WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered in loving memory of Lourdes Dimalanta, on the second anniversary of her death, from her family and friends.

THE CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO CART is open! Please come by after the 10:00 and Noon Masses. All proceeds for the month of February benefit the Cathedral Music Program.

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN NAVIGATING THE MENTAL HEALTH SYSTEM Julianne Kocer, an attorney serving clients in the greater Seattle area, has graciously agreed to visit our Mental Health Open House in the Gallagher Center on Sunday, February 23, 11am–12 Noon, for a presentation and discussion. Information, Nancy Granger, 206-382-4269, ngranger@stjames-cathedral.org.

GREAT MUSIC FOR GREAT CATHEDRALS returns on February 28 and March 1, 8:00 pm. Nine Cathedral choirs, and 16-member Cathedral brass, along with seven pipe organs, six synthesizers, and one grand piano! Movement, poetry, stunning artistic creations, and evocative lighting of St. James' grand interior by lighting designer Linet Henry, combine to highlight and bring to life Cathedral music from the 12th to the 21st centuries. Suggested donation $30, students and seniors pay as able. Get your Reserved Passes now by calling 206-382-4874 or use your credit card at www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

GREAT MUSIC "PARISH NIGHT" Cathedral parishioners are invited to a free performance of Great Music for Great Cathedrals, on Thursday, February 27, 2014 at 8:00pm. This is the "dress rehearsal" and gives parishioners the opportunity to see the performance in advance of the general public. If you've never experienced Great Music before, this is the time to do so! It's a unique musical journey of light, movement, sound, and color, taking us to Cathedrals around the world and through the centuries. Don't miss it! No pass or ticket is required for Parish Night.

THE CATHEDRAL KITCHEN thanks Horizon House for their donation of sandwiches and cake on February 19. They helped us to serve more than 150 dinner guests and the meal was enjoyed by all!

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Mary in Aberdeen, Seattle, and Seaview.

Sacred Steps

Sacramental Celebrations at St. James

CONGRATULATIONS AND GOD'S

BLESSINGS to Patricia Kay, Wesley Phillips, Mark Swanson, Jake Voigt and Geoffrey Welsh who made professions of faith as Catholics and received the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Communion last Sunday. Congratulations also to Brent Marrah and Emmanuel Ochsenreiter who were baptized in the Catholic tradition and completed their sacraments of initiation by receiving the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Communion.

NO TAIZE THIS FRIDAY Due to Great Music for Great Cathedrals on Friday, February 28, and the Rite of Election on Friday, March 7, there will be no Taizé Prayer on February 28 or March 7. The service will resume on Friday, March 14 at 6:30pm. We apologize for the inconvenience. Thank you for understanding!

GARDEN UPDATE Spring is coming and plans are underway for planting in our new Cathedral Kitchen Garden! Join us on Sunday, March 2, at the 12:00 Mass for a blessing of the seeds and plant starts we will use in the garden. Also, we are still seeking volunteers to help with planting, weeding, watering, etc. To learn more, or to volunteer, e-mail garden@stjames-cathedral.org.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR THE PANCAKE

BREAKFAST We are looking forward to celebrating St. Patrick's Day with all of you! Please consider helping us as a volunteer at this year's Pancake Breakfast. We have a need for cashiers, greeters, bussers, dishwashers, decorators, food servers, and a clean-up crew. We will be serving after the 10:00am and Noon Masses and have volunteer opportunities starting at 9:00 and running through 2:00pm, all on Sunday, March 16. To volunteer or to learn more, Caitlin Lanigan, 206-382-4235 or clanigan@stjames-cathedral.org.

RETREAT FOR YOUNG ADULTS AT THE PALISADES

Inspired by Pope Francis, this retreat will reveal practical ways to live out our faith with joy in school, at work, at home, and in our communities. This retreat is especially designed for Catholic young adults and professionals. In addition to full-group presentation and prayer times, there will be break-out sessions for adults and young adults. Young adults will have the opportunity to hear the faith stories of a panel of Catholic professionals, including a financial advisor, a lawyer, and a physician. Retreat fee for a private room is $99.50 for young adults (aged 18-30) or $199 per person (aged 30 and up). Price includes lodging, all presentations, and six meals. Scholarships are available. The retreat runs from Friday February 28 at 4:00pm to Sunday March 2, 2014 at 1:00pm at the Palisades Retreat Center in Federal Way. Information, Helen Nguyen, 206-748-7991, helen.nguyen@seattlearch.org.

YOUTH MINISTRY

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH NIGHTS Sunday evenings from 6:30-8:30pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. Youth Nights will help you apply your faith to everyday life. (Grades 9-12)

Exploring Catholic history in the Northwest through treasures from the past

PART 4: CIRCULAR FOR BISHOP BLANCHET'S BEGGING TOUR OF MEXICO

23 FEBRUARY 2014

When Bishop Blanchet and Father Brouillet reached Vancouver, they found safety—but virtually nothing else. Gold was discovered at Sutter's Mill on January 24, 1848, just a few weeks after the Whitman massacre. Upon arriving at his new episcopal seat, Bishop Blanchet did not find a flourishing community but “a diocese consisting of ghost towns,” as historian Wilfrid Schoenberg, SJ, has described it, because so many had left to seek their fortunes in the California Gold Rush!

