PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy,
catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered in memory of Mairead Corrigan from her loving family.

WANT TO GET MORE INVOLVED AT ST. JAMES? Come visit the Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour! Here, you can register as a parishioner, find out how to volunteer for a ministry, arrange to have a Mass offered, and discover more about this community.

YEAR OF MERCY We welcome all pilgrims to St. James Cathedral during this Year of Mercy. Whether you are a visitor or a regular at St. James, you can walk through the Holy Doors of Mercy, the four bronze doors at the Cathedral's west entrance. The center doors are opened before and after each Mass. A self-guided pilgrimage of prayer, The Way of Mercy, is available as well—pick up a flyer just inside the Holy Doors. Find out more at www.stjames-cathedral.org.

The European refugee crisis, international terrorism, and the role of the Christian church in the Middle East are all intertwined in the history, politics and culture of Syria. Fr. David Nazar, SJ, will speak on the situation in Syria that has given rise to the conflict and the refugee crisis, as well as the response of the church to the crisis. Fr. Nazar has been the Provincial Superior of the Jesuits in Canada and in Ukraine, and is currently the Rector of the Pontifical Oriental Institute in Rome. Monday, January 25, 7:00 pm, Pastoral Outreach Center. Information, Patty Bowman, 206-382-4515, pbowman@stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Paul in Seattle and on the Swinomish Reservation, and the Mission Church of St. Paul in Westport.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU We visited a young couple who recently moved to Seattle. He landed a good job and she enrolled in college. His employer soon downsized and, as "last hired," he was "first fired." Without his income, she could not afford tuition and had to drop out of college. Then their savings ran out. They could not pay rent and faced eviction. With your support, we were able to help pay their rent to keep a roof over their heads until they could both find new jobs – thank you!

THE CATHEDRAL KITCHEN IS ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS for a part-time, one day a week, Greeter position. The job includes greeting meal guests and monitoring the dining hall during our daily serving of meals. The job also requires unloading the glean van, sorting its contents, cleaning and closing up the Kitchen at the end of day. Information, Teddi Callahan, tcallahan@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-264-2091.

Time expectation is once a week - 3-4 hour shift, plus bimonthly check-in gatherings. There is lots of flexibility in regards to specific day/time. If you would like to participate, email Deacon Steve Wodzanowski at St. Joseph Parish, steve@stjosephparish.org.

THE IMPENDING DOME

Or, the Curious Case of the Rear Admiral's Funeral

One of the most notable features of the original design for St. James Cathedral was the graceful dome just over the crossing. The dome rose to a height of 40 feet above the level of the roof; lined with windows, it flooded the center of the building with light. From the outside, the copper-covered dome formed a striking crown to the cathedral which could be seen from all over the city. It was also an architectural marvel, its weight being supported not by heavy piers but exclusively by the exterior walls. As the Progress reported in 1904, "The great dome will be borne by the side walls entirely and when in place it will be a beautiful piece of mechanical construction. This dome, as well as those of the towers, will be constructed of steel, terra cotta, and brick, and covered with copper. They will be practically indestructible."

The Cathedral's dome created a bit of controversy even before it was completed. George Mahoney, a real-estate developer, was against it from the start. He warned Bishop O'Dea that putting a dome on the new cathedral was risky and potentially unsafe. When Bishop O'Dea went ahead with his plans in spite of Mahoney's advice, the latter swore he would never set foot in the new cathedral. And he was true to his word. When his old friend Rear Admiral W. J. Thompson died in August of 1909, Mahoney was one of the pallbearers. However, he refused to go inside and stood on the front steps of the cathedral until the casket emerged again at the end of the funeral Mass.

In the meantime, Bishop O'Dea was dealing with other dome-related problems. The acoustics in the new Cathedral were hopeless. It is said that none but the most stentorian could make themselves heard in the building. By October of 1910 Bishop O'Dea was writing to Mayer and Co., a prominent manufacturer of stained glass, to inquire about the cost of "a window to be placed in the base of the dome of the Cathedral, to cover it at the bottom, to thereby add to the acoustics and enhance its beauty." He suggested that the window might be done in blue, red, and clear glass, with the figures of the twelve apostles in a rosette. The scheme came to naught, however, as LaFarge, the architect, resented the project and refused to meet with the representative from Mayer Studios! So Bishop O'Dea contented himself with purchasing the latest technology, an acoustical "shell" to be mounted above the ambo.

Little did he know that the drama of the dome was far from over....

DOME'S DAY

Marking the Centennial of the Collapse of the Great Dome and the Survival of St. James Cathedral

Tuesday, February 2, 2016 | 7:00pm | St. James Cathedral, Seattle

On February 2, 1916, just nine years after the dedication of St. James Cathedral, the great dome collapsed in a snowstorm. Images of the destruction made the news as far away as Honolulu and Philadelphia!

On the centennial of the disaster, we gather to look back on a never-to-be-forgotten day. With beautiful music, dramatic narrations, and lots of fun, we give thanks for the resilience and vision of the builders of the Cathedral, and for this wonderful building, which one-hundred years later continues to be a house of prayer for all people.

The program will last about an hour, and will be followed by a festive reception. All are welcome!

JOIN THE CELEBRATION

St. James Cathedral | 804 9th Ave | Seattle, WA 98104 | www.stjames-cathedral.org

The great calamity which has visited us in the destruction of the cathedral is a source of intense sorrow to us all, and while we feel greatly afflicted, still we must accept it from the hands of God, who will, in His own good time convert our sorrow into joy.

Bishop Edward J. O'Dea, February, 1916

This Lent, the whole parish is invited to explore together Henri Nouwen's classic Return of the Prodigal Son, a beautiful meditation on Luke's parable and Rembrandt's masterpiece. What better way to answer Pope Francis' call to "rediscover the merciful face of the Father" during this Year of Mercy?

Small groups will gather in homes and at the Cathedral for five weeks during Lent. If you who cannot participate in a small group, you're invited to participate on your own by reading the chapter and reflecting on the study questions provided for each week. This will be a wonderful way to draw together as a parish community for Lent during the Year of Mercy. Copies of Return of the Prodigal Son are available at a special discount in the Cathedral Bookstore. Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or e-mail mلاغlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

Who are the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy?

The Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy was founded in Warsaw, Poland by Mother Teresa Eva Potocka in 1862.

The Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy has become more widely known in recent years because of one of its members: Sister Faustina Kowalska. With Sister Faustina's beatification and mission, the congregation began to establish itself in various countries and continents. While most of the congregation's houses are located in Poland, the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy are now also represented in the United States, Italy, Israel, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Slovakia, and Czech Republic. Currently, there are about 400 professed sisters, 10 novices, and 7 postulants throughout the world.

They actively participate in carrying out Saint Faustina's mission by spreading the devotion to the Divine Mercy, by proclaiming the message of the infinite mercy of God, and by imploring Divine Mercy for the entire world.

Day of Mercy

Celebrating the Sacrament of Mercy in the Year of Mercy

Saturday, March 5, 2016
9:00am—5:00pm

“Let us place the Sacrament of Reconciliation at the center once more in such a way that it will enable people to touch the grandeur of God’s mercy with their own hands. For every penitent, it will be a source of true interior peace.”

Pope Francis, Misericordiae Vultus

During Lent of this YEAR OF MERCY, all are invited to participate in the Day of Mercy at St. James Cathedral. Confessors will be available throughout the day, beginning at 9:00am and concluding at 5:00pm. All are welcome to stop in, to spend time in prayer, and to celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation, where we encounter the mercy of the Father.
