Dear Friends,

The end of the school year and the beginning of summer have brought some changes to our ministry team that I want to share with you. Four departures and one arrival!

First, the departures. After serving for 30 years as director of our parish’s outreach to immigrants and refugees, Chris Koehler has accepted a position to do similar work for the Archdiocese of Seattle. During his many years with us, Chris has grown this important ministry exponentially, taking it beyond an English as a Second Language program, to a highly sophisticated outreach to immigrants and asylum seekers, including advocacy, education, citizenship preparation, senior accompaniment, and much more. Chris left us back in May and, while I found it hard to see him leave, I have taken comfort knowing that the ministry he led so faithfully and so effectively will continue to thrive here at the parish, while he is now able to share his gifts with the entire archdiocese.

Another staff member who is leaving us is Theresa Van de Ven who has served since 2006 in our Children’s Faith Formation ministry--first, by providing invaluable administrative support and, more recently, by directing the program. Only our families with young children know the breadth and depth of Theresa’s contribution over the years. In so many ways, she has been the heart and soul of this ministry - the ‘go to person’ whom everyone came to love, trust, and depend on. To say that we will miss Theresa is a very big understatement. She will continue to be part of our parish, however, and it’s hard to think that she won’t find ways to continue sharing her incredible gifts in the days to come.

Still another, Jennifer Wong, who has coordinated our wonderful Faith Friends Ministry for several years, is leaving us to take a full-time job at the Chancery. Faith Friends is an inclusion ministry for children and teens ages 7-18 with physical, cognitive and/or intellectual disabilities. Jennifer has done an incredible job with this ministry. Thank you, Jennifer.

The last one to leave us is Andrew Braley, who came to us last fall to serve as Youth and Young Adult minister. It’s been wonderful having Andrew and his family as part of the parish, and we’re grateful to him for his outreach to young adults and his involvement with the Rite of Christian Initiation for Children. We wish him our very best.
And now, for the arrival—and a happy arrival it is! Tami Kowal and her husband Rob with their three kids arrived in the parish twelve years ago, but now we are delighted that she is joining our staff, taking over Theresa Van de Ven’s role as director of Children’s Faith Formation. I can only believe that this is an answer to prayer. Tami (Rob, too) has been involved in the ministry for a number of years, so she knows it both as a volunteer and a parent. And her years as a primary school teacher make her uniquely qualified for her new role. A warm welcome to you, Tami!

We sometimes think of summer as down time. Here at the Cathedral, it looks to be anything but! In addition to the ever-present weddings and funerals, our Summer Concert Series is underway, the Feast of James is coming up on July 23, and Choir Camp is not far off (August 7-11), not to mention the Hunthausen Golf Tournament on August 28. Keep your seatbelts fastened…!

The Introductory Rites

ENTRANCE

From all that dwell below the skies
DUKE STREET

1. From all that dwell below the skies,
2. Eternal are your mercies, Lord;
3. Your lofty themes, all mortals, bring;
4. In every land begin the song;

Let the Creator’s praise arise;
Eternal truth attends your word;
In songs of praise divinely sing;
To every land the strains belong;

Let the Redeemer’s name be sung,
Your praise shall sound from shore to shore,
The great salvation loud proclaim,
In cheerful sounds all voices raise,

Through every land by every tongue,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.
And shout for joy the Savior’s name.
And fill the world with loudest praise.

Offertory (10:00 & Noon)
The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord
William H. Harris (1883–1973)

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O LORD, and thou givest them their meat in due season.
Thou openest thine hand and fillest all things living with plenteousness.
The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.
The LORD is nigh upon all them that call upon him, yea all such as call upon him faithfully.
He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him; he also will hear their cry and will help them.
The Lord preserveth all them that love him.

HYMN OF PRAISE

Amazing grace
NEW BRITAIN

1. Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,
   That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found, grace appeared The hour I first believed!
2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
   And grace my fears relieved; How precious did that portion be As long as life endures.
3. The Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures; He will my shield and safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.
4. Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
   I have already come; 'Tis grace has brought me
   sing God's praise Than when we'd first begun.
5. When we've been there ten thousand years,
   Bright shining as the sun, We've no less days to grace appears The hour I first believed!

CAMINO SEATTLE
During the days leading up to the Feast of St. James, you are invited to take a spiritual, virtual pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela! Record the number of miles walked each day and collect a stamp each weekend in the Cathedral Bookstore. The goal is to walk sixty miles in preparation for the feast of our patron on July 23.
¡Buen camino!

