ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

May 22, 2016

Dear Friends,

I want to share some more staffing changes with you as we approach the summer months. Like all announcements of this sort, this is a 'bad news/good news' story.

Joe Cotton, our youth minister for the past three years will be taking a new position at the archdiocese that will involve him in oversight of criminal justice ministry, immigration ministry, and King County juvenile detention ministry. Happily, Joe, in his years with us, has succeeded in building a really strong youth ministry program—the envy of the archdiocese in terms of its involving young people in social justice and social outreach—and this gives me confidence that our youth ministry program will continue to flourish under a new director with the ongoing commitment of the adult leadership team. And even though I hate to see Joe leave us, it's reassuring to know that he is going to continue to serve here on the adult leadership team. As he prepares to take leave of us, I want to take this opportunity to thank Joe for the amazing work he has done in building an outstanding youth ministry program from the ground up. Joe is not only a pied piper, he is a deeply committed minister of the gospel who has inspired our young people by his spark and spirit and made them excited about their faith. I would say that the Archdiocese has shown remarkably good judgment in hiring him!

Tom Frasene, who promised to give us two years of service when he joined the staff two years ago has kept his promise and, in terms of what he has accomplished, more than kept it! Tom has very effectively coordinated a huge army of volunteers in a number of our social outreach ministries. In addition, he has headed up and expanded our parish's wonderful young adult ministry as well as the Sunday hospitality ministry. In each of these areas Tom has made his mark, and for this I want to express my deepest thanks. Tom has been accepted in the School of Social Work at the University of Washington (no small achievement!) and I know you will join me in wishing him well as he takes this next important step in his career. Knowing Tom, that career will always involve serving the poor and advocating on their behalf as he has done so well here at St. James.

Stepping into Joe's and Tom's shoes is our own parishioner, Curtis Leighton, who has been teaching theology at Bishop Blanchet High School this past year. Curtis is a graduate of Bishop Blanchet and a graduate, in 2001, of our own RCIA program. Following high school, Curtis went to the University of Notre Dame. After teaching in California for two years with the Teach for America program, he joined the Society of Jesus. A lover of languages and cultures, Curtis was able to minister in places such as Colombia, China, and Lebanon. After earning a degree in Philosophy at Loyola University Chicago, he returned to Washington where he ministered at Gonzaga University and St. Aloysius parish in Spokane. After a year and a half working there, he decided to leave the Jesuits and return home to Seattle to begin teaching at Blanchet. Knowing Curtis as I do, I am confident that he will bring wonderful leadership to two different Cathedral ministries: the youth ministry and the ministry to young adults. He is excited to be joining us and I know he will inspire excitement among our teenagers and young adults.

Please join me in thanking Joe Cotton and Tom Frasene and in welcoming Curtis Leighton!

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy,
catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you.

COVER ART The Holy Name of God. West nave clerestory window, St. James Cathedral. Charles Connick, artist.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are in honor of Father David Brant from Lisa and Michael Forbes.

JOB OPENING: ASSISTANT SACRISTAN St. James Cathedral has an opening for a part time (30-35 hours/week) Assistant Sacristan. To receive a job description and details, applicants should download the Seattle Archdiocesan job application at: <http://www.seattlearchdiocese.org/Archdiocese/HR/Documents/EmploymentApplication1.pdf> and send it with a resume, via e-mail, to Corinna Laughlin, claughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

YEAR OF MERCY We welcome all pilgrims to St. James Cathedral during this Year of Mercy. Whether you are a visitor or a regular at St. James, you can walk through the Holy Doors of Mercy, the four bronze doors at the Cathedral's west entrance. The center doors are opened before and after each Mass. A self-guided pilgrimage of prayer, The Way of Mercy, is available as well—pick up a flyer just inside the Holy Doors.

CATHEDRAL MOTHERS GROUP Becoming a parent brings big changes to every facet of a woman's life. Our Cathedral Mothers Group, facilitated by child and family counselor, Ansebe Bicof-Smit, MA, LMHCA, meets Mondays, 10:30—Noon in the Mother Cabrini Room of the Pastoral Outreach Center. Bring your young children and check it out. Information, Suzanne Lee, slee@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-654-4640.

IMMIGRATION ADVOCATES GATHERING Join us on Wednesday evening, May 25 to discuss examples of what to say when you encounter anti-immigrant rhetoric. Open to anyone interested in supporting justice for immigrants and refugees at home and abroad. No need to RSVP. Bring a friend or two. We will be meeting in the Pastoral Outreach Center from 6:30—7:30pm (note time change!). Information, Chris Koehler, 206-382-4511 or ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parish of Holy Trinity in Bremerton and St. Madeleine Sophie in Bellevue.

