 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
 begotten, not made,
 consubstantial with the Father;

 For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

 was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

Laudato Si

Exploring the Encyclical

Laudato Si: On Care for our Common Home, is an appeal from Pope Francis addressed to “every person living on this planet” for an inclusive dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet. Pope Francis calls the Church and the world to acknowledge the urgency of our environmental challenges and to join him in embarking on a new path. This encyclical is written with both hope and resolve, looking to our common future with candor and humility.

St. James Cathedral offers an opportunity to learn what the encyclical says, to engage with its vision, and to respond to the challenge it presents:

can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join a new 8-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff Nancy Granger, Suzanne Lee, & Rosanne Michaels
