The Countywide Prayer for Christian Unity will be held at St. Ignatius Chapel on the Seattle University campus on Tuesday, January 22, 2013, at 7:00 pm. And all are invited to conclude the week by participating in our ecumenical prayer for Christian Unity on Friday evening, January 25 at 6:30pm, where Father Ryan will be joined by leaders of different downtown congregations.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Paul in Seattle and on the Swinomish Indian Reservation, and the Mission Church of St. Paul in Westport.

VATICAN II AT 50: TOWARD A DYNAMIC

UNDERSTANDING OF CONCILIAR RECEPTION On Thursday, January 24, at 7:00pm at Pigott Auditorium, Seattle University, you're invited to continue exploring the Second Vatican Council. What does it mean to say that an ecumenical council's teaching has been "received"? This lecture will explore how a dynamic understanding of conciliar reception must involve dialogue, participation, and even "re-invention." A member of the IHM Sisters, Mary Ann Hinsdale is an associate professor of systematic theology at Boston College. This lecture is free and open to the public.

THE IRISH GO ITALIAN On Saturday, January 26, the O'Dea High School Fathers' Club is again putting on their famous Italian Dinner, raising funds for boys' activities and scholarships. Tickets are $30.00 per person and there will be tables for 8 or 10 people. Find the reservation form at www.odea.org (click on Upcoming Events, then Italian Dinner) or contact Clement Neil at cdgneil@frontier.com. Information, 425-822-7545.

Our highly diverse school communities have long traditions of engaging students with academic rigor steeped in strong Catholic values. So come, walk through our classrooms, meet our staff and see our students shine! Registration for the 2013-2014 school year begins soon. Because we are committed to being accessible to all families who value Catholic education, scholarship applications are available for next year, but hurry and call us, as they are due in early February. We are proud of our schools and look forward to welcoming you into the communities! Information, St. Edward School: mlundeen@saintedwardseattle.org, St. George School: mwingard@saintgeorgeseattle.org; St. Paul School: bkromer@seattlestpaul.org

TOILETRY DONATIONS We are collecting donations of toiletries for our Winter Shelter and for the Solanus Casey Center. Please bring in donations of individual packets of tissues, razors, deodorant, toothbrushes, combs, and shaving cream. Drop them off at Coffee Hour after masses or at the parish office Monday-Friday 9am-5pm.

WOULD YOU CONSIDER ASSISTING A PERSON who wants to become Catholic? We have a number of new inquirers starting our Christian Initiation process (RCIA) to learn more about the Catholic Church. We need St. James parishioners to be companions with some of our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. The time commitment is reasonable—two Wednesday evening sessions a month. Training and support are provided. The rewards are many, including renewal and update of your own faith and "kudos" in heaven. Information, TerryAnn Bowen 206-382-2018 or tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org.

HELP FEED THE HUNGRY Operation Nightwatch is an ecumenical Christian ministry providing hot meals and shelter referrals to 150-200 homeless people every night. St. James parishioners cook and serve dinner at the Nightwatch Center three times a month. We currently need four volunteers to serve dinner the first and third Tuesday of the month from 8:30-10:30pm. We are also in need of food donors. Information, Mary Nichols, marynichols@hotmail.com or 206-420-8788. To learn more about Operation Nightwatch, go to www.seattlenightwatch.org.

IS HOSPITALITY YOUR GIFT, SOMETHING YOU ENJOY? We are looking for a "few good people" to assist in setting up, greeting participants, and putting things away for our weekly RCIA gathering. The time commitment is once a month from 6:00-9:30pm. It is a great way to meet new people and support an important parish ministry. Information, TerryAnn Bowen, 206-382-2018, tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org.

ARE YOU A REGISTERED PARISHIONER AT ST. JAMES? Many who attend St. James regularly and consider the Cathedral their parish have never officially registered. We strongly encourage you to register. Registered parishioners receive important mailings from the Cathedral, are able to celebrate their wedding at the Cathedral, and their children may attend any of the five Catholic Rainbow Schools at parishioner rates. Registration cards can be found in the vestibule. If you are not sure whether or not you're registered, call the Parish Office, 206-622-3559.

Dear Friends,

I know many of you have been looking forward to next month's revival of Great Music for Great Cathedrals. I was looking forward to it myself! However, we have had to cancel it because of a serious injury to his leg that Dr. Jim Savage, Director of Music, sustained on Christmas Eve. He is currently making a good recovery from surgery, but not so good that he will be able to orchestrate the complex realities of Great Music. We're grateful that Jim is able to be with us to direct the choirs on Sunday. I know you will join me in praying for his complete recovery!

