ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL
Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

October 6, 2013

Dear Friends,

Pope Francis continues to capture the world's attention as he goes about his ministry with humility, courage, simple brilliance, and the down-to-earth approachability of a country pastor.

His most recent interview with the editors of Jesuit publications has made the front pages of newspapers around the world and set the blogosphere buzzing. With good reason. For me it represents the freshest breeze to flow through the Church since the days of Blessed Pope John XXIII and the Second Vatican Council.

In case you have not had a chance to read the entire interview, visit <http://www.americamagazine.org/pope-interview>. It's not a quick read, but it's definitely a worthwhile one. (You don't need the commentators to interpret if for you — read it for yourself!)

I find the interview quite extraordinary and utterly unique in the annals of papal discourse. It is candid, direct, and beautifully pastoral in tone. It is full of fresh air and fresh thinking and it definitely takes one 'outside the box.' After reading it, I found myself thinking of the line from an African-American Spiritual, "I never heard a man speak like this man before!"

One of the gratifying things about the interview (and all the things that prepared the way for it since Francis was elected back in March) is that wherever I go, people are talking about Pope Francis! And I'm not just talking about Catholics. Far from it. The world is talking about Pope Francis.

I suspect this is your experience, too. One person put it very succinctly for me. "I feel proud to be Catholic," she said.

I am hoping that Cathedral parishioners who have been 'on the fence' for some time when it comes to actively engaging with the parish, as well as people who have felt that there was no place for them in the Church, or who have been turned off by what they have experienced as harsh or insensitive treatment, might be encouraged by Pope Francis to take another look.

St. James Cathedral has long been a welcoming community, and in the spirit of Pope Francis, our wonderful pastoral team joins me in recommitting ourselves to being just that. May the Holy Spirit, so visibly at work in our Church today, inspire each one of us to live our Christian faith with the joy and enthusiasm that radiates from Pope Francis.

BLESSING OF CHILDREN (Noon)

All children, together with their families, are invited to gather around the altar platform for a blessing.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism
for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are from the Saturday wedding of Noelle Corbin and Stephen Carver.

CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO Please come by after the 10:00 and Noon Masses. All proceeds for the month of October benefit the Winter Shelter.

BECOMING CATHOLIC Are you, a family member, or a friend interested in learning more about the Catholic Church? A new inquiry session—a chance to ask questions about the Church with no strings attached—gets underway this month. For more information, please contact Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515, or e-mail RCIA@stjames-cathedral.org. Please feel free to take one of the cards in the pews and chairs in front of you and share it with a friend or family member!

THIS YEAR'S LAST SENIOR TRIP will be Wednesday, October 9. Join us as we visit the Museum of Flight, one of the largest air and space museums in the world. The Museum's collection includes more than 150 historically significant airplanes – including Air Force One and the Concorde – as well as spacecraft, and the Red Barn® — the original manufacturing facility of The Boeing Co. Space is limited and priority will be given to registered parishioners! Information, or to reserve your place, John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, at 206-274-3173 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

THANK YOU PAGLIACCI PIZZA for preparing, serving and cleaning up at the Cathedral Kitchen Thursday September 19. We served 163 guests and everyone enjoyed your pizza, salad, fruit and Macrina Bakery cookies.

ORGANIST JEAN-BAPTISTE ROBIN, organist at the Royal Chapel of Versailles Palace, and Professor of Organ at Versailles National Conservatory, will present a recital on St. James' two pipe organs, Friday, October 11, 8:00 pm. Robin is one of France's up and coming organ virtuosos, and you will not want to miss his spectacular all-French program performed in our splendid acoustics. Suggested donation $15, students and seniors pay as able. Information, 206-382-4874.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Francis of Assisi in Friday Harbor and Seahurst and Holy Rosary in Seattle, Tacoma, and Edmonds; we also pray for the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary.

2ND ANNUAL L'ARCHE CHARITY AUCTION on October 19, 6:30pm-9:30pm at Seattle University. L'Arche Noah Sealth is a dynamic community in which people with developmental disabilities (Core Members), and Assistants (volunteers and employees) choose to live and work together. We have three homes and an activity center. Proceeds of the auction go towards the many demands to maintaining a thriving community. For more information about L'Arche Noah Sealth and the International L'Arche organization, please go to our website www.larcheseattle.org. Tickets for the auction are $40 which includes hors d'oeuvres, desserts, beverages and parking and may be purchased on the website or by calling 206-325-9434.

THE SPIRITUAL EXERCISES IN EVERYDAY LIFE is pleased to offer an evening with Father Greg Boyle, SJ: "Barking to the Choir: Now Entering the Kinship of God" on Friday, October 25, at 7:30pm, St. Joseph Church, 732 18th Ave. E. Seattle. Father Greg is an internationally acclaimed speaker and founder of Homeboy Industries, which helps former gang members redirect their lives and become contributing members of their families and the community. Tickets are $25; proceeds support the continuing ministry of SEEL. Information, www.seelpugetsound.org or 206-721-3518.

Cathedral Kitchen Garden

*providing produce for the Cathedral Kitchen & opportunities to connect with the earth
& each other*

From weeds to vegetables! The vacant lot at the corner of Terry Avenue and Cherry Street is becoming a garden.

We are adding layers and layers of organic material that will compost over the Winter so that in the Spring there will be a new, deep, weed-free layer of soil to plant in – the “lasagna” method. All in all we will be adding 300 cubic yards of donated material. (Special thanks to Cedar Grove, the Woodland Park Zoo, Starbucks, Seattle University, and the City of Seattle.)

You are invited to participate!

Work party, Saturday October 12, 10am-2pm

- ✓ Twenty people needed to spread soil, “Zoo Doo,” leaves, burlap bags and other amendments

Other ways to participate

- ✓ Haul materials in your pick-up truck, various dates and times
- ✓ Loan your wheel barrow, shovel and/or broom for the work parties
- ✓ Planning meetings in the Winter and work parties in the Spring, dates and times to be determined

Sunday Parking at St. James Cathedral

We all know parking is at a premium in downtown Seattle. However, we have made every effort to provide convenient free parking during each of our weekend Masses.

In addition to the O'Dea High School parking lot, we have 50 parking spaces in two different lots which you may not be aware of. 28 spaces are available in the Chancery Place garage directly south of the Cathedral, across Marion Street (Number 1 on the map below). An additional 22 Spaces (nos. 1-22) are available in the lot at the southeast corner of Cherry and Terry (number 2 on the map).

The Cabrini Garage, which already provides free parking on Sunday mornings, is also open on Saturday and Sunday evenings to accommodate those attending the 5:30 masses. We have arranged for police officers to direct traffic in and out of Cabrini Garage at the 10:00am and Noon Masses.

We apologize for any difficulties hunting for parking may cause. These are some of the challenges of carrying out the work of the Gospel in the heart of the City!