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are — whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese.

The 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 9, 2023

ON THE COVER Learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart. Icon of the Christ the Teacher. Joan Brand-Landkamer, Cathedral iconographer.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered by are Ernie Muñoz in memory of his beloved mother, Evangelina S. Muñoz.

PARTNERS IN THE GOSPEL
is a strategic and pastoral planning effort taking place across the Archdiocese of Seattle in the coming months. Most of our parish and mission churches will become part of a “parish family” under a single pastor. Each family will be served by one, two, or more priests. This past month a “Current Reality” video was released, which explains more about the changing realities for the Church in western Washington and how Partners in the Gospel will help us respond to the times. Visit https://archseattle.org/partners/ to find out more, and please pray for the redoubled gifts of the Holy Spirit for our local church.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Benedict in Seattle and St. Anne in Seattle and Forks.
THE PUGET SOUND CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN PILGRIMS ON THE CAMINO invite Cathedral parishioners to join them on their annual walk in honor of the Feast of St. James. On Saturday, July 22 at 3:00pm, gather at the O’Dea Parking lot for a 4-mile walk, returning to the Cathedral in time for the 5:30pm Mass. After Mass, join in a potluck dinner at the Pastoral Outreach Center. RSVP is required at https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0E48ABA92FA3F9C34-stjames

ARCHDIOCESE MENTAL HEALTH MINISTRY WELLNESS WEDNESDAYS On the first Wednesday of each month, from 7-8pm, on Zoom, free presentations are offered on different mental health topics. The next session is Wednesday, August 2, when Cole Devlin and Gabriel Hamilton will speak about The Intersection of Faith, Spirituality, and Peer Support. To register for this and future events, archseattle.org/ministries/outreach-ministries/mental-health-ministry/

BE A PART OF THE SOLANUS CASEY CENTER Named after Franciscan priest Father Solanus Casey, the Center (a joint ministry of Catholic Community Services and St. James Cathedral) is a walk-in referral center that provides services to the unemployed, working poor, people just released from detention, and those living on the streets, shelters, and transitional housing. The Center also offers modest financial assistance as funds allow. In particular, it is one of the few agencies in Seattle that will help pay for ID cards and provide assistance with necessary background paperwork. The Center is open Monday to Friday, 1pm to 4pm. To volunteer, Adriana Henry, Program Manager, 206-223-0907 or AdrianaH@ccsww.org.

TOILETRY DONATIONS If you are traveling and staying at a hotel, consider bringing the small toiletries back to St. James. There is a donation bin located in the Cathedral Bookstore. Our St. Vincent de Paul conference packages the toiletries and distributes them to those in need. Thank you!

JOIN THE CATHEDRAL GARDEN TEAM! The St. James Cathedral Kitchen Garden, which provides fresh produce for the weeknight meals served at Cathedral Hall, welcomes volunteers to help with planting, weeding, maintenance, pruning & harvesting. The garden is located on the corner of Madison & Terry. Information: Peter Burns, pburns@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-264-2082.

SEEL INVITES YOU TO A TRANSFORMATIONAL RETREAT IN EVERYDAY LIFE The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) Puget Sound is a 9 month retreat format of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius that goes from September through May. SEEL will offer two options to experience the retreat in 2023-2024—a mostly in-person retreat held at St. Joseph in Seattle, and an online retreat. SEEL is accepting applications now for the program starting in late September. Join us on this transforming pilgrim journey! Information, www.seelpugetsound.org.

LOOKING FOR WAYS TO SERVE OUR COMMUNITY? Are you interested in discovering a vibrant faith community and serving your local community in meaningful ways? Jesuit Volunteer EnCorps will support you in your commitment! We are a group, ages 40+, that meets monthly in-person. We explore our commitment to values such as social and ecological justice, community, and spirituality. Information, Karen Beal, 971-353-6946 or apply at www.jvencorps.org. Program begins in September. Apply by August 31 to be included in the opening retreat.