The Bishop needed money, but the few Catholics in his new diocese had none to spare. The funds Blanchet had expected to receive from the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in Rome were delayed owing to unrest in Europe. Nor could Blanchet appeal to his brother, the Archbishop of Oregon City: Archbishop Blanchet owed the Hudson's Bay Company somewhere in the neighborhood of $50,000!

The brothers put their heads together and decided that if there was money in California, that was where they needed to be, too. They sent Father Brouillet to San Francisco to invite the newly-rich to contribute to the needs of the Church in the Northwest. “Missions are few, struggling, and totally inadequate to the needs of the country,” they wrote in a circular letter that accompanied him. “Thousands of Indians are calling earnestly for instruction and the bread of life, and hardly any one is found in the country to distribute it to them.... In his perplexity, his hope is in you, and he calls on you, confident that you will help him out of this difficulty. He solicits at your hands whatever help your generosity and your zeal for religion may prompt you to afford him.” Father Brouillet was quite popular in San Francisco—in fact, they wanted to keep him!—and he returned in September, 1850, carrying 250 ounces of gold dust, valued at about $4,000.

It was a good start, but they would need much more. Bishop Blanchet himself resolved to go on a begging tour of his own to Mexico, which was a wealthy—and a very Catholic—nation. He set out in March, 1851, on a journey which would take him through the dioceses of Michoacan, Durango, Mexico City, Puebla, Tamara, and Guadalajara, among others.

Blanchet brought with him a circular letter in Spanish. In formal prose the letter outlined the difficulties he faced in his brand-new diocese: no house to live in, just a tumble-down building; no churches to pray in; no schools, no teachers, no priests. “In such straitened circumstances,” he concluded, “the bishop of Nesqually has no other hope but to resort to the generous mercy of the eminently Catholic hearts of Mexico, and, knowing your charity, I take the liberty to plead with confidence that you might deign to help me with whatever alms your virtue inspires.”

The ‘eminently Catholic’ hearts of Mexico responded with extraordinary generosity. Bishop Blanchet collected about $30,000 in money as well as vestments, vessels, paintings and images, including a jeweled miter, the gift of the Archbishop of Mexico City, and three six-foot-high canvases representing the Crucifixion, Our Lady of Guadalupe, and St. Ignatius Loyola. (It is hard to imagine the rough walls of the first St. James Cathedral so richly adorned!)

But one of the most memorable gifts Bishop Blanchet received in Mexico was one he did not ask for.

After leaving Acapulco early in his tour, Bishop Blanchet realized he had left his pectoral cross behind. Efforts to recover it were unavailing and the Bishop was obliged to proceed on his journey.

In his diary, Blanchet describes a brief stay at a Franciscan monastery, almost abandoned by the monks who had “fallen from their first fervor.” To his surprise, he met there a venerable Bishop by the name of Jose Maria de Jesus Belaunzaran y Ureña. Belaunzaran had been appointed Bishop of Monterrey in 1831, and was immediately embroiled in conflict with the local government. Belaunzaran’s staunch defense of the rights of the Church led to his banishment from his own diocese in 1838. Now he lived in retirement in the monastery.

Upon hearing that Bishop Blanchet had lost his pectoral cross, Bishop Belaunzaran immediately took the cross he was wearing and placed it around Blanchet’s neck. He had worn it every day since his own consecration, he told Blanchet, including during all those difficult days in Monterrey. Bishop Blanchet wore it proudly, a reminder of steadfast service of the Church. It was also a reminder of the generosity of the people of Mexico, who helped to build the Church in the Pacific Northwest.

JOY OF THE GOSPEL

THIS LENT, EXPLORE POPE FRANCIS' RADICAL VISION FOR THE CHURCH

“Proclaiming Christ means showing that to believe in and to follow him is not only something right and true, but also something beautiful, capable of filling life with new splendor and profound joy, even in the midst of difficulties.”

Pope Francis, The Joy of the Gospel

Pope Francis: A Revolution in Symbol and Substance

Father Ryan, presenter

Father Ryan helps us to look back at Pope Francis' first year as Pope. We'll explore some of the key moments in his papacy, and talk about how he is pointing the Church in a new direction. All are welcome.

March—April, 2014

Small study groups during Lent

Join a study group that fits with your schedule this Lent. Each week, explore texts from Pope Francis' Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, and discuss how his vision can challenge and inform us as we live our Christian faith in our parish and in our world. Groups will meet at different times throughout the week for five 1 1/2 hour sessions. Visit the Cathedral website to sign up for a session that works for you.

Saturday, April 12, 2014, 9:00am CLOSING RETREAT

“Saying our own ‘yes’ to the urgent call... of the Gospel”

This will be an opportunity for all who have participated in this Lenten series to gather for prayer and reflection before Easter.

