A Hymne to Christ

Imogen Holst (1907–1984)

In what torn ship soever I embark, That ship shall be my emblem of thy Ark;
What sea soever swallow me, that flood Shall be to me an emblem of thy blood;
Though thou with clouds of anger do disguise Thy face; yet through that mask
I know those eyes, Which, though they turn away sometimes, They never will despise.
I sacrifice this Island unto the, And all whom I lov'd there and who lov'd me;
When I have put our seas twixt them and the, Put thou thy sea betwixt my sins and thee.
As the tree's sap doth seek the root below in winter, in my winter now I go,
Where none but thee, th'Eternal root Of true Love I may know.

John Donne (1572–1631)

CREED (except at Noon)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Imogen Holst (1907–1984)

In what torn ship soever I embark, That ship shall be my emblem of thy Ark;
What sea soever swallow me, that flood Shall be to me an emblem of thy blood;
Though thou with clouds of anger do disguise Thy face; yet through that mask
I know those eyes, Which, though they turn away sometimes, They never will despise.
I sacrifice this Island unto the, And all whom I lov'd there and who lov'd me;
When I have put our seas twixt them and the, Put thou thy sea betwixt my sins and thee.
As the tree's sap doth seek the root below in winter, in my winter now I go,
Where none but thee, th'Eternal root Of true Love I may know.

SANCTUS

Cantor, then All:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

Choir: Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Cantor, then All:

Ho-san-na in the high-est, in the high-est.

Choir: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Cantor, then All:

Ho-san-na in the high-est, in the high-est.

MYSTERY OF FAITH

Cantor, then All:

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup,

we pro-claim your Death, O Lord, un-til you come a-gain.

AMEN

All:

LORD’S PRAYER

AGNUS DEI

Holy Cross Mass

David Clarke Isele (1946–2016)

Cantor:

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Cantor:

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Please kneel following the Lamb of God and remain kneeling until it is time for your row to go forward for Holy Communion.
COMMUNION

The kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant seeking fine pearls;
having found one of great worth,
he went and sold all that he had, and he bought it.

FINAL BLESSING AND DISMISSAL

PROCESSION

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are — whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese.

The 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time July 30, 2023

ON THE COVER We know that all things work for good for those who love God.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered by Phil Howrigan in memory of a fellow parishioner, Samuel Edward Parker.

HOSPITALITY AFTER SUNDAY 10:00AM MASS Join us in Cathedral Hall for delicious spinach and cheese buns from Macrina Bakery, fresh fruit, and the chance to visit with fellow parishioners.

SEATTLE NIGHT OUT AT TRINITY ON FIRST HILL On Tuesday, August 1 St. James Cathedral joins our neighbors at Trinity Episcopal Church for a fun “Night Out,” 5:15pm-7:15pm! All First Hill residents are invited to come to 8th Avenue between James Street and Cherry Street to welcome, engage, and get to know your neighbors on First Hill.

PILGRIMAGE OF PEACE This week, our own Archbishop Paul Etienne and Archbishop John Wester of Santa Fe, representing two major nuclear strongholds in the US, embark on a Pilgrimage of Peace to establish an ecclesial and personal relationship with the bishops of Japan to work toward the abolition of nuclear weapons, expressing our heartfelt sorrow for the devastating experiences endured by their nation. Join them in a Novena for Nuclear Disarmament at https://archseattle.org/about-the-archdiocese-of-seattle/archbishop-etienne/pilgrimage-of-peace/. “Nuclear war begins, I believe, in our hearts. And that is where it must end. For that reason, deterrence is not extrinsic to the evil of nuclear war. From that moral perspective, deterrence finds itself at the center of the evil. In other words, our intention or willingness to do the sin could become the sin.”—from an address by Archbishop Raymond G. Hunthausen to Pax Christi USA, Chicago, July 31, 1987.

