PALM SUNDAY PROCESSION (10:00am)

BLESSING OF THE PALMS ENTRANCE

Christ Jesus, Victor! Christ Jesus, Ruler!

Christ Jesus, Lord and Redeemer!

PROCEDURE TO THE CATHEDRAL

Please, follow the directions of the ushers to the Cathedral.
Please be patient as you will find yourself sitting in a different part of the Cathedral from usual!
Think of it as an opportunity to experience the Mass from a different point-of-view.

The entire procession will enter the Cathedral through the Ceremonial Doors.
The ramp door on the south side of the Cathedral will be available ONLY for those unable to climb the steps.
The East Nave will be filled first, then the Transepts, and finally the West Nave.

MUSIC FOR ALL TO SING DURING THE PROCESSION

Christus vincit

Christ Jesus, Victor! Christ Jesus, Ruler! Christ Jesus, Lord and Redeemer!

DISMISSAL OF THE ELECT (10:00)

Choir: I give them life long and full, and I show them my power to save, says the Lord.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All BOW

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

O Christ, hear us.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU An older man who is a veteran lived in his van for six years. Thankfully, in the past year he and his beautiful cat moved into an apartment. Several months ago he lost his job. Unemployed for two months, he was without income. Although he found new employment, this neighbor remained anxious to catch up with his rent. The man called the St Vincent de Paul Helpline (206-767-6449) requesting assistance. Thanks to your help, we were able to offer enough rent to ease his anxiety and help him get caught up. Information, Jo Ann Wiesner, 206-291-4012 or wiesnerjo@gmail.com.

WELCOME BACKPACKS We are called to accompany, celebrate, support, and embrace refugees. Immigrant Assistance is preparing to welcome migrants arriving in Seattle from the US-Mexico border. Our new volunteer Respite Team will support these individuals in addressing their immediate and short-term needs during their first three months here. Can you help us provide each adult with a welcome backpack? You can find our wish list at: https://www.target.com/gift-registry/gift/sjia-welcome-backpacks. New items only, please. Information, Erica de Klerk, edeklerk@stjames-cathedral.org or 206.382.4511.

RECYCLE YOUR E-WASTE ON EARTH DAY! Cathedral Hall, April 22-23. On your way to Mass, bring your discarded electronics (whether they work or not) to Cathedral Hall so they can be recycled. For a full list of accepted items, visit www.1GreenPlanet.com.

THANK YOU! All of us were severely affected by the pandemic. That includes some of the most vulnerable people in our region: our brothers and sisters who struggle for safe and stable housing. For the last three years, many St. James parishioners have donated food every week to ensure that Catholic Housing Services could provide nutritious meals every day. With the lifting of Washington State’s mask mandate, we are concluding our Covid Meal Ministry. Thank you to all of you who have been so generous with your resources as you responded to the needs of our brothers and sisters on the streets!

CARE FOR CREATION TIP OF THE WEEK As you enter into this holiest of weeks, ask for the grace to continue this journey beyond Lent. Start praying to discern throughout the week: How can I continue to live out my commitment to care for our common home?

SCAM ALERT! Cybercrime is hitting faith communities nationwide. If you receive a message from Father Ryan (or other Cathedral staff) from a @gmail address asking for help or requesting you to purchase a gift card, please delete it. It is a scam! This email scam is happening across the country. When in doubt, contact the parish office to verify the legitimacy of any request you receive from the parish. Thank you! Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284.

As Easter draws ever nearer, we remember that our 40 days of prayer and penance during Lent are to help us prepare to celebrate the Church’s greatest feast day. Our sacrifices are a way to experience, in a small way, Christ’s suffering, which lead us to the joy and wonder of his resurrection. As Christians we have a duty to give special care to people in most need. The CRS Rice Bowl program provides us with a meaningful and immediate way to be in solidarity with our brothers and sisters around the world. And it is important to remember that while 75% of the Rice Bowl contributions go to other countries, 25% stays right here – to provide food and other assistance to those in need in our own community. The Cathedral Kitchen and the Cathedral Garden have both received grants from CRS through this program, helping to feed the poor and homeless in Seattle. Join with others in our parish in almsgiving and know that you are answering God’s call to meet the needs of others—here and across the globe! Bring your Rice Bowls to the Mass of the Lord’s Supper on Holy Thursday or Easter Sunday (or any Sunday Mass). Thank you for your generous support!

St. James Cathedral observes the traditional Good Friday devotion of TRE ORE (“Three Hours”) with music and homilies focused on the words of Christ from the cross.

This year, Diana Macalintal will offer meditations on the Seven Last Words of Christ.

Father Michael G. Ryan will preside. Jubilate! Young Women’s Ensemble, Stacey Sunde, director will offer movements from Giovanni Battista Pergolesi’s Stabat Mater, with the Cathedral Chamber Orchestra, conducted by Joseph Adam.

A free-will offering will be accepted during the service. The entire service will be livestreamed on St. James Cathedral’s Vimeo & Facebook channels.

Diana Macalintal is an author and speaker on Catholic liturgy, music, the catechumenate, prayer, and intercultural ministry. She holds a Master of Arts in Theology from Saint John’s University in Collegeville, Minnesota, and has served in campus, parish, and diocesan ministries for 30 years. For 15 years she served as the Director of Worship for the Roman Catholic Diocese of San Jose in California. She and husband Nick Wagner direct TeamRCIA.com, an online resource for catechumenate ministers that provides training and support to over 19,000 RCIA ministers in North America, Australia, and beyond. They also direct Liturgy.life, a website for liturgical ministers.
Are you grieving the death of someone close to you? Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love. The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join this 8-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff Anisa Ralls.

Register by April 17th at ipjc.org/turning-the-tide-for-ecology-registration
This Lent, many Catholics around the Archdiocese are gathering for a five-week series to reflect on God’s word and share their faith with one another. Even if you are unable to join in one of the sessions offered at the Cathedral, you are invited to pray and reflect each week.

OPENING PRAYER

O God,
who established the Holy Church
upon the foundation of the Apostles with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone, grant that the people gathered in your name
may revere you, love you, follow you and grow into the temple of your glory, until led by you, they come at last to the heavenly city.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

READING

Ezekiel 37:12-14

Thus says the Lord GOD:
  O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and have you rise from them, O my people!
  I will put my spirit in you that you may live, and I will settle you upon your land;
  thus you shall know that I am the LORD.
  I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

• What does it look like to live a new life—a risen life?
• When have you seen God bring life out of death, in your own life or in your family?
• What does a risen community look like? What’s different?

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Almighty ever living God,
We pray that in your Church
the poor may find mercy,
the oppressed attain true freedom,
and all people be clothed with dignity of your children
until they come exultant to the Jerusalem which is above.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
