ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

September 22, 2013

Dear Friends,

The recent change in weather has left us in no doubt that fall has arrived. But what a summer it was! I hope you had an opportunity to enjoy the incredible weather and to 'kick back' a little.

Speaking of change, I need to let you know of a change in our pastoral team. TerryAnn Bowen, our Director of Faith Formation and RCIA, will be leaving us at the end of this month.

I know you will want to join me in wishing Godspeed to TerryAnn. She has decided to leave her position here in order to pursue her doctoral degree as well as other ministerial opportunities. TerryAnn joined our staff in 2006 as director of our Welcome Back and adult Confirmation programs, and since 2011, she has ministered faithfully and lovingly as director of the RCIA and other adult educational programs. Those of you who have had the privilege of getting to know TerryAnn are aware of what a beautifully caring person she is. She has touched many lives by her ability to listen, to affirm, to teach, and to inspire. As she takes her leave from our staff (not our parish!), I know you will want to join me in wishing her well and keeping her in your prayers.

During the period between now and when a new RCIA director has been identified, I am grateful to Patty Bowman, our director of social outreach, for stepping into RCIA as interim director. She will be assisted by Corinna Laughlin, director of liturgy, and by our very gifted RCIA team.

Symbols that Surround Us

THE ART OF SACRED SYMBOLS A WORKSHOP WITH DR. JOHAN VAN PARYS

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 2013 | 7:00PM | HOLY NAMES ROOM, PASTORAL OUTREACH CENTER

We are surrounded by Christian symbols. We place them in our towns, our churches, our homes, and even hang them around our necks. These symbols speak of our faith and they are constant reminders of the hope that results from our belief in the Resurrection. Many people have lost the art of interpreting these symbols and thus have lost access to these daily reminders of our Christian faith, hope and love. In this workshop we will look at the origin of some of the most important Christian symbols, and the role they have played in our history. And we will discuss ways in which to return these symbols to their due place of importance in our lives. Do Christian symbols, imagery, and ritual gestures from the time of Jesus still have meaning to us today? What do the symbols mean? Why are they so important to the Church? And how can you use them to help you grow in faith?

JOHAN M. J. VAN PARYS, PH.D., a native of Belgium is director of liturgy and the sacred arts at the Basilica of Saint Mary in Minneapolis. He is the curator of the Basilica's Pope John XXIII art gallery and directs the archival efforts of the Basilica of Saint Mary. In addition, Johan teaches Pastoral Liturgy in the School of Theology of St. John's University, Collegeville, MN and he is the founding art director of www.EnVisionChurch.org, an on-line resource in liturgical art, architecture and spirituality. Johan has served as liturgical consultant to numerous dioceses and parishes, both in the USA and abroad. His publications include many articles ranging from art history to liturgical theology. His book, Symbols that Surround Us was published by Liguori Publications in 2012. He has lectured throughout the country on liturgy and art.

Cathedral Blood Drive

Tuesday, October 1, 2013
Pastoral Outreach Center

12:30pm to 6:30pm (closed 3:00pm-3:45pm)

A Unique Gift

What could be a more personal, caring and meaningful gift than the gift of blood to someone in need in our community? The urgent and ongoing need for blood donors invites us to give of ourselves in a way that is essential to life itself. This year's Blood Drive is in memory of Frank Robl, a founding member of the Health and Healing Ministry. Frank died January 20, 2013 after a long battle with cancer.

Who needs blood?

It is very likely that someone you know at St. James has had a need for blood. People who need blood include those who have been in accidents or require surgery or chemotherapy. In our community, that blood would have come from donors to the Puget Sound Blood Center. To meet the needs in our community, over 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

St. James & the Puget Sound Blood Center

St. James has been sponsoring Spring and Fall blood drives since 2006. The Puget Sound Blood Center is enthusiastic about our partnership in this effort, especially about the number of new donors at our blood drives. We ask those who have not yet donated to consider donating for the first time. We ask those who have generously donated in the past to please consider doing so again.

Sign up at coffee hours on 9/15, 9/22, 9/29.

Or e-mail jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org to sign up or to find out more. Or call 206-274-3173.
