ENTRANCE

The Kingdom of God

LAUDATE DOMINUM

1. The king-dom of God is jus-tice and joy;
2. The king-dom of God is mer-cy and grace;
3. The king-dom of God is chal-lenge and choice:
4. God's king-dom is come, the gift and the goal;

For Je-sus re-stores what sin would de-stroy.
The cap-tives are freed, the sin-ners find place,
Be-lieve the good news, re-pent and re-joice!
In Je-sus be-gun, in heav-en made whole.

God's pow-er and glo-ry in Je-sus we know;
The out-cast are wel-comed God's ban-quet to share;
God's love for us sin-ners brought Christ to his cross:
The heirs of the king-dom shall an-swer his call;

And hope and here - af - ter the king-dom shall grow.
And hope is a - wak - ened in place of de - spair.
Our cri - sis of judg - ment for gain or for loss.
And all things cry "Glo - ry!" to God all in all.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

Jesu, grant me this I pray

Percy Whitlock (1903–1946)

Jesu, grant me this I pray, Ever in thy heart to stay;
Let me evermore abide, Hidden in thy wounded side.
If the evil one prepare, Or the world, a tempting snare,
I am safe when I abide In thy heart and wounded side.
If the flesh, more dangerous still, Tempt my soul to deeds of ill,
Naught I fear when I abide In thy heart and wounded side.
Death will come one day to me; Jesu, cast me not from thee;
Dying, let me still abide In thy heart and wounded side. Amen.

Magnificat in G Major
Herbert Sumsion (1899–1995)

My soul doth magnify the Lord,
and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden;
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is his name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel as he promised to our forebears, Abraham and his children, for ever.

MASS FOR HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONALS AND CAREGIVERS On Saturday, February 19, at 5:30pm, Archbishop Etienne will celebrate a special Mass for all who serve in the world of healthcare—nurses, doctors, pharmacists, EMTs, caregivers, chaplains, and all hospital workers. This is an opportunity to pray for all those whose work so tirelessly in service of the community, especially during these years of the pandemic. All are welcome. Please help spread the word about this special Mass to your family and friends who are health care workers.

EARLY MUSIC SEATTLE CONCERT: CONVENT & CLOISTER: HIDDEN GENIUS On Saturday, February 19 at 8:00pm, Seattle Baroque Orchestra and Byrd Ensemble take you into the world of the cloistered Italian convent, a place where the genius of women of the 17th century could be freely expressed. Works by Isabella Leonarda, Bianca Maria Meda, Maria Xaveria Peruchona, Chiara Margarita Cozzolani, and many others express the mystery and beauty of Psalm settings, Biblical verses, and a Magnificat with ever-changing combinations of instruments and women's voices. Tickets and more information at earlymusicseattle.org or 206-325-7066. For pay-what-you-can parishioner passes, contact the Cathedral music office: musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4874. Proof of full vaccination or recent negative PCR test is required to attend this concert.

FREE COVID VACCINATION CLINIC Wednesday, February 16 from 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm. ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU After working in the financial field for 12 years, a middle aged man got laid off during the pandemic. When his unemployment ran out, he found work as a mobile notary but because of a medical condition could only do minimal work. Finding himself short of money to pay rent, the man called the SVdP Helpline requesting assistance (206-767-6449). With your help, we were able to pay a portion of his rent and provide additional resources that helped him catch up. He was further encouraged after receiving good medical care and medication. With his condition improved, he is able to pursue his new career. Information, Jo Ann Wiesner, 206-291-4012 or wiesnerjo@gmail.com.

CAPPELLA ROMANA CONCERT: ARVO PÄRT: KANON POKAJANEN (CANON OF REPENTANCE) Friday, February 25 at 7:30pm. Arvo Pärt's largest a cappella choral work, the Kanon Pokajanen, is a work for our time. The Eastern Orthodox understanding of repentance is not morose sorrow for the past. Instead it creates optimism for the future: from the Greek metánoia, a change of mind, a fundamental transformation of one's outlook. Pärt's work is an expansive musical meditation on the true meaning of repentance. Tickets and more information, visit cappellaromana.org or 503-236-8202. For pay-what-you-can parishioner passes, contact the Cathedral music office: musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4874. Proof of full vaccination or recent negative PCR test is required to attend this concert.

FAITH FRIENDS INCLUSION MINISTRY Do you know a child or teen age 7-18 with physical, cognitive and/or intellectual disabilities? Faith Friends is a unique blend of our Faith Mentor, children's faith formation program, and an inclusion ministry. Information, faithfriends@stjames-cathedral.org or stjames-faithfriends.weebly.com.

