ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL
The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 16, 2023
ORDER OF CELEBRATION FOR THE
Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

PRELUDE

Pavane – Danse Liturgique
Richard Proulx (1938–2010)
Andante in F Major
Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756–1791)

The Introductory Rites

1. I sing the mighty power of God
That made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And formed creation with a word,

2. I sing the goodness of the Lord
That filled the earth with food,
And built the lofty skies,
And pronounced it good,

3. There’s not a plant or flower below
But makes your glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow,
By order from your throne;

ENTRANCE

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
We praise you, we bless you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks
Lord God, heavenly King,
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
you take away the sins of the world,
you take away the sins of the world,
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
with the Holy Spirit,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
we adore you,
for your great glory.
O God, almighty Father.
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
have mercy on us;
receive our prayer;
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

DISMISSAL OF THE CATECHUMENS (10:00am)

I sought the Lord
CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

SANCTUS

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of hosts. Heav’n and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest. Blest is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

MYSTERY OF FAITH

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

AMEN

Amen, amen, amen.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE
Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Mary Magdalene in Everett and St. Olaf in Poulsbo. We also pray in gratitude for the ministry of the nuns of the Carmelite Monastery of St. Joseph in Shoreline.

ON THE COVER
The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest. Detail of the Cathedral’s ambo (pulpit). Randall Rosenthal, artist.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR
are offered by Lisa and Michael Forbes in grateful and loving memory of Janet Ryan Pasha.

HOSPITALITY AFTER SUNDAY 10:00AM MASS
Join us in Cathedral Hall for delicious cinnamon-apple pastries from Macrina Bakery, fresh fruit, and the chance to visit with fellow parishioners.

CAMINO SEATTLE
During the days leading up to the Feast of St. James, you are invited to take a spiritual, virtual pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela! Record the number of miles walked each day and collect a stamp each weekend in the Cathedral Bookstore. The goal is to walk sixty miles in preparation for the feast of our patron on July 23.
¡Buen camino!

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU
for your continuing support of our Cathedral Vincentians during these challenging times. From January to June 2023, your donations allowed us to assist 373 households in the neighborhoods surrounding St James Cathedral who struggle to pay for life’s necessities. For the first six months of this year, we have given rent assistance to 214 households, an average of 36 households per month. So far this year nearly 90% of our financial aid in the central Seattle neighborhoods we serve has gone to pay rent. We are deeply grateful for every dollar you share with SVdP – thank you! Information, Jo Ann Wiesner, 206-291-4012 or wiesnerjo@gmail.com.

TOILETRY DONATIONS
If you are traveling and staying at a hotel, consider bringing the small toiletries back to St. James. There is a donation bin located in the Cathedral Bookstore. Our St. Vincent de Paul conference packages the toiletries and distributes them to those in need. Thank you!
CATHEDRAL JOB OPENING: CUSTODIAN St. James Cathedral has an opening for a Custodian to perform basic janitorial and floor care responsibilities. This person will also work with the Cathedral Facilities staff in setting up for events and basic maintenance tasks. This is a full time position with an Archdiocesan Benefits package. Salary range is $20-$21.50 hourly. Applicants should download the Archdiocesan Job Application at: http://archseattle.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/12/HR1.2-EmploymentApp2019Parish.pdf and send it with a resume, via e-mail, to Tang Nguyen, tnguyen@stjames-cathedral.org.

CARE FOR CREATION TIP OF THE WEEK Let Justice and Peace Flow is the theme for this fall’s upcoming Season of Creation. In his annual message for this holy season, Pope Francis encourages us: “Let us live, work and pray that our common home will teem with life once again. May the Holy Spirit once more hover over the waters and guide our efforts to ‘renew the face of the earth’ (cf. Ps 104:30)”. Consider learning more about salmon restoration in the Pacific Northwest. Salmon are a keystone species to our region, essential to ecosystems, wildlife, and the lives of many people who live here today and for time immemorial. To learn more, read the Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center’s most recent edition of their journal at www.ipjc.org/a-matter-of-spirit.

SUPPORT THE SOLANUS CASEY CENTER Named after Franciscan priest Father Solanus Casey, the Center (a joint ministry of Catholic Community Services and St. James Cathedral) is a walk-in referral center that provides services to the unemployed, working poor, people just released from detention, and those living on the streets, shelters, and transitional housing. The Center also offers modest financial assistance as funds allow. In particular, it is one of the few agencies in Seattle that will help pay for ID cards and provide assistance with necessary background paperwork. The Center is open Monday to Friday, 1pm to 4pm. To volunteer, Adriana Henry, Program Manager, 206-223-0907 or AdrianaH@ccsww.org.

