ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

October 2, 2016

Dear Friends,

You may remember that in launching this Year of Mercy, Pope Francis challenged us with these words: "In this Jubilee Year, let us allow God to surprise us."

That got me to thinking. Are we open as a parish to God's surprises? Am I open as pastor to God's surprises? To help answer this, I decided to do two things. The first was to conduct a survey of the entire parish last fall to learn what your hopes, dreams, and concerns were. More than 600 of you participated and the results were shared with you in the bulletin and in our parish journal, In Your Midst. Secondly, I convened a new Vision Council for the parish. I wanted to explore how a representative group of engaged parishioners—people like you—were experiencing the life of this Cathedral community. Where did we need to grow and change? What were our successes? Where were we falling short of the vision of mercy Pope Francis laid out for this Jubilee Year? How could we open ourselves to God's surprises in ways that might push us in new, untried directions?

During six weeks of intensive discussions with the Pastoral Vision Council and the parish staff, we explored these and other questions in depth. And I'll be frank with you--we didn't come up with all the answers! But we did come up with some key themes for us as a parish to focus on in the next five years. The themes are listed below; each is followed by a series of questions, which I am hoping you will give some serious thought to, much as our Pastoral Vision Council and our staff have already done.

Welcoming the Stranger How can we make the Cathedral a more welcoming place? Do we really welcome seekers and strangers? How can we become a community that is not just focused on itself, but is genuinely outward-looking? With the explosion of new construction, our Cathedral neighborhood and our city will change drastically in the next five years. What new challenges will this bring to us? What new opportunities? How will we meet them? How can we reach out and engage in dialogue with the city around us?

Hospitality One way of making people feel welcome is by being hospitable. Are we welcoming to those sitting in the pews next to us, or to those we walk into Mass or out of Mass with? We all know what a difference a simple smile or "hello" can make. How can we be more welcoming? Can we reach out more warmly to visitors and regulars alike? How can we make the coffee hour a place where everyone feels at home, not just the regulars? Are there other opportunities for us to build community by breaking bread together? How can we make hospitality a way of life at St. James Cathedral?

Outreach and “Inreach” In a very large community that worships in a very large space, doesn’t it make sense to build what Pope Francis calls “a community of small communities,” where each person has a place, a home? Can we do this by inviting parishioners to truly get involved in the parish, participating in one or another of our many ministries? Our parishioners live all over King County and beyond: how can we form community out in our many neighborhoods (e.g. by getting together in small study groups)? Are there other ways of extending the Sunday Mass community to the other six days of the week – especially when we live so far from one another?

Telling Our Story So many of the good things that happen at St. James Cathedral go unnoticed. They are well-kept secrets! Are there more compelling ways to tell the story of what is going on here day after day, bringing the Gospel to life through the stories we tell? Social media offer endless possibilities for making connections. Can we do more to take advantage of the possibilities of technology and social media to share what goes on in the Cathedral throughout the week, making it easy for more and more people to participate in the day-to-day life of the Cathedral?

These are just a few of the themes and questions that our Pastoral Vision Council and our staff found quite exciting to discuss and brainstorm. I am hoping you will find them exciting, too. I invite you to join me in reflecting on them in the coming months. And I hope we do more than reflect on them. As I mentioned, the Pastoral Team will be setting specific goals in response to these questions. What if you were to set some of your own goals? In the weeks to come, we are going to be proposing some very practical possibilities to help you do just that. Please stay tuned!

Pope Francis has written: “The parish is not an outdated institution; precisely because it possesses great flexibility, it can assume quite different contours depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community... It is a community of communities, a sanctuary where the thirsty come to drink in the midst of their journey, and a center of constant missionary outreach.” I can’t think of better words to describe this Cathedral parish. So let’s accept Pope Francis’ invitation and be creative! I don’t know what will come of this new Vision, what new ideas, new ministries, new communities will be formed. What I do know for certain is that together, we can make this Cathedral parish even more warm, loving, and welcoming; more centered on the Gospel; a parish that conveys the image of God’s merciful face in everything we do, every liturgy we celebrate, every telephone call or email we answer, every new outreach we undertake. We’ve got work to do, my friends. We really do. Each one of us!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father Michael G. Ryan
Pastor

SOUTH SEATTLE DEANERY
PASTORAL PLANNING PROJECT

Parish-Wide Listening Sessions

St. James Cathedral, along with the other seventeen parishes in our South Seattle Deanery, has been working for the last year on a plan to address the current and future shortage of priests in the Archdiocese as well as such issues as lay leadership, parish collaborations, and the future of the faith communities in the central and south areas of the City.

As part of this planning process, our parish participated in the Disciple Maker Index survey in January as well as three Deanery wide convocations and several Focus Groups. On Sunday, October 23, we will be holding listening sessions after all three morning masses to share with you the plan which the Deanery leadership is submitting to Archbishop Sartain in December. This is a chance to give your feedback on the draft plan before it is submitted to the Archbishop.

Please join us in the Rectory Parlors after the 8:00, 10:00 and 12:00 masses on Sunday, October 23.

