The Introductory Rites

PRELUDE
“Pastorale” from Sonata 1 in D Minor, Op. 42
Alexandre Guilmant (1837–1901)

ENTRANCE

1. The King of love my shepherd is,
   Whose goodness fails me never;
   Goodness fails me never;
   I am his, and he is mine for ever.

2. Where streams of living water flow
   My ransomed soul he’s leading,
   Ransomed soul he’s leading,
   Pastures grow with food celestial feeding.

3. In death’s dark vale I fear no ill
   With you, dear Lord, beside me;
   Comfort still, your cross before to guide me.

4. You spread a table in my sight;
   Your saving grace bestowing;
   Of delight from your pure chalice flowing!

5. And so through all the length of days
   Your goodness fails me never;
   Good Shepherd, may I sing your praise
   With in your house for ever.

During Easter Time, we pray the Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

[ALL BOW]

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,

was crucified, died, and was buried;

he descended into hell;

on the third day he rose again from the dead;

he ascended into heaven,

and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;

from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,

the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

COMMUNION
Ego sum pastor bonus
Mode II
George Dyson (1883–1964)

(10:00)

My soul doth magnify the LORD, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.
For He hath regarded the lowliness of His handmaiden:
And His mercy is on them that fear Him Throughout all generations.
He has showed strength with His arm: He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat And hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things; And the rich He hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath hoplen his servant Israel:
As he promised to our ancestors, Abraham, and his seed forever.
Glory to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

When you return to your place after receiving Holy Communion, please KNEEL OR BE SEATED.
Low-gluten hosts are distributed at the credence table near the presider’s chair.
HYMN OF PRAISE

Good Shepherd, you know us
ST. DENIO

1. Good Shepherd, you know us, you call us by name.
2. Good Shepherd, you warn us of robbers and thieves.
3. Good Shepherd, you lay down your life for the sheep.
4. At one with the Father, you made yourself known:

You lead us; we gladly acknowledge your claim.
The hireling, the wolf who destroys and deceives.
Your love is not fickle, your gift is not cheap.
“I am the Good Shepherd,” at one with your own.

Your voice has compelled us; we come at your call.
All praise for your promise on which we shall stand,
You spend your life freely, you take it again.
You loved us before we had needed or heard;

And none you have chosen will finally fall.
That no one can snatch us from out of your hand.
You died, so we live; we are healed by your pain.
By grace we respond to your life-giving word.

Rosary Sonatas

Part III: The Glorious Mysteries

Saturday, May 6, 2023
at 8:00 pm

The Rosary Sonatas, also known as the Mystery Sonatas, composed by Biber around 1676, are a collection of 15 short sonatas for violin and continuo, with a final passacaglia for solo violin. Each sonata is a reflection on the Mysteries of the Rosary: the Joyful Mysteries, the Sorrowful Mysteries, and the Glorious Mysteries. Celebrated Seattle violinist Tekla Cunningham brings Part III, the Glorious Mysteries to St. James Cathedral, playing The Resurrection, The Ascension, Pentecost, The Assumption of the Virgin, The Beatification of the Virgin, and the final Passacaglia, which was possibly composed to celebrate the Feast of the Guardian Angels. Biber uses scordatura, a tuning technique that gives a special timbre to the violin.

For tickets (suggested donation $20/$12 students & seniors, or pay what you can) and more information, scan the QR code or visit www.stjames-cathedral.org/music/concerts.

The Cathedral will close after the 5:30pm Mass and will reopen for the concert at 7:30pm. Walk-up tickets will be available at the Marion & Terry entrance only. The Cabrini Garage closes after Mass and will NOT remain open for the concert. Questions? Contact the music office: musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4874.
The St. James Respect Life committee invites you to celebrate Mother’s Day by donating baby wipes and diapers (sizes 3, 4 and 5 preferred). Items can be brought to the Cathedral Van, which will be parked by the Marion and Terry door before weekend Masses on May 13 and 14.

Help us to stuff the van full of diapers and baby wipes! All donations will be shared with our partners at Catholic Community Services for PREPARES, a Pregnancy and Parenting Support program.