The Year of Faith

CELEBRATING THE SANTO NINO—THE HOLY CHILD JESUS

FAITH, PRAYER, ACTION

January 2013

In the Philippines, devotion to the infant Christ extends beyond Christmas, with the celebration of the Santo Niño, the Holy Child, during the month of January.

Devotion to the Santo Niño is deeply rooted in the history and culture of the islands. The story begins on the island of Cebu. Queen Juana of Cebu resisted the efforts of Spanish missionaries to convert her. But when they presented her with a statue of the Child Jesus, her heart was touched. This image of a vulnerable God — a child and yet a king, strength in weakness — did what all their words could not. Moved to tears by their gift, Juana asked for baptism.

But not all the native peoples accepted the rule and religion of the invaders. In 1521, King Lapu-Lapu of Mactan challenged the invaders in battle, and Ferdinand Magellan was killed. Without his leadership, the Spanish soon lost their hold on the islands. The native peoples proceeded to destroy all signs of the invaders and their faith, including (or so it was thought) the image of the Child Jesus that had been given to Queen Juana.

More than 40 years later, the Spaniard Legazpi led a new expedition to the Philippines. They found the town of Cebu nearly destroyed by fire. But amid the ruins, they discovered a wooden box. Inside it lay Queen Juana's statue of the Child Jesus, miraculously intact. Spaniards and natives alike took this as a sign. They built the first Catholic Church in the Philippines on the spot where the image had been discovered, and dedicated the church to the Santo Niño, the Holy Child. From that time on, the finding of the image has been celebrated in the Philippines with a great annual festival in the month of January, including solemn liturgies as well as dancing and feasting.

It was at one of the first such celebrations, in 1567, that the first mixed-race marriage in the Philippines took place, when a niece of the native king married a Greek carpenter, a member of Legazpi's crew. This marriage— which held profound political significance for the islands, and ushered in a new era of friendship between the races — is reenacted each year as part of the Santo Niño celebration in Cebu City. One of the central themes of the Santo Niño is celebrations is, then, an ongoing prayer for tolerance and understanding among peoples.

Santo Nino of Cebu

While the Santo Niño de Cebu — characteristically garbed in red and gold — is the most popular image of the Child Jesus in the Philippines, there are many others, including Santo Niño de Tondo, Santo Niño de Padacan, as well as the Infant of Prague. In fact, about 150 different images of the Child Jesus, each with its own history and associated traditions, are venerated in the Philippines. Though the images are many, the Christ whom they honor is one. He came among us to bring the light and love of God to people of every race, nation, and tongue.

May all our celebrations of the Santo Niño bring us to greater oneness in Christ, who calls all of us to become as little children, and so enter the kingdom of God.

Based on materials prepared by Noemi Castillo, Archdiocese of San Francisco

PRAYER

*Santo Niño, help us!
In every need let us come to you
with humble trust:
In all our doubts, perplexities, and temptations,
In disappointments, troubles, and sorrows,
When others fail us, when our heart is cast down
by failure, when we are ill,
and our head and hands cannot work,
when we are lonely, when we feel impatient,
and our cross irritates us,
Always, always, in spite of weakness, falls,
and shortcomings of every kind,
Santo Niño, help us!*

Prayer to the Holy Child Jesus

ACTION

Join in the celebration of the Santo Niño at the Noon Mass today and come to the Hall afterwards for a wonderful fiesta with music and dance of the Philippines, hosted by Cathedral parishioners.