Sacred Steps

REST IN PEACE Please pray for the repose of the soul of Roger Whitson.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. John Vianney in Kirkland, Vashon, and Darrington; St. Alphonsus in Seattle; and the community of St. Ignatius Chapel at Seattle University.
CATHOLIC THEOLOGIAN ON LIVING WITH DEPRESSION Catholic theologian Jessica Coblentz will be at The Well (Queen Anne UMC, 16060 5th Ave W), on Wednesday, August 9 at 7:00pm to discuss depression and theology using ideas from her book Dust in the Blood: A Theology of Life with Depression. Dr. Coblentz is as assistant professor in the Department of Religious Studies and Theology at Saint Mary’s College in Notre Dame, IN. Register at https://www.eventbrite.com/e/dust-in-the-blood-a-theology-of-life-with-depression-registration-677116051337

CHILDREN’S FAITH FORMATION 2023-2024 St. James Cathedral provides the Children’s Faith Formation program from September to June for children ages 4-11, and Confirmation (for children 7th and 8th Grade). Classes take place on Sunday from approximately 11:10am to 12:10pm. Registration begins soon. Keep an eye on the bulletin for details! Information, Tami Kowal, Director of Children’s Faith Formation, 206-219-5822 or tkowal@stjames-cathedral.org.

ARE YOU CALLED TO BE A CATECHIST? Do you want to share in the mission of Jesus Christ which you have experienced in the Catholic Church? Do you want to accompany young people as the Holy Spirit guides them—and you—into deeper knowledge of the truth? Then you might be called to be a catechist for Children’s Faith Formation! Materials and support provided. Please reach out to explore how you can serve our children and together with them attend to the voice of the Good Shepherd. Information, Tami Kowal, Director of Children’s Faith Formation, 206-219-5822 or tkowal@stjames-cathedral.org.

PREPARING FOR FIRST HOLY COMMUNION The Archdiocese of Seattle mandates a 2 year preparation period for the Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Communion. This normally begins when a child starts 1st grade, and continues into 2nd grade. Some children start a year later (2nd and 3rd grades). If your child will be in 1st or 2nd grade this fall, please sign them up in August, 2023 for Sacramental Preparation beginning this September. Information, Tami Kowal, Director of Children’s Faith Formation, 206-219-5822 or tkowal@stjames-cathedral.org.

YOUTH PREPARATION FOR CONFIRMATION IN 2024 The Archdiocese of Seattle changed the age of Confirmation in 2019. Candidates for Confirmation are now typically in 7th or 8th Grade. Our Confirmation program runs from September to May. If your child will be in one of these grades this fall, please sign them up in August, 2023 for classes beginning in September. Information, Tami Kowal, Director of Children’s Faith Formation, 206-219-5822 or tkowal@stjames-cathedral.org.

CATHEDRAL BOOK GROUP READS WILKERSON’S CASTE Thursday, September 7, 2023, 6:30 – 8:00 pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center The Cathedral Book Group and the Racial Solidarity Team are jointly sponsoring a discussion of Isabel Wilkerson’s Caste, an exploration of the unspoken and unacknowledged caste system that has shaped our country’s history. Copies are available for purchase in the Cathedral Bookstore.

CALL FOR AUCTION ITEMS Our annual dinner and auction benefiting the Cathedral Kitchen is coming up on Monday, August 28 (see flyer in this bulletin). We are now seeking items for our raffle and silent auction. Our wish list includes: Restaurant gift certificates, Gift cards valued at $25 to $50, Sporting event or theatre tickets, and bottles of wine for our wine roulette. If you have other ideas of items to donate, we would love to hear about them! All proceeds benefit the Cathedral Kitchen. Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or mlaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

CARE FOR CREATION TIP OF THE WEEK This is the last week of Plastic Free July, a campaign to eliminate plastic pollution so we can have cleaner streets, oceans and beautiful communities. Consider sustainable swaps for single-use, disposable coffee cups, to improve your health and the environment. Making better, healthier cup choices helps reduce the billions of disposable coffee cups that end up as landfill and litter. Keep a reusable cup or travel mug in your car or bag or desk, and use it when the urge for coffee strikes!