YOUTH MINISTRY

YOUTH NIGHTS Sunday evenings from 6:30–8:30pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. Open to 8th–12th grade students. This week, we will learn about the justice issues involved in migrant farm work. Join with Youth Migrant Project participants as they prepare for their mission trip.

WORLD YOUTH DAY STOCK St. James is sending 10 pilgrims to Poland this summer to worship with Pope Francis and two million Catholic young people. You can become part of this once-in-a-lifetime pilgrimage by purchasing “shares of stock” in the trip. Our goal is to sell 500 shares at $20 each. Checks can be made payable to “St. James Cathedral” and mailed, Attn. Joe Cotton, 804 9th Ave Seattle, WA 98104. Credit donations can be made on the cathedral website. Mention “World Youth Day” in the Special Note field.

QUESTIONS? Joe Cotton, 206-264-2082, jcotton@stjames-cathedral.org

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

For parishioners in their 20s and 30s

TONIGHT! Our young adult small group will meet after the Sunday 5:30pm Mass in the Rectory Parlors, just across the courtyard from the southern entrance of the Cathedral. Join us as we discuss spirituality in our Catholic faith!

DISCERNMENT RETREAT Save the date! On June 3, we'll have our usual first Friday Taizé prayer service followed by a simple supper. After that, Theresa Lukasik from the Ignatian Spirituality Center will lead us in an evening of reflection on discernment in everyday life. We'll conclude late into the evening, around 11:30pm. To register, email Tom.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU A young man called the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449) needing rent help because his wallet had been stolen. When our two Vincentians visited, he seemed very downcast. We gave him a rent voucher. Usually when we help with rent, it lifts spirits. But he still seemed depressed. We asked, “Is there anything else we can help you with?” He said, “Like what?” We said, “Prayer?” He said, “Yes!” The three of us prayed together, and we could see and feel joy return to his life. Thank you for your financial support, which helps make uplifting visits like this possible. Would you like to be a home visitor? Information, Christine Henderson, 253-973-1441, christinehsvdp@gmail.com

POPE FRANCIS' AMORIS LAETITIA NOW AVAILABLE

Pope Francis' recent Apostolic Exhortation on the family is available in the Cathedral Bookstore. Stop by to purchase a copy in order to read and study this important document. “No family drops down from heaven perfectly formed; families need constantly to grow and mature in the ability to love.”

Opportunities to Serve

Do you long to get more involved in the Cathedral parish and find ways to meet fellow parishioners and form community here? The best way to do that is by getting involved in one of our many ministries! Here are some current opportunities.

VAN DRIVERS URGENTLY NEEDED Our Sunday van ministry is an important outreach to senior parishioners who would not be able to get to 10:00am Mass on Sunday if it weren't for our drivers. The commitment is for one Sunday a month and we have several openings. We're also looking for people who might be willing to be trained in order to substitute when needed. Right now we are short a driver on the 1st, 3rd, and 5th Sundays of the month. All training provided; background check required. Information, Maria Laughlin, mLaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4284.

BUILD COMMUNITY AT ST. JAMES AT COFFEE HOUR! Do you have a passion for hospitality? If so, St. James is looking for more Coffee Hour volunteers! We need helping hands to help serve muffins and coffee 9am–10am and 1pm–2:30pm. Information, Tom Frasene, tfrasene@stjames-cathedral.org.

SHARE YOUR LOVE OF GOD AND THE CHURCH WITH THE CHILDREN OF ST JAMES. Children's Faith Formation (Preschool – Grade 8) is in need of catechists (age 21 and older) and catechist assistants (age 14 and older) for the 2016–2017 school year. Training, materials and ongoing support provided. Information, Brenda Bellamy, 206-274-3108, bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org.

SENIOR TEA On Thursday, June 2, at 4:00pm, Father Ryan and the Cathedral staff will host a tea for our senior parishioners. Invitations have gone out to all our parishioners who are in their eighties and nineties. If you would like to come, but did not receive an invitation, you are still most welcome! RSVP to Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or mLaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

CONTEMPLATIVE ECUMENICAL PRAYER WITH MUSIC FROM TAIZÉ Our next ecumenical prayer with music from Taizé will be Friday, June 3 at 6:30pm in the Cathedral. This prayer now takes place on the first Friday of each month, rather than weekly. Please mark your calendar and come share in this beautiful ecumenical evening prayer.

Holy Things, Holy People

Exploring Catholic history in the Northwest through treasures from the past

PART 37: SPIRE OF HOLY ROSARY, TACOMA

22 MAY 2016

On April 29, 1965, a 6.5 magnitude earthquake struck western Washington. South Seattle sustained the worst damage: thousands of chimneys collapsed in West Seattle, and at the Rainier Beer headquarters in Georgetown a large brewing tank came loose from its foundations, spilling two thousand gallons of beer. In Tacoma, the quake toppled the cross atop the spire of Holy Rosary Church, a Tacoma landmark with a long history.

