O Christ, your chosen vessel
AURELIA

1. O Christ, your cho - sen ves - sel Did car - ry forth your name
2. A - pos - tle to the na - tions, Al - though in speech un - skilled,
3. If one part comes to suf - fer, The oth - ers feel the pain,
4. To you, with God the Fa - ther, And Spi - rit, ev - er one,

In mis - sion to all peo - ple The Gos - pel to pro - claim.
He laid the strong foun - da - tions So oth - ers then could build.
If one re - ceives an hon - or, We all the joy ob - tain.
We give with Paul our bro - ther The praise for mar - vels done.

He preached with grace re - sound - ing, Be - com - ing all to all,
His call for no di - vi - sion, To seek the things a - bove,
The parts were thus in - tend - ed - To - geth - er to be one.
Con - formed in i - mi - ta - tion, May we from fac - tions cease

And we with praise a - bound - ing In thanks ac - claim Saint Paul.
Has giv - en us the vi - sion: One bo - dy bound by love.
All strife should then be end - ed In you, the Fa - ther's Son.
And spread with ju - bi - la - tion His words of grace and peace.

Missa de angelis
Vatican VIII

(all other masses)

chant, adapt. Lee

Glory to God in the highest,
We praise you, we bless you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks
Lord God, heavenly King,
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
you take away the sins of the world,
you take away the sins of the world,
You are seated at the right hand
of the Father,
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
with the Holy Spirit,

and on earth peace to people of good will.
we adore you,
for your great glory.
O God, almighty Father.
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
have mercy on us;
receive our prayer;
have mercy on us.
you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, in the glory of God the Father,
A - - - men.

DISMISSAL OF THE CATECHUMENS AND CANDIDATES (10:00)

CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,

consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

[ALL BOW]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified
 under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son
 is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy,
 catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism
 for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James Cathedral is proud to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered in honor of Irene Telmo on her 94th birthday, from her sons and daughters.

LOURDES WATER After the 10:00am and 12:00 Noon Masses today, June 29, Seattle members of the Order of Malta will be at the doors of the Cathedral to share vials of Lourdes water which they have brought back from their recent pilgrimage to share with Cathedral parishioners. Lourdes water flows from the spring which was pointed out to St. Bernadette in one of the apparitions of Mary at Lourdes in 1851. It is normal water, not holy water, and may be drunk or used as a bath. This water has been associated with countless healings over the years, but, in the words of St. Bernadette, "you have to keep the faith and pray : this water couldn't do anything without faith!"

FOURTH OF JULY On Friday, July 4, there will be one Mass in the Cathedral at 9:00am. After the Mass, the Cathedral will close to allow staff to spend the holiday with family and friends. Please note that there will be no First Friday devotions or Taizé ecumenical prayer on July 4. The regular Mass schedule will resume on Saturday, July 5.

CATHEDRAL BOOKSTORE Reclaimed: This Catholic Faith is Mine!, a new book by our own parishioner and Cathedral Choir member Gregory Phillips, is now available. Also, we have James Martin, SJ's latest book Jesus: A Pilgrimage in stock. Visitors, stop by for a CD, mug, postcard, or other souvenir of your visit to St. James Cathedral!

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL As Father Ryan reminded us last weekend, we have now met the goal set for us by the Archbishop for this year's Annual Catholic Appeal. But we are still $98,401 short of reaching our goal for the parish rebate. And 68% of our parish households have not yet responded. If you have not yet made a gift, please consider doing so today. The need is urgent as we rely on the rebate to meet our expenses as a parish. This year's rebate will support our outreach ministries as well as our new ministry to young adults. To make your pledge online, visit www.seattlearchdiocese.org/aca.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parish communities of SS Peter and Paul in Tacoma and Aberdeen, St. Thomas More in Lynnwood, and St. John the Baptist in Covington.

SUMMER ICON SERIES Do you wonder what the picture is that is carried in at the beginning of Mass? Come to the Chapel directly after the 10:00am Mass or 12:00 Noon Mass on June 28, July 5 and July 12 to find out. We will explore the icons of Saints Peter and Paul, the Triumphal Entry and St. James. Each session will last 15 minutes. Information, Brenda Bellamy, bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org.