HELPING FAMILIES AND THEIR CHILDREN PrePS (Pregnancy and Parenting Support), an office of Catholic Community Service, invites you to help their Nido Familiar program. Volunteer work includes sorting donations, stocking the baby boutique, stocking diapers and wipes, and tending a community garden. Hours are Monday to Wednesday, 10am to 4:30pm. Information, Rubit Chavez, program manager, 206-584-1270 or RubitC@ccsww.org.

SANDWICH MAKING MINISTRY Healthy sandwiches can be made at home and then brought to the Cathedral to share with men staying at the St. Martin de Porres Shelter. This is a great activity for families with young children, people with busy lives, and anyone who is not able to go out and serve. Information, Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP “We need to participate for the common good. Sometimes we hear: a good Catholic is not interested in politics. This is not true: good Catholics immerse themselves in politics by offering the best of themselves so that the leader can govern” (Pope Francis). Washington State’s primary election on August 1 includes state judicial offices, as well as a variety of local offices and/or measures (questions, bonds, levies, etc.). Be sure to vote and turn in your ballot by this Tuesday, August 1.

LOOKING FOR WAYS TO SERVE OUR COMMUNITY? Are you interested in discovering a vibrant faith group that serves our local community in meaningful ways? Jesuit Volunteer EnCorps will support you in your commitment! We are a group, ages 40+, that meets monthly in-person. As a program of JVC Northwest, we explore our commitment to values such as social and ecological justice, community, and spirituality. Program begins in September. Apply by August 31 to be included in the opening retreat. Applications are accepted throughout the program year. Information, Karen Beal, 971-353-6946 or www.jvencorps.org.
Master, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of eternal life (John 6: 68)

THE GIFT OF THE WORD

The Scriptures have always been reverenced in the Church. Jerome, the 4th-century saint and doctor who translated the entire Bible into Latin (then the most widely-spoken language in the known world), said that "ignorance of scripture is ignorance of Christ." But over the centuries, the scriptures were, to some extent, neglected in the Catholic Church. While Protestant scholars advanced by leaps and bounds in the understanding of the scriptures and their historical context, Catholics were left behind. That began to change at the end of the 19th century, with Pope Leo XIII, and continued with the Second Vatican Council. In the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, the Council Fathers called for a total overhaul of the readings proclaimed at Mass. "The treasures of the Bible are to be opened up more lavishly so that a richer fare maybe provided for the faithful at the table of God’s word" (51). The resulting Lectionary, with its three-year cycle of Sunday readings, was so rich that it has since been adopted by many Protestant churches.

Why is scripture so important? Because "Christ is present in his word" as he is present in the Eucharist. "The Church has honored the word of God and the Eucharistic mystery with the same reverence…. The Church is nourished spiritually at the twofold table of God’s word and of the Eucharist: from the one it grows in wisdom and from the other in holiness." (Introduction to the Lectionary)

THE AMBO AT ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

The importance of God’s word requires a dignified place for the proclamation of the scriptures. The ambo at St. James Cathedral is elevated, so as to be visible from every seat in the building. The ambo platform is formed of the same materials as the altar—white marble and black terrazzo—forming a visual link between the “two tables” at which the Mass is celebrated. The ambo itself is an artistic tour-de-force, carved from a single piece of Honduran mahogany by Long Island sculptor Randall Rosenthal. The front of the ambo depicts a lush landscape: clouds and rain, trees and undergrowth, leaves and vines bursting out of the margins. It’s a scene we who live in the Pacific Northwest see almost every day! But what does it have to do with the word of God?

The inscription provides the answer. God says to Isaiah: “just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down, and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; it shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it” (Isaiah 55:10-11). God’s word is a living word, bringing life wherever it goes. Just as rain falls from the heavens, giving life to the earth, so God’s word, proclaimed from this ambo, comes to us with its life-giving, life-changing power. The ambo is a visual challenge to us. As we hear the scriptures proclaimed Sunday after Sunday, do we let them become a living word? Do we let them take root in our lives, and change us?

