WELCOMING OF THE CHILDREN TO BE BAPTIZED (Noon)

PENITENTIAL ACT No. 233 in Worship hymnal

Litany of Saints

GLORIA (Sunday Evening - No. 341 in Worship hymnal)

LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored.

DISMISSAL OF THE CATECHUMENS AND CANDIDATES (10:00am)

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy,
catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE RITE OF BAPTISM (Noon)

INTERCESSIONS AND LITANY OF SAINTS Lord, we ask you, hear our prayer.

It was not you who chose me

It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you.
This I command you: love one another. John 15:16-17

Proulx

1. 2. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world: have mer-cy on us. 3. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

COMMUNION

Unto you, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; O my God, I trust chant in you, let me not be put to shame; do not allow my enemies to laugh at me;
for none of those who are awaiting you will be disappointed.

(10:00 & Noon)

Psalm 25: Ad te Domine

Scarlatti

To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
Do not let me be disappointed;
do not let my enemies triumph.
Those who hope in you will not be disappointed.

Upon returning to your place after Holy Communion, please kneel or be seated.
Low-gluten hosts are distributed at the credence table near the presider's chair.

HYMN OF PRAISE

Word of God come down on earth

LIEBSTER JESU

1. Word of God, come down on earth, Liv-ing rain from heav'n de-scend-ing;
2. Word e-ter-nal, throned on high, Word that brought to life cre-a-tion.
3. Word that caused blind eyes to see, Speak and heal our mor-tal blind-ness;
4. Word that speaks God's ten-der love, One with God be-yond all tell-ing, Touch our hearts and bring to birth Faith and hope and love un-end-ing.
Word that came from heav'n to die, Cru-ci-fied for our sal-va-tion, Deaf we are: our heal-er be; Loose our tongues to tell your kind-ness.
Word that sends us from a-bove, God the Spir-it, with us dwell-ing, Word al-might-y, we re-ver-e you; Word made flesh, we long to hear you.
Sav-ing Word, the world re-stor-ing, Speak to us, your love out-pour-ing.
Be our Word in pit-y spok-en, Heal the world, by our sin bro-ken.
Word of truth, to all truth lead us, Word of life, with one Bread feed us.

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James Cathedral is proud to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today. Last Sunday, we had visitors from Fountain Valley, CA; Abingdon, VA; and San Juan Capistrano, CA. The winner of our drawing was from Edmond, OK.

COVER ART Icon of Christ Pantocrator. Joan Brand-Landkamer, Cathedral Iconographer.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered in loving memory of Linda and Kirsten Reichert, from Chuck Reichert. If you would like to donate flowers this summer, contact Jane Mueller, 206-654-4650 or e-mail jmueller@stjames-cathedral.org.

CAMINO SEATTLE WALK TODAY: HISTORIC FIRST HILL Meet at 11:15am on the front steps of the Cathedral, in front of the Ceremonial Doors. This short (about 2 mile) walk in our First Hill neighborhood will highlight some of the city's oldest civic buildings, hospitals, and schools. Find out why First Hill has been called "Profanity Hill" and "Pill Hill!"

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL A huge thank you to the 851 Cathedral households have donated an extraordinary $529,259 to the Annual Catholic Appeal. Thanks to several new gifts this past week, we are now just $27,399 short of our combined parish and Archdiocesan goal of $556,658. If you have not yet made your donation, please consider doing so! www.seattlearchdiocese.org/aca. Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or mlaughter@stjames-cathedral.org.

THE CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE is open following each Mass. Visitors and regulars alike are invited to stop in to browse a wide selection of reading material for both children and adults, as well as Cathedral music CDs, Cathedral postcards, magnets, and mugs, medals and crosses, and much more. There is also a Camino Seattle corner where you collect your stamps each week.

