But I would like you to tell me their names, because when a mother speaks the names of her children, something very special happens."

From Hebbelthwaite's biography of Blessed Pope John XXIII

Advent 2012

Keeping Advent

"Today, together with the Church, we are beginning the new liturgical year: a new journey of faith to experience together... the salvation that comes from his love. The Season of Advent... is a marvelous period in which the expectation of Christ's return and the memory of his first Coming — when he emptied himself of his divine glory to take on our mortal flesh — reawakens in hearts.... It is a salutary reminder to us that life does not only have an earthly dimension but reaches towards a 'beyond,' like a plantlet that sprouts from the ground and opens towards the sky." Pope Benedict XVI

Sundays of Advent

To mark this holy season of longing and waiting for the coming of the Lord, we change some of our usual liturgical practices. The processional path of the ministers into the cathedral is modified and the altar is decorated more simply. During the liturgies, a greater role is given to silence, to the chanting of psalms, and to the ringing of bells. In accordance with a very ancient tradition in the church, the use of the organ is reduced during Advent.

Advent Wreath

The Advent wreath is a devotion Catholics have adopted from the Lutheran tradition. The wreath is placed at the foot of the statue of Our Lady in the north transept. Just before each Mass, the priest gathers with the liturgical ministers for the prayer and candle-lighting associated with the wreath.

Madre de las Americas

Saturday, December 1, 11:45am, Dancers and Mariachi. 12:10pm, Mass with Archbishop J. Peter Sartain. The Hispanic community of western Washington comes together at this celebration in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the Mother of the Americas. All are welcome.

The Giving Tree

Stop by Cathedral Hall after any Mass December 2 or December 9 to pick a tag off of our annual Giving Tree. Each tag contains a gift wish from someone in need in our community. It's easy and fun to participate: simply shop for the gift and return it after Sunday Mass. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515 or pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

Advent Fair Trade Bazaar

On Sunday, December 2, after the 8am, 10am, and Noon Masses, we have an opportunity to get started on our Christmas shopping while supporting a number of great causes! Christmas cards, Nativity scenes, and much more.

Evening Prayer with Music from Taizé

Each Friday evening at 6:30pm, you are invited to join in this beautiful ecumenical prayer of music, candlelight, and silence. Set aside a Friday evening this Advent to experience the meditative, peaceful spirit of Taizé. The prayer concludes about 7:15pm.

Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

On Saturday, December 8, we celebrate the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. There will be two Masses for the Holy Day: Friday, December 7 at 5:30pm (Vigil), and Thursday, December 8 at 8:15 am. Please note that the 5:30pm Mass on December 8 will be the anticipated Mass of the Second Sunday of Advent, not a Mass of the Holy Day.

During these beautiful services of readings, reflection and song, we will open ourselves to experience the gift of God's gracious and loving forgiveness in the Sacrament of Penance. It has long been a tradition in the church to confess one's sins before celebrating the great feast of Christmas. These will be ideal times to do so.

Solemnity of the Dedication

On Friday, December 21 at the 5:30pm Mass, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Dedication of St. James Cathedral. Our Cathedral was dedicated December 22, 1907 and rededicated December 22, 1994. SUNDAY GIVING AT ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL 2013

CHRIST THE KING

THE LAST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

November 25, 2012

The paradox of Jesus — strength in weakness, a crucified King — is expressed in wood, bronze, and glass in the art of the Cathedral. From left: the Child Jesus holding a pomegranate, symbol of resurrection, from the statue in the shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary (19th century, inspired by a 15th-century German altarpiece); Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem from the Ceremonial Doors by Ulrich Henn (1999); detail of the Great Cross (c.1950); South Transept Resurrection Window by Charles Connick (1917).

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain,
to receive power and divinity,
and wisdom and strength and honor.
To him belong glory and power
for ever and ever.

Introit for the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Rev 5: 12, 1:6)

The solemnity of Christ the King marks the conclusion of the liturgical year. The readings and prayers are full of paradoxical imagery, challenging our human notions of power and authority. Here is a king who comes to his people not with earthly pomp and splendor, but in meekness and humility, riding on a donkey. This king is crowned not with gold but with thorns; a king who is raised high, not on an earthly throne, but on a cross, the instrument of torture and shame. Deserted by his scandalized disciples, dragged before Pilate, Jesus speaks extraordinary words: "my kingdom does not belong to this world.... My kingdom is not here" (John 18). Where is Christ's kingdom? He "has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father" (Revelation 1). His kingdom is already here, and it is in our midst. And yet at the same time his kingdom is still to come, and this feast calls us to be ready to recognize him when he comes "amid the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him" (Revelation 1).

The image of Jesus as our paradoxical King is as old as the Gospel itself; and yet this Solemnity of Christ the King is one of the newest on the Church's calendar, instituted in 1925. Acknowledging Jesus Christ as king of the universe would, Pope Pius XI hoped, act as a corrective to the dangerous political ideas of his time, and help to bring about "the signal benefits of true liberty, of calm order, of harmony, and of peace." He asked that Catholics throughout the world dedicate this day to praying for the salvation of the entire world, for the unity of Christians, and for peace. "Grant to your Church, O Lord," he wrote, "freedom from fear and immunity from harm; grant to all nations ordered peace; perfect your work, until the earth rings from pole to pole with a single cry: Praise be to the divine Heart that wrought our salvation; to that Heart be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen."