FOR REFLECTION

- What are some of your favorite Bible stories? How have they shaped your decision-making, your approach to life?

- “When they hear the word of God and reflect deeply on it, Christ’s faithful are enabled to respond to it actively with full faith, hope, and charity through prayer and self-giving, and not only during Mass but in their entire Christian life.” (Introduction to the Lectionary)

PRAYER

Everlasting God, bless these readers. As they proclaim your words of life, strengthen their faith, that they may read with conviction and boldness, and put into practice what they read. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sing with the Cathedral Choir!

Auditions for the Cathedral Choir’s 2023-2024 season can be arranged by appointment. Contact Joseph Adam, Director of Music at musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4874. Experienced singers in all voice parts are welcome!

From September–June, Cathedral Choir rehearses on Thursday nights from 7:30-9:30pm and provides music for the Sunday 10am Mass and special liturgies.
Auditions for the Women of St. James Schola’s 2023-2024 season can be arranged by appointment. Contact Joseph Adam, Director of Music at musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4874. Soprano and mezzo-soprano/alto singers are welcome!

From September–June, Women’s Schola rehearses on Sunday afternoons at 4:00pm and provides music for the Sunday 5:30pm Mass. Schola repertoire consists of chant and unison, 2- and 3-part motets for women’s voices.
On the first Friday of each month, all are welcome to a contemplative prayer in St. James Cathedral, with song, silence, and candlelight. The service includes the meditative chants of the ecumenical Taizé community in France, founded by Brother Roger Schutz as a sign of reconciliation after World War II.

This September’s service falls on the World Day of Prayer for the Season of Creation. In his message, commenting on this year’s theme “Let Justice and Peace Flow”, Pope Francis urges us to “join the mighty river by transforming our hearts, . . . add to the flow of this mighty river by transforming our lifestyles, . . . and for the mighty river to continue flowing, we must transform the public policies that govern our societies and shape the lives of young people today and tomorrow”.

Friday, September 1 at 6:30pm

PRAYER | 6:30pm
SYNODAL GATHERING for YOUTH and YOUNG ADULTS | 7:30pm
St. James Cathedral
804 9th Avenue, Seattle, 98104

Together, we gather to pray for the Church as we prepare for the Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops which begins on October 1. All are welcome to this celebration of Evening Prayer with the beautiful music of the ecumenical community of Taizé in France. In a special way, all youth and young adults are invited to participate. This prayer is part of a worldwide prayer vigil leading up to the next phase of the Synod. Find out more at https://together2023.net/

Following the prayer, youth and young adults are invited to gather in Cathedral Place Hall for a meal and an experience of synodality with Archbishop Etienne. Together, we share our own experiences and hopes for our Church, and reflect on how we can carry out our mission more effectively. The Archbishop wants to carry the voices of young people with him when he goes to Rome to participate in the Synod as a delegate. Please come, pray, share, and experience what synodality is all about!

All are welcome to join in the prayer. Youth/young adults must register for the dinner and synodal gathering that follows.

The prayer will be livestreamed at https://vimeo.com/event/3538193 and at https://www.facebook.com/ArchdioceseofSeattle/

The Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament is back!
Since 1997, this tournament has raised funds to support the neediest in our community. In 2022, the tournament raised an extraordinary $169,000 for our neighbors in need. This year, we hope you will be there to make the event bigger and better than ever!

Your support is urgently needed as our region continues to grapple with a massive housing and food insecurity crisis. Your support of this event is a tangible response, helping us provide resources directly to those in need. This event makes possible our Cathedral Kitchen, serving hot, nutritious meals every weeknight to homeless and low-income men and women. The tournament also supports other Cathedral outreach ministries, including our Solanus Casey Center, Sunday Early Breakfast, Immigrant Assistance Program, and Mental Health Ministry.

On behalf of the many, many people who are helped through the outreach programs of St. James Cathedral, THANK YOU for your generous support of the Archbishop Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament.
