ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

April 14, 2013

Dear Friends,

"Don't ask the questions if you're unwilling to deal with the answers." That's good advice for just about everyone, and it's especially good advice for a parish leader when it comes to conducting a survey. And, believe me, it was much on my mind when we decided to conduct a survey of one thousand parish households back in the fall of 2010. The survey was designed to gauge the strengths of our Cathedral parish as well as the areas where the needs of our parishioners were not being met. The results of the survey shaped our parish vision statement and have also guided our parish programs these last two years.

In the main, the survey told me and the Cathedral's pastoral ministry team that people love this parish. They love the way we pray together, the way we welcome people, the way we teach about the faith, the way we reach out in loving service to the poor, and the way we advocate for justice. That was all very reassuring, to say the least.

But some of the questions we asked triggered responses that were quite challenging. I think, for instance, of the comments and complaints about the sound system in the Cathedral. We have been working hard to address those ever since, conducting a survey of your experience of the sound system last summer, which helped us to isolate problem areas. As you may have noticed, we have adjusted sound levels throughout the Cathedral, and replaced the ambo microphone. And we continue to explore ways to improve sound levels in all areas of the Cathedral.

I think also of the comments we received about community and community-building in the parish. We have undertaken some new efforts to address those concerns as well: launching a new Family Ministry in July, 2012, to provide greater support for our couples preparing for marriage as well as our families. In addition, programs like Camino Seattle and the St. Patrick's Day Breakfast have served as great community-building events.

Most challenging of all, however, were the comments regarding a perceived lack of outreach to our teenage parishioners or, to put it in a positive way, the hopes expressed by people that we would take significant steps to address the needs of our teenagers, a growing and dynamic part of our community. It's not that we haven't done things for our young people.

In addition to the faith formation program, a good number of our teenagers are very engaged as altar servers, youth readers, Eucharistic Ministers, and as members of our two choirs for teenagers, Jubilate! and St. Edward's Vocal Ensemble. And some have taken part in service opportunities like the summer Youth Migrant Program. But there are so many possibilities beyond those and, to be honest, we have not been able to address them.

Until now!

I can't tell you how happy I am to announce that this June we are launching a new and exciting Youth Ministry Program. As director of the program, we are extremely blessed to be able hire our own parishioner, Joe Cotton, who for years has been something of an icon for youth ministry in this Archdiocese. Joe has been an outstanding leader in this area of ministry, serving ably and effectively as Youth Minister in parishes. He has also been heavily involved in juvenile detention ministry for the Archdiocese both as director and hands-on minister, and he has taught junior high students in one of our Catholic schools. But his long list of past involvements doesn't tell the whole story. Joe is a wonderful young man with deep faith, excellent people-skills, and a strong commitment to serving the poor and advocating for justice. And he's a Pied Piper when it comes to young people!

Speaking personally, this new moment in our life as a parish is a very fulfilling one. I feel that we are, in a sense, coming of age. Years ago, there was no need at St. James Cathedral for a youth minister because there were very few young people. No more. We have become a parish with large numbers of children and young people who come with their families to the Cathedral each week from all over the Puget Sound region. They are our future and it is only right that we should be looking for every way possible to involve them in the life of the parish and to let them know how important they are.

Let me return to where I began: I am glad we asked you the questions we did back in 2010, and I'm glad you were so honest in answering them. Now, thanks to your ongoing generous support, we are taking this step forward in faith, confident that God who has led us to this point will continue with us each step of the way into a very bright future!

Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.*

CREATION: ART IN THE CATHEDRAL CHAPEL In conjunction with the series "Heaven and Earth Are Full of Your Glory," we are honored to host a show in the Cathedral Chapel of works by local artists on the theme of God in creation, curated by our parishioner Elizabeth Winder. The show will continue through Friday, June 14. There will be a ten-minute guided tour of the works on display following the 10:00am and Sunday 5:30pm Masses TODAY. Just gather in the Chapel immediately after Mass.

CALLING ALL KNITTERS Are you a knitter? Would you love to contribute your talents to help the homeless? We are organizing a group to partner with Warm for Winter, a program that collects hand-knitted hats and scarves to distribute to people living on the streets. Whether you're an expert or a novice, join us! We will be offering lessons for those who'd like to learn to knit. ARE YOU A CATHOLIC WHO HAS BEEN AWAY FROM THE CHURCH? It is not too late to join our Welcome Back program – a safe place, in the company of others who are also examining their faith, to ask questions about returning to regular church attendance, returning to the sacraments, and to learn about changes in the church. The 1st session was last Monday, but you can still join us Monday, April 15 from 7:00-9:00 pm and then each Monday through July 1 in Cathedral Place, 2nd floor. Classes are offered without any obligation. Information, TerryAnn Bowen 206-382-2018 or tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org

SPIRITUALITY ON TAP: JESUITS ON THE FRONTIER

The lives of Francis Xavier and Matteo Ricci give us some insights into the Jesuit missionaries and how they were able to maintain friendships across great distances. What were Francis Xavier's successes and failures on his voyages and what inspired Matteo Ricci to write his book On Friendship? What does this tell us about their work as missionaries? Join other young adults for an evening of discussion on the lessons from those travels and a reflection on their applications to our own as we ourselves maintain friendships around the nation and world. Spirituality on Tap is hosted this month at St. Catherine of Siena Church (814 NE 85th St. Seattle) from 7:00pm-9:00pm on Thursday, April 18. Transportation from St. James to St. Catherine's is available. Information, Caitlin Lanigan, 206-382-4235, or clanigan@stjames-cathedral.org.