HUNTHAUSEN BENEFIT DINNER & SILENT AUCTION
Can you help with an item for the auction? Our annual dinner and auction benefiting the Cathedral Kitchen is coming up on Monday, August 28 (see flyer in this bulletin). We are now seeking items for our raffle and silent auction. Our wish list includes…
- Restaurant gift certificates
- Gift cards valued at $25 to $50 of any kind—Amazon, Starbucks, Safeway, iTunes, etc.
- Vacation rentals make great auction items!
- Sporting event or theatre tickets
- Bottles of wine for our wine roulette

If you have other ideas of items to donate, we would love to hear about them! All proceeds benefit the Cathedral Kitchen. Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or mlaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

WHY STAINED GLASS?

For most people, the very word “church” evokes images of stained glass, dim aisles, and vaulted ceilings. We have Abbé Suger, the brilliant mind behind the 12th-century church of Saint-Denis in Paris, to thank for that. It was Abbé Suger who helped turn stained glass into an art form, and inspire a whole new kind of architecture—the Gothic style—in order to allow room for more and more windows.

For Suger, stained glass windows were not simply decoration; they were a way to connect with God. “The dull mind rises to the truth through material things,” he wrote. Colored glass took the daylight, and transformed it into something new—and took the viewer to new places. Sometimes, Abbé Suger exclaimed, “the multicolor loveliness of the gems has called me away from external cares, transporting me from material to immaterial things. Then I seem to exist on some level, as it were, beyond our earthly one, neither completely in the slime of earth nor completely in the purity of heaven.”

Charles Connick, the artist who created most of the stained glass windows at St. James Cathedral, underwent a similar conversion when he first experienced the stained glass windows at the great medieval Cathedral of Chartres, France. “So many windows alight, caroling together within sympathetic walls, seemed to combine into something new and strange…. They were like a new wizardry of sound, a strange music.” A stained glass window, Connick discovered, should be “the color of the weather. It is at the mercy of light and of all that happens in the path of its light.”

STAINED GLASS AT ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

Connick sought to bring that same magic to the windows he created for St. James Cathedral between 1917-20 (there was no stained glass in the Cathedral until after the collapse of the great dome in 1916). He used colors to express ideas. He surrounded the figures of the saints in the west nave with earthy tones, browns, ambers, greens. In the transept windows, representing Easter (south) and Christmas (north), gold and green predominate, suggesting the life that flowed from these moments of encounter between heaven and earth. In the clerestory, the uppermost windows in the Cathedral, Connick depicted symbols of heavenly wisdom (the Ten Commandments in the west nave) and heavenly worship (east nave). Here, heavenly colors—blue and white—predominate.

As Abbé Suger wrote, stained glass can transport us to a spiritual place. They can also call us to justice, here and now. The East Apse windows (1994) by Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen do just that. The two outer windows recall the traditional works of mercy through images of Christ’s passion and resurrection. These windows challenge us with words from Matthew 25: “When did we see you hungry, and feed you? When did we see you naked and give you clothing?” The center window, representing baptism, challenges us to ask how we are living our baptism through loving service of those around us.

FOR REFLECTION

- What is your favorite window in St. James Cathedral? Why?
- It has been said that stained glass is an atmosphere before it is an image. What “atmosphere” does stained glass create, for you?

PRAYER

God our Father, source of eternal light, fill the hearts of all believers with the light of faith. May we come with joy to the light of your glory.

The Sacramentary (1974)
The Old Testament is often seen as a history of Israel’s beginnings, traced through the lives of the Patriarchs. But the Patriarchs could not have accomplished their work without partnerships with the Matriarchs, women who also heard God’s voice, received God’s promises, and played essential roles in the salvation story. In this four-week series, we will explore the lives of some of the Matriarchs who helped to shape the People of God.

The Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament is back!

Since 1997, this tournament has raised funds to support the neediest in our community. In 2022, the tournament raised an extraordinary $169,000 for our neighbors in need. This year, we hope you will be there to make the event bigger and better than ever!

Your support is urgently needed as our region continues to grapple with a massive housing and food insecurity crisis. Your support of this event is a tangible response, helping us provide resources directly to those in need. This event makes possible our Cathedral Kitchen, serving hot, nutritious meals every weeknight to homeless and low-income men and women. The tournament also supports other Cathedral outreach ministries, including our Solanus Casey Center, Sunday Early Breakfast, Immigrant Assistance Program, and Mental Health Ministry.

On behalf of the many, many people who are helped through the outreach programs of St. James Cathedral, THANK YOU for your generous support of the Archbishop Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Your sponsorship of the tournament is tax-deductible and directly supports our Cathedral outreach ministries.
