HOMILY

Father Michael G. Ryan
PROFESSION OF FAITH     (except Sunday 10:00am)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory (10:00am)

O, for a closer walk with God
Charles Villiers Stanford (1852–1924)

Oh! for a closer walk with God, a calm and heavenly frame; a light to shine upon the road that leads me to the Lamb!

William Cowper (1731–1800)

(Sunday Evening)

When Jesus wept
William Billings (1746–1800)
When the Lord saw the sisters of Lazarus in tears near the tomb, he wept in the presence of the Jews and cried: "Lazarus, come forth." And out he came, hands and feet bound, the man who had been dead for four days.

Upon returning to your place after Holy Communion, please kneel or be seated.

Low-gluten hosts are distributed at the credence table near the presider's chair.
Solus ad Victimam
Kenneth Leighton (1929–1988)

Alone to the sacrifice thou goest, LORD, Giving thyself to Death whom thou hast slain.
For us thy wretched folk is any word? Who know that for our sins this is thy pain?
For they are ours, O LORD, our deeds. Why must thou suffer torture for our sin?
Let our hearts suffer in thy Passion, LORD. That very suffering may thy mercy win.

This is the night of tears, the three days’ space, Sorrow abiding of the eventide,
Until the day break with the risen Christ, And hearts that sorrowed shall be satisfied.
So may our hearts share in thine anguish, LORD, That they may sharers of thy glory be;
Heavy with weeping may the three days pass, To win the laughter of thine Easter Day.

Peter Abelard (1079–1142)

HYMN OF PRAISE

HEINLEIN

1. Forty days and forty nights You were fasting in the wild:
2. Shall not we your sorrow share And from worldly joys abstain,
3. Then if Satan on us press, Flesh or spirit to assail,
4. So shall we have peace divine: Holier gladness ours shall be;
5. Keep, O keep us, Savior dear, Ever constant by your side;

Forty days and forty nights Tempted and yet undaunted.
Fast ing with unceasing prayer, Strong with you to suffer pain?
Victor in the wilderness, Grant we may not faint nor fail!
Round us, too, shall angels shine, Such as served you faithfully.
That with you we may appear At the eternal Easter tide.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU  A single father raising his young daughter experienced a mental breakdown after the deaths of two important people in his life. The mental strain he experienced disabled him to the point that he quit working. After not meeting his rental obligation one month, he received a notice of eviction. This neighbor reached out for assistance by calling the St Vincent de Paul Helpline (206-767-6449). Thanks to your help, we were able to offer rental help. Additionally, we directed him to a resource to support his return to better health.. Information, Jo Ann Wiesner, 206-291-4012 or wiesnerjo@gmail.com.

CATHEDRAL YOUNG ADULTS  If you’re looking for community and to grow deeper in your devotion to Jesus Christ, you’re invited to join our weekly Young Adult Gathering! THE WAY OF THE CROSS  is a wonderful Lenten tradition in the Church. There are two opportunities to pray the Stations each week: on Mondays following 12:10pm Mass, and Fridays following the 8:00am Mass. The Cathedral Stations of the Cross are the work of Joan Brand-Landkamer, inspired by 20th-century French artist Georges Rouault.

CRS RICE BOWL UPDATE  Rebecca and Lotiang live on a farm in Kenya, where temperatures reach the mid-90’s all year. While farming was always difficult, climate change has caused persistent drought, and when it does rain, floods. Life was unpredictable until Rebecca and Lotiang participated in a Catholic Relief Program that installed a water well and solar-powered pump in their village. The CRS program also taught them new farming techniques. Now, Rebecca and Lotiang can irrigate their fields and raise goats, providing a steady income and nutritious food for their family. The income Rebecca and Lotiang make from selling produce at the market means they can send their children to school. Now, they are considered leaders in their community, and teach others what they have learned so everyone can benefit. As Rebecca says, “The CRS program changed my life. I am trying to show my community what I have learned and through that, I will change my community.” When you and others like you contribute to the Rice Bowl during Lent, you make it possible for people like Rebecca and Lotiang to prosper by learning new techniques in farming, land use, and entrepreneurship to support themselves, their families, and their entire community. If you don’t have your Rice Bowl yet and would like one mailed to you OR if you would like to become more involved in CRS efforts taking place right here in Seattle, please contact Joyce Mork-O’Brien at jamob14@comcast.net or 206-226-4099.

