

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL
The Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 25, 2016

THE SOLANUS CASEY CENTER

This weekend, in lieu of our monthly collection for St. Vincent de Paul, we take up a collection to support the work of the Solanus Casey Center, the Cathedral's own referral center, located at 1008 James Street.

What we do We offer information about resources in the Seattle area that address the needs of persons experiencing poverty or homelessness. At the same time we offer a welcoming presence to all who enter.

Who we assist The homeless and those in need in and around downtown Seattle.

Who we are The Center was inspired by the example of Venerable Solanus Casey. Established in 2005, it is a joint ministry of St. James Cathedral and Catholic Community Services. It is staffed by volunteers and a paid director, and is open Monday—Thursday from 1-4pm.

WHO WAS SOLANUS CASEY?

Bernard Francis Casey was born into a large Wisconsin family on December 18, 1870. In his younger days he was a logger, a hospital orderly, a streetcar operator, and even a prison guard. But the work that he would do for the rest of his life began after he joined the Capuchin order of Catholic priests in Detroit when he was twenty-one. At the time, he was given the name of Solanus, the name of a Spanish missionary who worked with the poor.

Solanus was ordained in 1904. He had never been a strong student, especially in theology, so his superiors asked him not to preach or hear confessions. Instead, he was given the simplest of duties including greeting people at the church door, and preparing the altar for services. Even so, as he worked in various New York City parishes over the next fourteen years, his holiness, wisdom and desire to serve had a powerful impact.

After his stay in New York, Father Solanus spent the next twenty years at a monastery in Detroit. In time, he began to hold services for the sick and before long nearly 200 people a day came to receive his blessing. Some later reported that they believed that he helped with their cures, and other blessings that came into their lives.

His impact was felt during and after his life. For example, he inspired the creation of a Depression-era soup kitchen in Detroit where the Capuchins are feeding the hungry to this day. At his death in 1957 over 20,000 people filed by his coffin to pay their respects to this man who touched so many lives.

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead

PRESENTATION BY FATHER CORPORA

11:30am

ROSARY FOR VOCATIONS,
led by Bishop Eusebio Elizondo

On Saturday, October 1, we are blessed to welcome Father Joseph Corpora, CSC. Father Corpora serves at the University of Notre Dame in the Alliance for Catholic Education (ACE) program.

In January, Father Corpora received a mandate from Pope Francis to be a Missionary of Mercy, and was commissioned on Ash Wednesday to be a special confessor and a “living sign” of God’s forgiveness during the Holy Year of Mercy.

The morning will conclude with a solemn Rosary for Vocations. We will pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and the religious life, and we will also pray that each of us will live to the full the vocation God has given us in our lives.

ALL ARE WELCOME.

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join a new 6-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff
Nancy Granger, Suzanne Lee, and Rosanne Michaels