Information, Larry Brouse, lbrouse@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4280.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR FOR SVDP'S FALL "STUFF THE TRUCK" EVENT Our local SVdP thrift stores are running low on clothes! On Sunday, October 30, an SVdP truck will be in the O'Dea parking lot from 8am to 2:30pm to accept your gently used clothes (sorry, this time we cannot accept anything but clothes). SVdP will sell your items through its local stores, which help fund programs benefiting our neighbors in need. For more information, please see our event flyer posted under "Coming Events" on the Cathedral Website.

"IMMIGRATION REFORM....A STRUGGLE FOR JUSTICE, DIGNITY AND HUMAN RIGHTS" Los Angeles Archbishop Gomez recently spoke about the humanity of immigrants; how Hispanics and Asians have been a part of the ethnic fabric of America all along; and he calls for mercy in our approach to the undocumented. Whatever your views on immigration, his remarks are worth reading. Available on our website at www.stjames-cathedral.org/immigrant. Information, Christopher Koehler, 206-382-4511 or ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC? If you are an adult who has never been baptized, an adult who has been baptized in another Christian tradition or a Catholic who has been baptized, but not received First Eucharist or Confirmation, you are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic Church. You can learn more by going to www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA. Information, Kathleen McCabe, kmccabe@stjames-cathedral.org.

A COMPANIONSHIP WORKSHOP

will be offered on Saturday, October 8, 9am – 12 Noon in Cathedral Place, 803 Terry Ave. The Companionship Training is designed to encourage compassionate awareness for those struggling with mental illness in our neighborhoods and communities of faith, and to increase our capacity for engaging our neighbors with dignity and grace. The training teaches listening skills, along with an awareness of limits and boundaries. Companionship Training enlightens and supports parishioners, staff, ushers, social justice and pastoral care leaders and volunteers, and all concerned citizens. The training is conducted by Kae Eaton, Chaplain and Director of Seattle's Mental Health Chaplaincy. To register, contact Nancy Granger, ngranger@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4269.

BAPTISM OF INFANTS & YOUNG CHILDREN (under the age of 7) is celebrated monthly at one of the weekend Masses. To prepare for this most important sacrament, parents and godparents participate in a series of classes to update their understanding of baptism, to reflect on their responsibility to guide their children in the practice of the faith, and to learn about the many ways our parish supports families. Please allow at least two months for preparation. Information, Julianna Castro, jcastro@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-619-0816.

BABYSITTING is available for children up to four years of age on Sundays during the 10:00am and Noon Masses, during baptism preparation classes, and during special events for parents and families. LEARN ABOUT CATHOLIC COMMUNITY SERVICES' "PROJECT RACHEL" MINISTRY Since 1973, there have been more than 50 million abortions in the United States. It is the most common surgical procedure in our country. While some women report relatively little distress following abortion, for many, the experience is devastating, causing long-lasting emotional, psychological and spiritual trauma. Project Rachel retreats help women and men heal from the pain of abortion. Information, 1-800-822-HOPE or <http://hopeafterabortion.com/>.

LIFE

Contemplative Prayer with music from Taizé

Friday, October 7, 2016 | 6:30pm
St. James Cathedral

*Holy Spirit, enable us to bring peace
where there is opposition, and to allow a reflection of God's compassion to become visible
by the lives we lead.
Yes, show us how to love
and to say it with our life.*

Brother Roger of Taizé

On the first Friday of each month, all are welcome to a contemplative prayer in the Cathedral, with song, silence, and candlelight. The service includes the meditative chants of the ecumenical Taizé community in France, founded by Brother Roger Schutz as a sign of reconciliation after World War II.

Cathedral Blood Drive

Sunday, October 16, 2016
O'Dea High School Gym

8:30am to 2:30pm (closed 10:30am-11:15am)

The Gift of Life

What could be a more personal, caring and meaningful gift than the gift of blood to someone in our community who has the need? Donating blood invites us to consider a different aspect of stewardship: the gift of ourselves in a way that is fundamental and essential to life itself.

Who needs blood?

It is very likely that someone you know at St. James has had a need for blood. People who need blood transfusions include those who have been in accidents or require surgery or chemotherapy. Often transfusions enable those receiving chemotherapy to continue with treatment. To meet the needs in our community, over 900 people must donate blood through Bloodworks Northwest every weekday.

St. James & Bloodworks Northwest

St. James has been sponsoring Lenten and Fall blood drives since 2006. Bloodworks Northwest (formerly the Puget Sound Blood Center) is always enthusiastic about our partnership in this effort, but most especially about the number of new donors at our blood drives. We invite those who have not yet donated to consider donating for the first time. We ask those who have generously donated in the past to please do so again!

Sign up at coffee hours on 10/2 or 10/9.

Or e-mail crobl@comcast.net to sign up or to find out more.

6:30pm-8:00pm, Mother Mary Rose Room
Pastoral Outreach Center, 907 Columbia Street

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join a new 6-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff
Nancy Granger, Suzanne Lee, and Rosanne Michaels

In her early days in Seattle, Larisa “was feeling very alone among strangers” and searched for a Russian-language church to go to. She decided to attend Nikolai Cathedral on Capital Hill that conducts services in Russian. Finding a friendly community there, Larisa began searching for English classes, discovering Tania Rzhondkovska, a client liaison at St. James Immigrant Assistance. She took ESL and citizenship classes at St. James, receiving her U.S. citizenship in 2010. She is now a member of an elder integration group, which addresses the needs of elders through speakers and local trips. As a bilingual speaker she can now take advantage of even more than ever before.
