God of our Fathers
NATIONAL HYMN

1. God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
2. Your love divine has led us in the past,
3. From war’s alarms, from deadly pestilence,
4. Refresh your people on their toilsome way,

Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
In this free land by you our lot is cast;
Your mighty arm our ever sure defense;
Lead us from night to never-ending day;

Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
Be our strong ruler, guardian, guide, and stay,
Your true religion in our hearts increase,
Fill all our lives with heav’n-born love and grace,

Our grateful songs before your throne arise.
Your word our law, your paths our chosen way.
Your bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.
Until at last, we meet before your face.

CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe
in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

Presider
Credo in unum Deum,

Choir
Patrem omnipotentem factorem cæli et terræ, visibilium omnium et invisibilium.

ALL
Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum,

Fi- li- um De- i u- ni- ge- ni- tum.

Choir
Et ex Patre natum ante omnia sæcula.
God from God,
Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him
all things were made.

For us men
and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death
and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom
will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds
from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken
through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Come and Taste

Alice Parker (b. 1925)

Come and taste along with me Consolation flowing free,
From the Father's wealthy throne, Sweeter than the honeycomb.
I'll praise God and you praise God, And we'll all praise God together;
We'll praise the Lord for the work that He has done,
And we'll bless His Name forever.

All that come with free good will Make the banquet sweeter still;
Now I go to Mercy's door, Asking for a little more.

Goodness, running like a stream Through the new Jerusalem,
By a constant breaking forth Sweetens earth and heaven both.

O, return, ye sons of grace, Turn and see God's smiling face.
Hark, He calls backsliders home, Then from Him no longer roam.

(Psalm 8: O God, our God

SUPPORT THE SOLANUS CASEY CENTER Named after Franciscan priest Fr. Solanus Casey, the Center (a joint ministry of Catholic Community Services and St. James Cathedral) is a walk-in referral center that provides services to the unemployed, working poor, people just released from detention, and those living on the streets, shelters, and transitional housing. The Center also offers modest financial assistance as funds allow. In particular, it is one of the few agencies in Seattle that will help pay for ID cards and provide assistance with necessary background paperwork. The Center is open Monday to Friday, 1pm to 4pm. To volunteer, Adriana Henry, Program Manager, 206-223-0907 or AdrianaH@ccsww.org.

TUTORING LEADS TO FRIENDSHIP “J” has been tutoring a beginner ESL student from Afghanistan online for 4 months. Communication and meeting consistently were a little challenging at first, and J has been faithfully and energetically involved in her student’s learning all along the way. She has driven down to the student’s neighborhood, accompanied her to the library ESL class, met with her family to understand her situation and learning preferences better, among other things. As a result, J and her student have been able to build a stronger relationship as tutor and student, and bonded as friends as well. They recently finished their first ESL book. To celebrate, J plans to take her student out for ice cream! St. James Immigrant Assistance is always looking for more tutors to join our wonderful team. Information, Sayuko Setvik, ssetvik@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4511.

CARE FOR CREATION TIP OF THE WEEK Last fall, the Washington State bishops called upon policy makers to develop a holistic plan to care for creation and the common good in the Lower Snake River region. (The letter is available at www.wacatholics.org.) 20 years ago, a study stated that Lower Snake River dams need to be breached in order to save the salmon population. More recent studies show that Chinook salmon will be extinct by 2030 without intervention. Senator Murray and Governor Inslee recommend that the services the dams now provide can be responsibly replaced, and must be breached in a timeframe needed by salmon and orca. The federal government has opened a public comment period, and Catholics are urged to join the public support for dam removal. Be sure to explain that you are a Catholic of St. James Cathedral, and because of Pope Francis’ encyclical, Laudato Si’, you are writing on the moral cause to breach the dams in order to save Snake River salmon from extinction and restore the river and abundant runs of salmon and steelhead. Comments can be made at https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2023/05/04/2023-09525/columbia-river-salmon-and-other-native-fish-request-for-information. We must keep faith and honor our commitments to tribal nations to protect and restore abundant salmon.
I will come to the altar of God, the God of my joy.
(Psalm 43)

WHAT IS AN ALTAR?

In the Old Testament, an altar was a dedicated place, where sacrifices were offered to God. For Christians, the altar is still the place of sacrifice. It has another dimension as well. The altar is also the table for a marvelous banquet, where Christ gathers his people around him, and to feed them with his own substance, his very body and blood.

The altar is the pre-eminent symbol of Christ in the church building. In fact, the early Fathers of the Church said “the altar is Christ.” Shortly following the Second Vatican Council, this instruction was given to those responsible for the building and arranging of churches: “the way the church is arranged greatly contributes to a worthy celebration and to the active participation of the people…. Above all, the main altar should be so placed and constructed that it is always seen to be the sign of Christ himself, the place at which the saving mysteries are carried out, and the center of the assembly, to which the greatest reverence is due” (Eucharisticum Mysterium, 1967). At St. James Cathedral, the centrally placed altar is the focus of attention and the center of worship. The altar challenges us to place Christ at the center of our lives.

THE CATHEDRAL’S ALTAR

The Cathedral’s altar is the work of many hands. The altar itself was created by Harold Vogel, incorporating marble panels representing wheat and grapes by four different artists. The two panels on the west side are from the Cathedral’s original high altar, and are the work of an unknown Italian artist. Those on the south side are by Northwest sculptor Mary Jo Anderson of Oregon; those on the east are the work of New York artist Randall Rosenthal (who also created the Cathedral’s ambo), and those on the north are by Alaskan Inuit sculptor Larry Ahvakana. Each artist brought a fresh, individual interpretation to the traditional emblems of wheat and grapes. The unique and varied approaches to the timeless symbols of wheat and grapes are a wonderful emblem for the diversity of the people who gather around this altar day after day to celebrate the Eucharist.

Under the Cathedral’s altar are relics of the saints. In 1907, Bishop O’Dea placed relics of three saints in the Cathedral’s high altar: St. Adeodatus, St. Fortunata, and St. Boniface. When the Cathedral’s new altar was dedicated in 1994, a fourth relic was added: that of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. The relics are an important reminder that when we celebrate the Eucharist, we are not alone: rather, we pray in company with the “cloud of witnesses” who have gone before us in faith.

The oculus Dei (“eye of God”), with its inscription from Christ’s Last Supper words in Luke’s Gospel—“I am in your midst as one who serves”—gently reminds us that just as we find Christ truly present in the sacrament of his body and blood, we will find him also in our service of those in need.

FOR REFLECTION

“What is God’s altar if not the souls of those who lead good lives? Rightly, then, the heart of the just is said to be the altar of God.” --St. Gregory the Great

“Christians who give themselves to prayer, offer petitions to God, and present sacrifices of supplication, are the living stones out of which the Lord Jesus builds the Church’s altar.” --Rite of Dedication of an Altar

PRAYER

Let this be a festive table, to which the guests of Christ hasten with joy, so that, casting on you their cares and burdens, they may gain new strength of spirit for new paths ahead. --Rite of Dedication of an Altar

The Old Testament is often seen as a history of Israel’s beginnings, traced through the lives of the Patriarchs. But the Patriarchs could not have accomplished their work without partnerships with the Matriarchs, women who also heard God’s voice, received God’s promises, and played essential roles in the salvation story. In this four-week series, we will explore the lives of some of the Matriarchs who helped to shape the People of God.

The Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament is back!