St. Leo the Great, Tacoma's first parish, was the city's only church for many years. Not until 1891, at the request of the German-speaking Catholics of Tacoma, did Bishop Junger establish a second parish in the city, to be staffed by the Benedictines of St. Martin's Abbey in Lacey. The story is told that the people could not agree on which saint to honor in the naming of the new church, and were contemplating calling it "All Saints" when Abbot Bernard of St. Martin's came to visit in June, 1891, just before the new church opened. He was presented with a bouquet of roses, and suggested the name "Our Lady of the Holy Rosary" which was promptly adopted.

Soon the tiny church was bursting at the seams—in 1892, there were 78 baptisms. The new church served more than German-speaking Catholics. On January 4, 1894, Henry Crosby and Catherine Harrigan were married at Holy Rosary—the future parents of Bing Crosby.

In spite of the rapid growth of the "City of Destiny," Holy Rosary parish constantly struggled to keep the church and school going. And yet, they needed to expand. In 1921, under the leadership of Father Mark Wiechmann, OSB, a new church was built to accommodate the growing community. The beautiful Gothic structure with its 210-foot spire was designed by an architect and parishioner of the church. (The same plans were used for Assumption Church in Bellingham.)

The parish was in debt even before the new church was built; afterwards, the debt seemed insurmountable. Though parish clubs were constantly raising funds, the debt had not been significantly reduced when the stock market crash of 1929 heralded the beginning of the Great Depression.

During the Depression, the Benedictine Sisters at the school established a hot lunch program, and waived tuition for hundreds of poor families. The parish conducted regular food and clothing drives. Needless to say, the parish struggled mightily under the burden of debt, as so many parishes did during the Depression. When Bishop Shaughnessy visited in 1937, the church—just sixteen years old—was in bad shape. "The church... is nice looking, but inside is undecorative and is practically a sieve at all window joints and at many other places around the eaves," he wrote in his report on the visit. "The musty, damp smell that assails one's nostrils upon entrance into this church is most marked." Not until World War II brought new jobs and increased prosperity to Tacoma did things turn around. Finally, in 1946, the parish debt was paid off.

August, 1966 marked seventy-five years since Holy Rosary Parish was established and the parish celebrated this occasion with due solemnity. The centerpiece of the celebration was the raising of a new cross on the church steeple, replacing the one the earthquake had toppled the year before. Father Mark Wiechmann, who had built the new church in 1921, was there to see the cross raised into its place—aged 91! There was Mass with Bishop Gill and "a ham and roast beef dinner" followed in the school hall.

Bing Crosby, the parish's most distinguished former member, was not able to come in person, but he telephoned during the dinner, a call which was broadcast throughout the auditorium. Crosby sang "Ave Maria" in memory of his parents, reminisced for a while, and ended with "Swinging on a Star" from one of his most famous films, Going My Way. The festivities concluded with a torchlight rosary at 10:00pm and Benediction in the church.

That steeple visible from the interstate crowns a church with a long and rich history.

There Really is a Difference

You've Decided on Cremation

That is exactly why the Church offers an educational service to ensure that your family is fully informed about your wishes and receive the benefits of the Church on that most difficult day. Prepare NOW for them...

While You Are Healthy

This is a special decision you don't want to make when laid up in the hospital. You'll want to be in the comfort of your own home, with your loved ones, while you are in good health.

While You Are Living

You have no control of the decision making process when you are no longer on this earth. You are only able to contribute to this special decision while you are alive and well.

While You Have Financing Options

If you leave this decision for someone else to make after you've died, then your family will have to pay for your burial costs immediately. Where will they get the money? Plan now, while you may select small monthly payments, interest free, that fit your budget and protect your family.

While You Can Take Advantage of This Special Offer

During this Memorial Day Season we have a FREE Funeral Planning Guide for anyone who calls or emails us before June 15th. This booklet contains all the necessary information about how to plan for your vigil, funeral, and Rite of Committal. It also has scripted pages for you to fill out details regarding your personal preferences for your arrangements, as well as the location of any important documents your family will need. It is our hope that your family will find comfort and confidence in having this information easily at hand, when needed most.

CHOIR CAMP 2016!

St. James Cathedral presents its annual youth music choir camp where children have opportunities to sing, laugh, and play in a beautiful and welcoming environment. Each day, choristers will learn beautiful music both modern and ancient, enter into prayerful reflection in the service of morning praise, and share fellowship with fellow students in a variety of activities. At the end of our week, we share and celebrate our music with two community performances at the Cathedral and in the surrounding area. We also continue our celebration by sharing our music at the 10 am mass in the Cathedral the following Sunday.

Monday, August 8 - Friday, August 12, 9 am - 4 pm & Sunday morning,
August 14