ZOOM RETREAT: "YOU ARE ENOUGH" Saturday, February 19, 10am—12:30pm. The day will focus on the importance of mind, body and spirit in making one whole and healthy. We will reflect on the power of self confidence in the healing process. Mental illness brings many lies and untruths to one experiencing it. It tries to keep its grips on one by constantly telling them "you are not good enough" or "you are inadequate." Nothing could be further from the truth! Come and unlock the healing truth. The truth that "you are enough." The goal of the retreat will be to give you some uninterrupted quiet time to reflect on the untruths you are dealing with. Then, you will hopefully unlock the healing truth that will help set you free from those lies. Presenter: Joe Stevens, member of the Seattle Archdiocese Mental Health Committee and Spiritual Support Group Facilitator for NAMI for over 12 years. Registration, <https://nami-eastside.org/>

ARE YOU A REGISTERED PARISHIONER AT ST. JAMES? Many who attend St. James regularly and consider the Cathedral their parish have never officially registered. We strongly encourage you to register. SYNOD 2023
Beginning in Lent and continuing into Easter, every member of the Cathedral Parish will be invited to participate in the worldwide Synodal process initiated by Pope Francis. These gatherings will give all of us an opportunity both to be listened to, and to listen and be enriched by sharing with others. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit may fill this process and guide us all to a future full of hope!

VISIT THE CATHEDRAL COLUMBARIUM The Cathedral's new Columbarium was blessed by Archbishop Etienne on December 22, 2021. A columbarium is a cemetery for the reverent burial of cremated remains. The way we honor the mortal remains of our deceased family members and friends is a reflection of the faith we profess in the Nicene Creed: we believe in the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. The columbarium is now open for prayer whenever the Cathedral is open. It is a beautiful place to visit and pray for all our beloved dead. Information, Maria Laughlin, mlaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4284.

PREPARES (PREGNANCY AND PARENTING SUPPORT) is a nurturing response of the Catholic community in Washington State to "walk the journey" with pregnant and parenting women, men, and families with children up to age 5 who find themselves lacking a healthy support network. The program, an initiative of our state's bishops, came into being five years ago. Around the state, PREPARES has been active in helping provide basic needs to parents and their children, organizing parent support groups, providing opportunities for parents and children to get together, and family companions to share relationships with a parent in the community. For more information, see <https://preparesforlife.org> and <https://ccsww.org/get-help/child-youth-family-services/prepares/>. In our parish, our initial efforts to initiate PREPARES had some success but have fallen by the wayside over the years. It's time to resurrect the program here. For PREPARES to become active at St. James, we need volunteers. Volunteers need to attend a PREPARES orientation dealing with important rules and information about working with families. Volunteer activities could include collecting and distributing donated items for children, mentoring, serving as parish coordinator, and more. Information, Ted Nutting, theodorenutting@msn.com.

THE CHRISTIAN DANCE OF LIFE: A LENTEN ZOOM RETREAT, will be offered by Sacred Heart Parish, Saturday March 5 from 10am-12:30pm. The retreat is based on Father Scott Connolly's book of the same name regarding his walk along the Camino de Santiago. The first hour is dedicated to exploring pain and suffering, while the 2nd hour will focus on how Hope, Faith and Love can keep us progressing on our faith journey! The retreat will have a focus on mental illness but is open to everyone. Presenter: Joe Stevens, member of the Seattle Archdiocese Mental Health Committee and Spiritual Support Group Facilitator for NAMI for over 12 years. Register at <https://nami-eastside.org/>

Join Concert Pianist Adam Neiman for an entertaining and educational *Morning of Music

St. James Cathedral Mental Health & Wellness Ministry is pleased to partner with The Seattle Chamber Music Society in presenting world-renowned classical pianist Adam Neiman in a free interactive concert at St. James Cathedral

Saturday, February 26 10:30am -12:00pm
Proof of vaccination and masks required

Mr. Adam Neiman is delighted to be in Seattle performing Chopin Etudes Op. 10 and 25; a collection of twenty-four short, technically brilliant, contrasting compositions which span a vast range of emotions from intense sadness to unbridled joy.

This collection includes the famous Etude Op. 10 No. 3 nicknamed the Tristesse or "Sadness," which Chopin himself described as one of the most beautiful he had ever written. In contrast, this collection also includes Etude Op. 25 No. 9 known playfully as the "Butterfly" etude. Experience these etudes with Adam when he will give a short talk on Chopin followed by a performance of select works and an audience Q&A.

Adam's journey toward becoming a concert pianist began at the tender age of five, at his mother's tutelage. By age eight, young Adam gained momentum with a succession of regional and national competition triumphs, recital and concerto appearances across the United States, and by his early teens, successful forays onto the international concert and competition circuit. As a 17-year-old undergraduate piano major at the Juilliard School, Adam won three of America's most prestigious classical music awards: an Avery Fisher Career Grant, Gilmore Young Artist Award, and the Young Concert Artists International Auditions. In the same year, Neiman was nominated for a Grammy Award, all before graduating from the Juilliard School with highest honors. Neiman has gone on to become one of the most sought-after soloists and chamber musicians of his time.