SCAM ALERT! Cybercrime is hitting dioceses nationwide. If you receive a message from Father Ryan (or other Cathedral staff) from a @gmail address asking for help or requesting you to purchase a gift card, please delete it. It is a scam! This email scam is happening across the country. When in doubt, contact the parish office to verify the legitimacy of any request you receive from the parish. Thank you! Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284.

PREPARING FOR FIRST COMMUNION The Archdiocese of Seattle mandates a 2 year preparation period for the Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Communion. This normally begins when a child starts 1st Grade, and continues into 2nd Grade. Some children start a year later (2nd and 3rd Grades). If your child will be in 1st or 2nd Grade this fall, please sign them up in August, 2023 for Sacramental Preparation beginning this September. Information, Theresa Van de Ven, 206-219-5822 or tvandeven@stjames-cathedral.org.

YOUTH PREPARATION FOR CONFIRMATION The Archdiocese of Seattle changed the age of Confirmation in 2019. Candidates for Confirmation are now typically in 7th or 8th Grade. Our Confirmation program runs from September to May. If your child will be in one of these grades this fall, please sign them up in August, 2023 for classes beginning in September. Information, Theresa Van de Ven, 206-219-5822 or tvandeven@stjames-cathedral.org.

CHILDREN’S FAITH FORMATION St. James Cathedral provides the Children’s Faith Formation program from September to June for children ages 4-11, and Confirmation (for children in 7th and 8th Grade). Opportunities to Serve YOUTH ALTAR SERVERS Children who have received their First Holy Communion are eligible to participate in the Mass in a special way as altar servers. Altar servers add dignity to the liturgy and assist the priest during Mass. Altar serving is a great way for kids to get to know the Mass better, and participate actively in their faith along with other young people. The time commitment is flexible based on your family’s schedule, and there are openings at all Masses. Information, Corinna Laughlin, clauglin@stjames-cathedral.org.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION The Cathedral needs more communion ministers! The need is particularly great on Saturday and Sunday evenings. Confirmed, practicing Catholics of all ages are welcome to participate in this important ministry. Training is provided. Information, Corinna Laughlin, clauglin@stjames-cathedral.org.

SANDWICH MAKING MINISTRY Healthy sandwiches can be made at home and then brought to the Cathedral to share with men staying at the St. Martin de Porres Shelter. This is a great activity for families with young children, people with busy lives, and anyone who is not able to go out and serve. Information, Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

TEEN, YOUNG ADULT AND ADULT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR FAITH FRIENDS MINISTRY Faith Friends is a unique blend of our Faith Mentor, children’s faith formation program, and an inclusion ministry. The ministry’s goal is to give children and teens ages 7-18 with physical, cognitive and/or intellectual disabilities access to the parish community, social events, and faith formation. Perhaps the most unique aspect of the Faith Friends program is the Faith Peer program. Faith Peers are teens and young adults who have chosen to live out their discipleship and share some of their personal time in dedication and service to the goals of the program. Information, Jennifer Wong, 206-619-0816, faithfriends@stjames-cathedral.org, or www.faithfriendsstjames.org.

FAITH FRIENDS IS AN INCLUSION MINISTRY serving children and teens from across the Archdiocese of Seattle. We are a unique blend of our Faith Mentor and Children’s Faith Formation program, and provide Sacramental Preparation, as well as opportunities for friendship with other youth. Information, Jennifer Wong, 206-619-0816, faithfriends@stjames-cathedral.org, or www.faithfriendsstjames.org.
This Lent, many Catholics around the Archdiocese are gathering for a five-week series to reflect on God’s word and share their faith with one another. Even if you are unable to join in one of the sessions offered at the Cathedral, you are invited to pray and reflect each week.

OPENING PRAYER

O God,
who established the Holy Church
upon the foundation of the Apostles with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone, grant that the people gathered in your name
may revere you, love you, follow you and grow into the temple of your glory, until led by you, they come at last to the heavenly city.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

READING

Ephesians 5:8-14

Brothers and sisters: You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth. Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the fruitless works of darkness; rather expose them, for it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret; but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore, it says: “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light.”

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

• “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead.” When have you experienced resurrection in your life?
• In Baptism, we died with Christ and were born again with him. How do you experience this newness of life?
• What do I/what do we need in order to really live as “children of the light” in our parish, community, world?

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Almighty ever living God,
we pray that in your Church
the joyful offering of praise may resound with human voices joined to the song of the Angels, and unceasing prayer rise up to you for the salvation of the world.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.
The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join this 8-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff Anisa Ralls.