Parish-wide Volunteer Opportunities

Great Music for Great Cathedrals (February 28 & March 1)

January and February, 2014

Thanks to the many generous parishioners who have stepped forward to volunteer for Great Music!

But...

WE STILL NEED MORE STAGE CREW, OFFICE VOLUNTEERS AND USHERS!

For over two Great decades, Great Music has provided a Great way to get to know other Great parishioners! Volunteer an hour, a morning, a day, a week or a whole bunch of time. Great Music couldn't happen if it wasn't for hundreds of Great volunteers who generously give their time. Every year we look forward to new Great volunteers joining our ranks, learning, having fun, and enjoying the fellowship of a dedicated group of parishioners and community folk. Great Music requires that we have a lot of Great volunteers doing a lot of different things.

STAGE CREW - Must be able to attend all rehearsals and performances - Tuesday, February 25 through Saturday, March 1, after work until 10:30 pm. Stage Crew members get to be part of the show, by moving sets and props around in between and during the performances. This is a job for adults and older teens, and requires light to moderate lifting. We need four to five more folks to help us fill this crew. Dinner provided each night!

Also STAGE CREW SUPPORT - Similar to above, but for folks who are unable to commit to all performances and rehearsals. Dinner provided, as well!

OFFICE - Beginning February 1, we need volunteers in the Music Office, weekdays 10-4. Give information over the phone, take messages, and help us sell Reserved Passes for the concert. We need help during the entire week of February 3-7, and February 13 & 25 from 1-4, and February 17 from 10-1.

USHERING - Be the face of hospitality as people arrive and are seated for the concerts. You will also assist in selling passes at the door, and directing people within and around the Cathedral building. We could use 3-4 more ushers for both Friday (February 28) and Saturday (March 1).

*For more information call the Music Office at 206-382-4874

Cathedral Blood Drive

Tuesday, March 4, 2014
Pastoral Outreach Center

12:30pm to 6:30pm (closed 2:30pm-3:15pm)

A Unique Gift

What could be a more personal, caring and meaningful gift than the gift of blood to someone in our community who has the need? The urgent and ongoing need for blood donors invites us to consider yet another aspect of stewardship, that is, the gift of ourselves in a way that is fundamental and essential to life itself.

Who needs blood?

It is very likely that someone you know at St. James has had a need for blood. People who need blood include those who have been in accidents or require surgery or chemotherapy. In our community, that blood would have come from donors to the Puget Sound Blood Center, including St. James blood drive donors. To meet the needs in our community, over 900 people must donate blood through the Puget Sound Blood Center every weekday.

St. James & the Puget Sound Blood Center

St. James has been sponsoring Lenten and Fall blood drives since 2006. The Puget Sound Blood Center is always enthusiastic about our partnership in this effort, but most especially about the number of new donors at our blood drives. We ask those who have not yet donated to consider donating for the first time. We ask those who have generously donated in the past to please consider doing so again.

Sign up at coffee hours on 2/16, 2/23 or 3/2.

Journey of Faith

An Illustrated History of the Church in Western Washington

It's a story of saints and sinners; of Natives and newcomers, of missionaries, teachers, and builders, working together to build the church of Western Washington.... It's a story of spirit and sacrifice for the glory of God.

Journey of Faith is an extraordinary new telling of a remarkable story: our story! With richly-colored illustrations and meticulously researched text, this new history of the Archdiocese of Seattle brings our inspiring Catholic story to life, from the days when thousands of Native peoples called this land holy ground, to the first explorers and missionaries, to the building of our churches and schools, to the present day. The "graphic novel" format will have a special appeal for young people, but the book will also be ideal for...

- Students studying Church history or Washington State history
- First Communion or Confirmation gifts
- Anyone who wants an introduction to the extraordinary history of the Church in the Pacific Northwest

The book includes an appendix, with background information, historic photos, and suggestions for further research and exploration of the people and periods touched on in the book.

Journey of Faith was produced by the Office of Catholic Faith Formation of the Archdiocese of Seattle, working in conjunction with writers Corinna & Maria Laughlin, and publisher Editions du Signe, based in Strasbourg, France.

AVAILABLE IN THE CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE!

- PAPERBACK $10
- HARDCOVER $15

Insights from the letters of Washington's first Catholic bishop:

- Collaboration and friendship among Native Americans, peoples of mixed heritage, settlers, and clergy
- Autonomy and ecumenical outreach of pioneer nuns, the Sisters of Providence (including Mother Joseph)
- Ordinary life of practicing Catholics
- Catholic contributions to building Washington State
- Weathering prejudice, near financial disaster and political turmoil

PATRICIA O'CONNELL KILLEN is professor of religious studies and academic vice president at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington. Her research focuses on Christianity in North America, especially Catholicism and religion and spirituality in western North America.

ROBERTA STRINGHAM BROWN is Professor of French at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Washington, where she has chaired the Honors Program and the Department of Languages and Literatures. Her scholarship and publications focus on the history of French-speaking North America, including francophone inhabitants of the 19th-century Pacific Northwest.