COFFEE HOUR SERVERS NEEDED Help build community! Coffee Hour Ministry is currently looking for people to help serve and clean, especially after the 10:00am Mass. Information, Tom Frasene, tfrasene@stjames-cathedral.org, 206-382-4235.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parish of St. Benedict in Seattle, St. Mary Magdalene in Everett, and the Carmelite Nuns of St. Joseph Carmelite Monastery in Shoreline.

Holy Things, Holy People

Exploring Catholic history in the Northwest through treasures from the past

PART 27: SCRAPBOOK FROM THE CATHOLIC SEAMEN'S CLUB

12 JULY 2015

How Do Seamen Keep Faith in Vast Watery Desert Devoid of Sacraments? asked a headline in the Catholic Northwest Progress in 1960. The answer: the Apostleship of the Sea, which extends the ministry of the Church to the oceans.

The ministry began in Glasgow, Scotland in 1922. The Apostleship provided hostels where sailors could stay safe during their time in port. Soon the model was taken up by other cities. In 1939, Bishop Gerald Shaughnessy appointed Father H. A. Reinhold as Port Chaplain. The first Seamen's Club opened on Third Avenue the following year. It moved to its more permanent location at 2330 1st Avenue in 1956.

The Catholic Seamen's Club was a unique ministry for the seafarers and fishermen from all over the world who would dock in Seattle, sometimes for a day, sometimes for many days. The Club was not only for active sailors, but also for unemployed sailors, waiting for the call to their next assignment, as well as retired seafarers who needed a place to spend their days.

The purpose of the Club was to provide a home away from home, a place where mariners could pray, find community, stay safe and connect with their families. In the early days, the Club provided stationery and postage so seafarers could write home to their families; in later days, this part of the ministry took the form of telephones and, still later, phone cards! There were also games of all kinds, especially bingo. There was a jukebox, and, in more recent decades, video games. In the 1950s, the Club invited the whole Seattle community to their annual Christmas play and to a program of "Holy Week Meditations," tableaux of the life of Christ with sailors playing all the parts. One year, the Club's Christmas pageant featured seafarers from five different nations!

A principal part of the duty of priests who served as port chaplains took place not at the Club itself, but on board ships that docked in Seattle's harbor, where they sought out sailors in need of pastoral care. The Chaplains were quick to respond in times of need, praying alongside family members and shipmates of those lost at sea. In January, 1952, Father J. J. Murphy, OMI, Port Chaplain for nearly twenty years, participated in a memorial for 46 officers and crew members of the Pennsylvania, which sank off the Pacific Coast. A Lutheran pastor and a rabbi also participated in this early interfaith service.

The Club's chaplains also served as much-needed advocates for seafarers in trouble. In the 1970s, a Liberian ship called Five Bays was held up in Seattle for several weeks when seventeen of its crew—all Filipino—went on strike, protesting the dirty and dangerous conditions on board: limited food, no hot water, and 2-3 inches of oily water in the crew cabins—not to mention rust, rats, and cockroaches. Father Ciaran Dillon, OMI was one of the few allowed to board the "hell ship," as it was called. He offered Mass for the crew, and advocated with the captain on behalf of the striking sailors, ensuring that they would not suffer retaliation for their actions. Through the help of Father Dillon and other advocates, the strikers were released from the Five Bays and flown home to the Philippines.

The Seamen's Club also celebrated the good news of life at sea. In December, 1950, the cargo ship Meredith Victory docked in Hungnam Harbor, where some 100,000 refugees of the Korean War had gathered, desperate to escape. Knowing his ship might be their only hope, Captain Leonard LaRue took as many of the refugees on board as he could—14,000 of them! They filled the hold and the deck. Space was so tight that all had to remain standing during the five-day voyage. There was almost no food and no water, but the ship arrived at Geoje Island without any injury or loss of life. In fact, several lives were added—five babies were born during the brief voyage! Captain LaRue visited Seattle in 1952, when the Meredith Victory was retired in Bremerton. He visited the Seamen's Club and received a cross from Archbishop Connolly for his heroic action. LaRue later entered a Benedictine monastery in his native Pennsylvania, where he took the very fitting name Brother Marinus. He said, "I think often of that voyage. I think of how such a small vessel was able to hold so many persons and surmount endless perils without harm to a soul.... God's own hand was at the helm of my ship."