Sunday Parking at St. James Cathedral

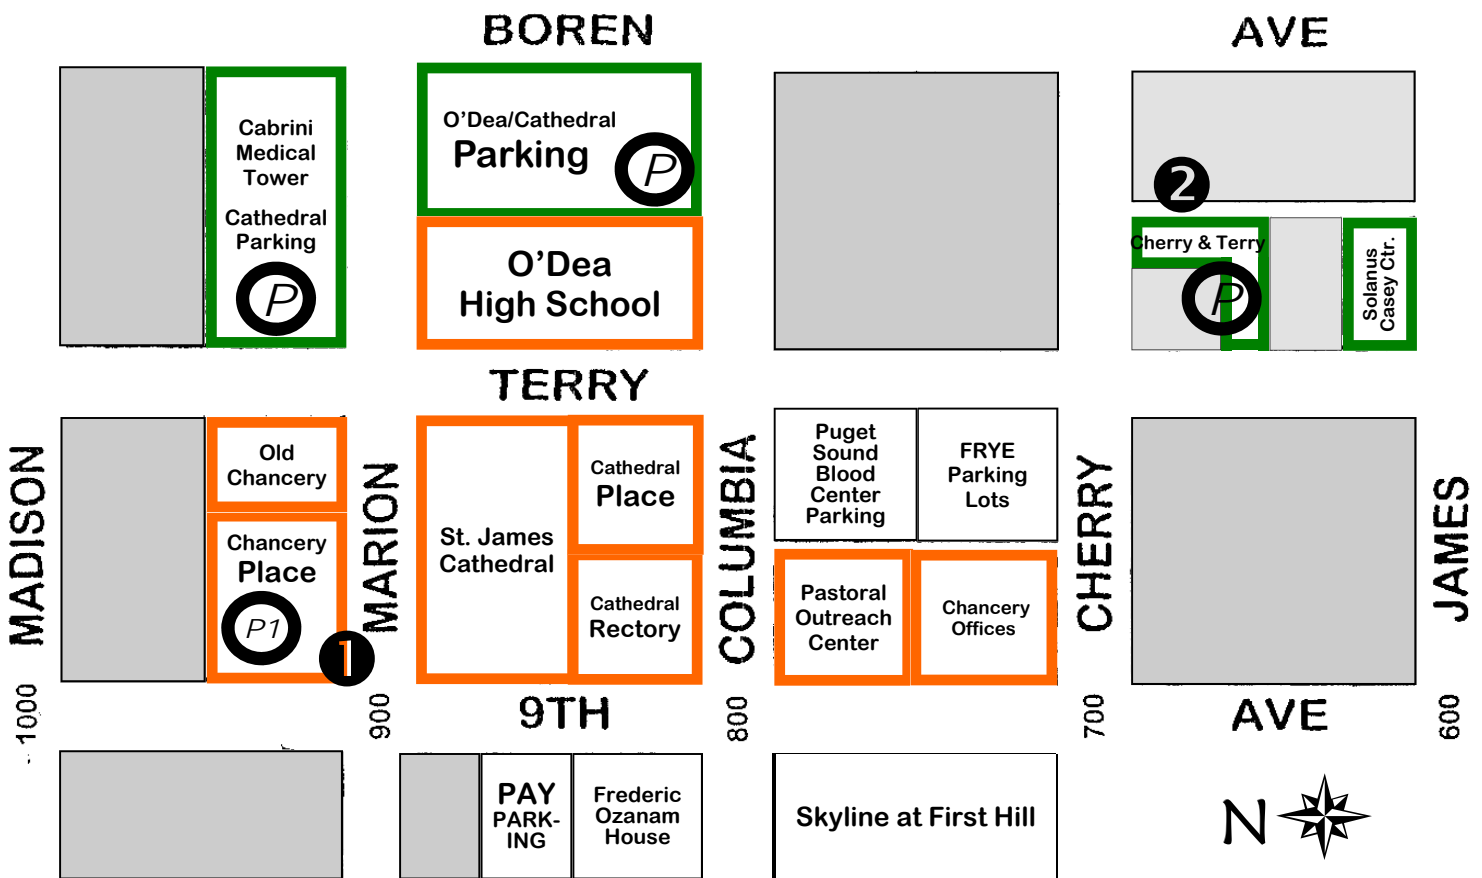

We all know parking is at a premium in downtown Seattle. However, we have made every effort to provide convenient free parking during each of our weekend Masses.

We have 50 parking spaces in two different lots which you may not be aware of. 28 spaces are available in the Chancery Place garage directly across Marion Street from the Cathedral (Number 1 on the map below). An additional 22 Spaces (nos. 1-22) are available in the lot at the southeast corner of Cherry and Terry (number 2 on the map).

The Cabrini Garage, which already provides free parking on Sunday mornings, is also open on Saturday and Sunday evenings to accommodate those attending the 5:30 masses. We have arranged for police officers to direct traffic in and out of Cabrini Garage at the 10:00am and Noon Masses.

We apologize for any difficulties hunting for parking may cause. These are some of the challenges of carrying out the work of the Gospel in the heart of the City!