CABRINI MINISTRY TRAINING (CMT) invites you to consider its program of lay ministry training and outreach. This is a unique opportunity to learn pastoral care skills and enjoy continued support in a faith-filled community while providing lay ministry in or near your parish. The annual five month training program begins in October 2014 and we are seeking applicants now. (There is a 10% tuition discount for completed applications received by July 15th!) For more information about this remarkable program that has trained over 1,000 people in the past 21 years, please contact John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, at 206-274-3173 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org. You may also learn more about Cabrini Ministry Training by going to their website: www.cabriniministry.org.

ARE YOU A REGULAR AT THE SATURDAY 5:30PM MASS? If you regularly attend the Saturday evening Mass, please consider getting involved as a liturgical minister. We are especially in need of communion ministers. Confirmed Catholics who are registered in the Cathedral parish are encouraged to consider this important ministry. Training and preparation are provided. Information, Corinna Laughlin, claughlin@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-622-3559 x3996.

SEEKING DONATIONS FOR OUR HUNTHAUSEN DINNER AND AUCTION This annual event benefits the Cathedral Kitchen, raising $99,000 last year. The event will take place Monday, September 15, at the Newcastle Golf Club. We are seeking auction items such as dinner gift certificates, event tickets (cultural or sporting events), and bottles of wine. If you have something you'd like to share, please call or e-mail. If you are a golfer or would like to register for the dinner, visit www.stjames-cathedral.org/golf to find out more and sign up. Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or e-mail mclaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

FORTNIGHT FOR FREEDOM Once again this year, the Bishops of the United States have called for a special period of prayer, a "Fortnight for Freedom," from June 21 – July 4. This year's theme, Fortnight for Freedom: Freedom to Serve, focuses on the freedom to serve the poor and vulnerable in accord with human dignity and the Church's teaching. To learn more, visit: www.fortnight4freedom.org.

AUDITIONS FOR THE CATHEDRAL CHOIRS Singers interested in joining one of the Cathedral Choirs will need to participate in at least one Summer Choir rehearsal and mass during August. Summer Choir at St. James rehearses at 11:15am in the Cathedral Place

YOUTH MINISTRY

YOUTH MIGRANT PROJECT INFO NIGHT Sunday, July 6 at 6:30pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. Interested in participating in the Youth Migrant Project, August 3-8? Would you like to learn more about it before committing? Please join us for an informational meeting that will offer trip details and answer your questions. Come hear stories from past participants and learn how you can make a real difference in a modern struggle for justice occurring right in our backyard.

ASCEND LEADERSHIP RETREAT July 14-18 at Palisades Retreat Center. Join with youth from all over western Washington as we hone leadership skills and actively learn how to build the Kingdom of God. Our parish delegation will work together throughout the week to further develop our youth ministry program. Joe is the co-director of this retreat. Applications available from Joe.

SUMMER MISSION PROGRAM DATES:

- Youth/Senior Trip – July 9
- Camp 4:12 – August 18-20

QUESTIONS? Joe Cotton, 206-264-2082

Choir Room and supports the assembly at the 12:00 noon Mass. Information: Music Office 206-382-4874 or musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org

THE NEXT SENIOR TRIP will be Wednesday July 9th. Join us for a picnic lunch and the beautiful vistas at Fort Casey on Whidbey Island. Now a state park, Fort Casey encompasses 467-acres with a lighthouse and sweeping views of Admiralty Inlet and the Strait of Juan de Fuca. Space is limited and priority will be given to registered parishioners. Information, or to reserve your place, John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, at 206-274-3173 or jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC? If you are an adult who has never been baptized, an adult who has been baptized in another Christian tradition or a Catholic who has been baptized, but not received First Eucharist or Confirmation then you are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic Church. You can learn more by going to www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA. Information, Kathleen McCabe, 206-382-2018, kmccabe@stjames-cathedral.org.