The life of seafarers has changed dramatically since the Apostleship of the Sea was established in 1922. Seafarers are no longer in port for days at a time—more often, they have just a few hours. Instead of providing a hostel like the Seamen's Club, the ministry today is proactive, going on board ships to minister to the needs of the sailors. Responding to the signs of the times, the Catholic Seamen's Club closed its Belltown location earlier this year. But the ministry of the Port Chaplain, Father Tony Haycock, will continue out of new quarters on the waterfront.

Corinna Laughlin, Pastoral Assistant for Liturgy

Today, July 12, is Sea Sunday. "Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on all seafarers: Our Lady, Star of the Sea, St. Peter, St. Andrew, pray for us. Lord, save us or we perish." (Official Prayer of the Apostleship of the Sea)

Walking the Camino

Images and Stories from the Way of St. James

Thursday, July 23, 2015 | 7:00pm

Holy Names Room, Pastoral Outreach Center

What is it like to make a 500-mile pilgrimage across northern Spain? Why does this rediscovered medieval path draw over 150,000 pilgrims every year? Writer, photographer and Episcopal priest Jim Friedrich will share his stunning photographs and a wealth of pilgrim lore from his own Camino in the spring of 2014. Whether you are thinking about making your own Camino, or simply want to know what the pilgrimage experience is all about, you will find much to savor in this engaging and inspirational evening.

The Rev. Jim Friedrich specializes in “mediating the sacred through image, ritual and story,” using film and photography, liturgical arts, storytelling, music and teaching. He blogs as The Religious Imagineer at <http://jimfriedrich.com>.

Pope Francis on Housing

Pope Francis wrote the first papal encyclical focused solely on the environment, dealing with the spiritual and moral concerns of the environment, and not only as a matter of science, politics, and economics. Here is an excerpt from “Laudato Si: On Care for Our Common Home” concerning housing and the environment

Lack of housing is a grave problem in many parts of the world, both in rural areas and in large cities, since state budgets usually cover only a small portion of the demand. Not only the poor, but many other members of society as well, find it difficult to own a home. Having a home has much to do with a sense of personal dignity and the growth of families. This is a major issue for human ecology. ... [C]reativity should be shown in integrating rundown neighborhoods into a welcoming city: “How beautiful those cities which overcome paralyzing mistrust, integrate those who are different and make this very integration a new factor of development! How attractive are those cities which, even in their architectural design, are full of spaces which connect, relate and favor the recognition of others!”

Welcome Back

Faith is not a light which scatters all our darkness, but a lamp which guides our steps in the night and suffices for the journey.

Pope Francis

Have you drifted away from your Catholic faith? Are you disillusioned by what you hear about your Church? Do you desire a life filled with faith?

St. James Cathedral offers "Welcome Back," a 12-week parish program for Catholics out of touch with a Church that once may have been home. It's a safe place to ask questions, learn about changes in the Church, and begin to experience a small community of faith. If you desire, we'll help you return to the sacraments, and move towards becoming an active part of the faith community.

The fall program begins Monday, September 21, and continues Mondays through early December. Sessions are held 7:00 – 9:00 pm in Cathedral Place, 803 Terry Avenue.

COME AND SEE!

..... a one-hour time set aside for you to come and ask questions about the Cathedral "Welcome Back" program. Rosanne and team will be present to answer questions, listen to your needs, and help in whatever way we can. Sunday, August 16 or Sunday, September 13, following the 10:00am Mass! Meet in Cathedral Place, 803 Terry Ave

For more information, without any obligation, contact Rosanne Michaels at 206.654.4658 or rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org.