IN THE BEGINNING: THE SACREDNESS OF CREATION IN SCRIPTURE

Join us for an exploration of a Biblical view of creation in Genesis and the Gospel according to John. Presenters: Sr. Joyce Cox, Director of Ecumenical/Interreligious Dialogue for the Archdiocese of Seattle, and Catherine Punsalan, Assistant Professor of Theology and Religious Studies, Seattle University. Monday, April 22, 7:00 pm, Pastoral Outreach Center. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515, pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

Classes are held at Cathedral Place on Tuesdays evenings, April 23-May 28 with one all day class on May 11. Tuition for the 21 hours of instruction is $400. Information, Lisa Dennison, LisaD@cabriniministry.org.

YOUNG ADULT SERVICE OPPORTUNITY If you are a Young Adult (21-39) in the parish and are looking for a chance to meet other young adults while working for a great cause consider volunteering for "Stuff the Truck Sunday." CATHEDRAL KITCHEN THANK YOU Our annual Spring Gala Dinner was prepared and served by our friends at PEMCO last Wednesday. With their generosity, we served pork tenderloin, mashed potatoes, carrots, green salad and applesauce, as well as donated Macrina bread and rolls. To top off the beautiful meal we had a choice of chocolate or white cake. Thank you, PEMCO and Macrina!

SHELTER DONATIONS We are in need of colored wash cloths and hand towels for our shelter guests. As always we are also in need of toiletries. We especially need razors, deodorant, and shaving cream. Drop donations off at Coffee Hour after masses or at the parish office Monday-Friday 9am-5pm.

HELP FEED THE HUNGRY Operation Nightwatch is an ecumenical Christian ministry providing hot meals and shelter referrals to 150-200 homeless people every night. St. James parishioners cook and serve dinner at the Nightwatch Center three times a month. Parishoners can get involved by volunteering to prepare and serve meals or by donating food items. We are especially in need of food donors right now. If you are interested in getting involved please contact Mary Nichols marynichols@hotmail.com or 206-420-8788. To learn more about Operation Nightwatch, go to www.seattlenightwatch.org.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND/OR BECOMING CATHOLIC? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. We have just started a new inquiry session so it is the perfect time to join us on Wednesday at 7:00 pm in Cathedral Place, second floor. Information, TerryAnn Bowen, 206-382-2018 or tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org.

IS HOSPITALITY YOUR GIFT, SOMETHING YOU ENJOY? We are looking for a “few good people” to assist in setting up, greeting participants, and putting things away for our weekly RCIA gathering. The time commitment is once a month from 6:00-9:30 PM. It is a great way to meet new people and support an important parish ministry. Information, TerryAnn Bowen, 206-382-2018, tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org

PRAYERS TO OUR LADY OF LOURDES The Order of Malta, a group dedicated to care for the sick, is making a pilgrimage to Lourdes this spring and would like to take the prayers of the Cathedral community along with them. Please stop by the Mary shrine today to write your intention on a prayer card and drop it in the box provided. Our intentions will be bundled and carried with them to France. Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us, and for all the sick!

Cathedral Blood Drive

Tuesday, April 16, 2013
Pastoral Outreach Center
12:30pm to 6:30pm (closed 3:00pm-3:45pm)

A Unique Gift

What could be a more personal, caring and meaningful gift than the gift of blood to someone in need in our community? The urgent and ongoing need for blood donors invites us to give of ourselves in a way that is essential to life itself. This year's Blood Drive is in memory of Frank Robl, a founding member of the Health and Healing Ministry. Frank died January 20, 2013 after a long battle with cancer.

Who needs blood?

It is very likely that someone you know at St. James has had a need for blood. People who need blood include those who have been in accidents or require surgery or chemotherapy. In our community, that blood would have come from donors to the Puget Sound Blood Center. To meet the needs in our community, over 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

St. James & the Puget Sound Blood Center

St. James has been sponsoring Spring and Fall blood drives since 2006. The Puget Sound Blood Center is enthusiastic about our partnership in this effort, especially about the number of new donors at our blood drives. We ask those who have not yet donated to consider donating for the first time. We ask those who have generously donated in the past to please consider doing so again.

Sign up at coffee hours on 4/7 and 4/14.

Or e-mail jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org to sign up or to find out more. Or call 206-274-3173.

Reflecting on the Earth as a Sacred Community

A Workshop on the Integrity of Creation

Saturday, May 11, 2013 | 9:00am-5:00pm | Isaac Orr Center, 910 Marion St.

Most people recognize that caring for the Earth is of vital importance for our survival. Pope Benedict XVI has spoken about the environmental crisis with increasing urgency: “if you want peace, protect creation.” (World Day of Peace Message, 2010). Justice, peace and the integrity of creation are at the core of our Catholic faith.

This workshop will examine the shift that is taking place in our understanding of the world, the opportunities it presents to the human community, and the implications it has for people of faith.

Workshop attendees will

- Become more aware of the ecological crisis facing the human family.
- Learn about the extraordinary shift taking place regarding our understanding of God’s creation and our place as humans within it.
- Understand the religious values and vision we need for the healing of our world.
- Explore practical ways of making personal and corporate responses that can make a difference.

Presenter: Fr. Joe Mitchell, CP, Executive Director of the Earth and Spirit Center in Louisville, Kentucky. Joe Mitchell is a Catholic priest and member of the Passionist religious community. He studied theology at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago and earned a graduate degree in Philosophy, Cosmology and Consciousness from the California Institute of Integral Studies. His ministry includes presenting retreats in Christian spirituality, meditation courses, religious environmental programs, as well as workshops in the new cosmology and Great Work.

Registration required! Cost is $20, includes lunch, some scholarships available.