CALL FOR AUCTION ITEMS Our annual dinner and auction benefiting the Cathedral Kitchen is coming up on Monday, August 28 (see flyer in this bulletin). We are now seeking items for our raffle and silent auction. Our wish list includes…
- Restaurant gift certificates
- Gift cards valued at $25 to $50 of any kind—Amazon, Starbucks, Safeway, iTunes, etc.
- Vacation rentals make great auction items!
- Sporting event or theatre tickets
- Bottles of wine for our wine roulette

If you have other ideas of items to donate, we would love to hear about them! All proceeds benefit the Cathedral Kitchen. Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or mlaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

JULY IS BIPOC (BLACK, INDIGENOUS, PEOPLE OF COLOR) MENTAL HEALTH MONTH The Mental Health and Wellness Ministry and Racial Solidarity team are working together to bring awareness to this important issue. According to NAMI Black adults are 20% more likely to report serious psychological distress than white adults, Hispanic/Latin American adults reported higher rates of depression, substance use and suicidal thoughts during the pandemic, and Asian Americans are least likely to receive mental health treatment—only 20.8% of Asian adults with a mental illness received treatment in 2020, compared to those of other racial/ethnic backgrounds. In 2019, nearly one fifth of American Indian/Alaska Native adults experienced mental illness in the last year. If you or someone you know is in crisis, please call 988, or contact NAMI Seattle, 206-783-9264, https://namiseattle.org/support-resources/bipoc-mental-health-resources/, Consejo Counseling and Referral Service, 206-461-4880 https://consejocounseling.org/, or Asian Counseling and Referral Service, 206-695-7600 https://acrs.org/

THE GIFT OF THE EUCHARIST

The Eucharist is Christ’s great gift to the Church—his abiding presence in our midst. As Catholics, we believe that Jesus is not just symbolically, but really present in the bread and wine that we share in the Eucharist. This Eucharistic faith led naturally to the practice of reserving the Blessed Sacrament in our churches. From here the sacrament can be taken to those who are sick, homebound, or imprisoned and unable to join the assembly for Mass. The place where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved is also a place to pray in the sacramental presence of Christ—the perfect place for adoration.

Through the ages, the Blessed Sacrament has been reserved in various ways. In the early Church, when small communities gathered in private houses to worship, people would take some of the consecrated bread home each week! Gradually—and particularly in the Middle Ages—the place for the reservation of the sacrament became more and more grand, until in many places it dominated the altar.

The latest General Instruction of the Roman Missal says that “it is more in keeping with the meaning of the sign that the tabernacle in which the Most Holy Eucharist is reserved not be on an altar on which Mass is celebrated” (315). Rather, the Blessed Sacrament should be reserved “in a part of the church that is truly noble, prominent, readily visible, beautifully decorated, and suitable for prayer” (314).

A PLACE OF ENCOUNTER: THE BLESSED SACRAMENT CHAPEL AT ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

In keeping with the General Instruction and other church documents, at St. James Cathedral the Blessed Sacrament is housed in a prominent chapel, separate from the main altar. The gates of the Chapel allow the tabernacle to be seen from all over the Cathedral, and the unusually large sanctuary lamp (it has burned here since the day the Cathedral was dedicated—December 22, 1907!) draws our attention to this holy place. A small oculus brings natural light into this place, and creates a visual link with the main altar.

The tabernacle itself dates to 2003, and was created by Ulrich Henn, the German sculptor who also created the ceremonial bronze doors. Henn drew his inspiration from the Exodus story of Moses and the burning bush. In going forward to investigate a bush—on fire, and yet not consumed—Moses encounters the living God.

The Blessed Sacrament Chapel is for us, too, a place of encounter. In this place where the consecrated hosts are kept, we come close to Jesus, who lives with us and in us through the sacrament of his body and blood. The longer we listen to him in the rich silence of this place of prayer, the more clearly we hear the challenge to go forth to love and serve others as Jesus did.

FOR REFLECTION
- Both the altar and the tabernacle are places for the Eucharist. How are they alike? How are they different?
- The Roman Missal calls the Eucharist “a holy exchange of gifts.” What do you bring to the Eucharist? What does the Eucharist bring to you?

PRAYER

Very Bread, good Shepherd, tend us,
Jesu, of your love befriend us,
You refresh us, You defend us,
Your eternal goodness send us,
In the land of life to see. Amen.

From the sequence for Corpus Christi, attributed to St. Thomas Aquinas

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him (John 6: 56)
The Old Testament is often seen as a history of Israel’s beginnings, traced through the lives of the Patriarchs. But the Patriarchs could not have accomplished their work without partnerships with the Matriarchs, women who also heard God’s voice, received God’s promises, and played essential roles in the salvation story. In this four-week series, we will explore the lives of some of the Matriarchs who helped to shape the People of God.

The Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament is back!

Since 1997, this tournament has raised funds to support the neediest in our community. In 2022, the tournament raised an extraordinary $169,000 for our neighbors in need. This year, we hope you will be there to make the event bigger and better than ever!

Your support is urgently needed as our region continues to grapple with a massive housing and food insecurity crisis. Your support of this event is a tangible response, helping us provide resources directly to those in need. This event makes possible our Cathedral Kitchen, serving hot, nutritious meals every weeknight to homeless and low-income men and women. The tournament also supports other Cathedral outreach ministries, including our Solanus Casey Center, Sunday Early Breakfast, Immigrant Assistance Program, and Mental Health Ministry.

On behalf of the many, many people who are helped through the outreach programs of St. James Cathedral, THANK YOU for your generous support of the Archbishop Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament.