Exploring Catholic history in the Northwest through treasures from the past

PART 11: MOTHER JOSEPH'S CHILD JESUS

28 JUNE 2014

In 1894, Sister Claire of Jesus, a young Sister of Providence, lay sick in the convent infirmary in Vancouver. In a letter home, she described the little happenings around her—the comings and goings of the other Sisters, including Mother Joseph. “Our good Mother Joseph is making the most beautiful wax Infant Jesus,” she wrote to her father in 1894. “When she has them finished she brings them to my bed-side for me to see. They are really lovely. I wish the children could see them. And at her age, seventy four, she embroiders the little dresses for them, the finest kind of work. It is really wonderful.”

Sister Claire’s letter reflects the kindness of Mother Joseph, who visited the young nun faithfully (Sister Claire would die of tuberculosis the following year). It also reveals the indefatigable industry of the older nun, who, in addition to being a skilled architect and carpenter, was also an ingenious crafter of other articles: vestments, altar linens--and wax statues.

The Archives of the Sisters of Providence in West Seattle treasures many of these wax creations, as well as a handwritten page with the surprising heading Recette pour faire les enfants Jésus (“recipe for making infant Jesuses”). In her basement workshop at the House of Providence in Vancouver, Mother Joseph created dozens of waxworks, especially images of the child Jesus, which were sent all over the West to be used in manger scenes—and bring in a little income for the Sisters of Providence. The images are exquisitely detailed, with painted faces, carefully embroidered vestments, and beautiful curls. The story is told that one of the boys at the Sisters’ Vancouver orphanage, Johnnie Steffan by name, was the donor of the golden curls for many of these images. As his locks were cut off, Johnnie’s three sisters wept, but Mother Joseph unsentimentally remarked that Johnnie had been a girl long enough.

As she advanced in age, Mother Joseph’s eyesight weakened and she was no longer able to do the work which had been the driving force of her life. Bishop Paul Larroque of Canada, who had met Mother Joseph while visiting his own sister, also a Sister of Providence, wrote to reassure her that she was no less useful to the community now than in her busiest years: “It seems to me that you are consoled and strengthened, you who have so loved work, and are still at work, since suffering is more efficient than ever for souls and for God's glory.... With this conviction and in spite of your body's decreasing strength, you are still useful to others and to yourself.”

Towards the end of 1901, it became clear that Mother Joseph was dying of cancer. She was soon confined to her bed. On January 1, 1902, she said, “My dear children, I see the first of the year, but I shall not see the last. I am in the arms of God.” A week later, Bishop O’Dea interrupted a pastoral visit to return to Vancouver to perform the last rites for Mother Joseph. On that occasion, she said to the community, gathered around her bed, “My sisters, I ask pardon for the grief I may have caused you. I forgive you also with all my heart for the sorrow you could have caused me involuntarily. I recommend myself to your prayers. I am happy to die in the bosom of the Community. I love my Community and I have always loved it.” Then she added, “My Mothers and my Sisters, permit me to recommend to you the care of the poor both in our institutions and outside them; have no fear to assist the poor and to receive them--you will not have any regrets. Do not say: ah! this does not concern me, let others attend to them. My Sisters, whatever concerns the poor is always our affair.”

Mother Joseph lingered just a few more days. The Sisters’ Chronicle records that on January 16, 1902, the Sisters were gathered around the bed, singing favorite hymns. “During this tender scene... Sister Mary of the Blessed Sacrament brought the wax figure of the Infant Jesus into Mother Joseph’s room. Mother took the Infant in her trembling hands, spoke silently to Him, embraced and kissed Him over and over, and then gave it back with a long look of farewell. While she held her dear Lord in her arms--this little Infant Jesus which she herself had made--we sang Bishop Bourget’s favorite hymn, ‘How sweet, our Jesus, our most Tender Spouse.’”

Mother Joseph died peacefully on January 19, 1902. Mother Mary Antoinette described her as “the perfect model of a Sister of Charity, with her soul of flame, and her will of tempered steel.” In the words of Bishop Junger: “She has done more to advance Christianity on these Pacific shores than have many priests in the diocese.”
