The Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

September 29, 2013

Dear Friends,

Summer is officially over. Happily, I can say that Mass attendance was surprisingly good through the summer months, although honesty compels me to acknowledge that visitors filled in a good number of the empty seats! Now, with visitor season over, it's going to be up to our regulars to do that. And if you're a 'regular' who has been a little less than regular through the summer months, it's good to have you back at St. James.

I suppose I shouldn't say too much about such things because I left for vacation this past week. Summer vacations don't work so well for me because of weddings (and, this year, an exceptionally large number of funerals), so fall is my time. Among other things, I'm planning to spend more than a week on pilgrimage in the Holy Land with my sister and brother-in-law. You can be sure I will be remembering you in prayer in those holy places.

If you've been following the bulletin the last couple of weekends, you are aware that things are 'full steam ahead' at St. James, with a number of our wonderful ministries cranking up as well as some exciting new educational events and programs. Please keep an eye on the bulletin and on our great website. And, speaking of the bulletin, I encourage you to take your bulletin home when you leave Mass each weekend. There are more than enough bulletins to go around and the reason we have so many printed is because we hope that you will keep up on what's happening at the Cathedral by referring to the bulletin during the week.

I hope you will take advantage of some of the wonderful offerings we have in store in the months ahead. See you in a couple of weeks!

Father Michael G. Ryan

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,

begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism
for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Symbols that Surround Us

THE ART OF SACRED SYMBOLS A WORKSHOP WITH DR. JOHAN VAN PARYS

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 2013 | 7:00PM | HOLY NAMES ROOM, PASTORAL OUTREACH CENTER

We are surrounded by Christian symbols. We place them in our towns, our churches, our homes, and even hang them around our necks. These symbols speak of our faith and they are constant reminders of the hope that results from our belief in the Resurrection. Many people have lost the art of interpreting these symbols and thus have lost access to these daily reminders of our Christian faith, hope and love. In this workshop we will look at the origin of some of the most important Christian symbols, and the role they have played in our history. And we will discuss ways in which to return these symbols to their due place of importance in our lives. Do Christian symbols, imagery, and ritual gestures from the time of Jesus still have meaning to us today? What do the symbols mean? Why are they so important to the Church? And how can you use them to help you grow in faith?

JOHAN M. J. VAN PARYS, PH.D., a native of Belgium is director of liturgy and the sacred arts at the Basilica of Saint Mary in Minneapolis. He is the curator of the Basilica's Pope John XXIII art gallery and directs the archival efforts of the Basilica of Saint Mary. In addition, Johan teaches Pastoral Liturgy in the School of Theology of St. John's University, Collegeville, MN and he is the founding art director of www.EnVisionChurch.org, an on-line resource in liturgical art, architecture and spirituality. Johan has served as liturgical consultant to numerous dioceses and parishes, both in the USA and abroad. His publications include many articles ranging from art history to liturgical theology. His book, Symbols that Surround Us was published by Liguori Publications in 2012. He has lectured throughout the country on liturgy and art.

Cathedral Blood Drive

Tuesday, October 1, 2013
Pastoral Outreach Center

12:30pm to 6:30pm (closed 3:00pm-3:45pm)

A Unique Gift

What could be a more personal, caring and meaningful gift than the gift of blood to someone in need in our community? The urgent and ongoing need for blood donors invites us to give of ourselves in a way that is essential to life itself. This year's Blood Drive is in memory of Frank Robl, a founding member of the Health and Healing Ministry. Frank died January 20, 2013 after a long battle with cancer.

Who needs blood?

It is very likely that someone you know at St. James has had a need for blood. People who need blood include those who have been in accidents or require surgery or chemotherapy. In our community, that blood would have come from donors to the Puget Sound Blood Center. To meet the needs in our community, over 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

St. James & the Puget Sound Blood Center

St. James has been sponsoring Spring and Fall blood drives since 2006. The Puget Sound Blood Center is enthusiastic about our partnership in this effort, especially about the number of new donors at our blood drives. We ask those who have not yet donated to consider donating for the first time. We ask those who have generously donated in the past to please consider doing so again.

Sign up at coffee hours on 9/15, 9/22, 9/29.

Or e-mail jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org to sign up or to find out more. Or call 206-274-3173.
