ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

September 1, 2022

Dear Friends,

With summer nearly in the rear-view mirror now and a whole new season before us, I thought it would be timely to touch base with you.

First of all, I hope you have been able to enjoy some R & R during a summer that was pretty slow in coming but beautiful when it finally arrived. So many times – while meeting and greeting visitors at Sunday Mass – they have remarked at how blown away they've been by the beauty of our city and our region. I tend to take that for granted, but I shouldn't. We are very blessed to live in the Pacific Northwest.

A highlight of my summer came in mid-August when I flew to Los Angeles to attend the Profession of Vows ceremony of our parishioner and my good friend, Cyrus Habib. Cyrus, as many of you know, served some years in the Washington State Senate and then as Lieutenant Governor of the State. He had a promising – even brilliant – career in public life ahead of him when he answered the call of God and entered the novitiate of the Society of Jesus. At the vows ceremony, which I found both beautiful and moving, Cyrus professed the evangelical vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. It was a joy and a privilege to be there with his mother, his brother Jesuits, and some friends, for that holy and important moment. And, I want to mention that, since Cyrus was for many years a parishioner here at St. James, you can all take some credit for the role you played in his journey toward religious life and priesthood. Priestly vocations come from families and strong communities of faith like ours. They do! Please keep Cyrus in your prayers as he prepares to begin his years of Regency with graduate studies at Loyola University in Chicago.

Closer to home, it has been heartening to welcome more and more people back to regular Mass attendance after the long months of the pandemic. We still have a long way to go, however: Mass attendance is still just 61% of what it was when, in March of 2020, we had to suspend public Masses.

Any way you look at it, that number could be improved. And I know, some of you should be staying home because of illness or because of compromised immune systems. I don't believe in guilt trips and I'm not going to lay one here, but I do want to make the point that if you're waiting until the pandemic is over to return to church, you will most likely be waiting for a long time! Doctors tell us that Covid is going to become endemic – something we will all have to live with, not something that will go away. Life goes on. It must. And the community of faith goes on, too! And, as you well know, the primary way we grow as a community of faith is by coming together to celebrate the Eucharist.

A couple of weeks ago, one of our parishioners returned for Mass for the first time in two and a half years. When she greeted me after Mass, she had tears in her eyes, "It's so good to be home, I'm so glad to be home." That's another way of saying that wonderful as live-stream Masses have been (and I know they are a godsend for the homebound), they do not – they cannot – substitute for our weekly communal celebration – and reception – of the Eucharist. There is no such thing as 'virtual Holy Communion!' Worshiping together, serving together, learning together: this is what it means to be part of a parish community.

So, if you are still on the sidelines, I invite you to consider getting back in 'the game!' And I want to assure you that you and your family can come back with confidence because going to Mass has actually proven to be a very safe activity. We continue to set aside a section where masks are required for those who wish or need to continue to mask up. We have installed HEPA filters, and we do everything possible to keep the air moving for added safety. So if you and your family have been away, or participating mostly online, I invite you to take the leap and return for Mass. You will be happy you did, and our community will be immeasurably enriched by your presence.

Father Michael G. Ryan

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 90
Michel Guimont (b. 1956)

In ev - 'ry age, O Lord, you have been our ref - uge.

You turn us back to dust, and say, "Return, O children of the earth."
To your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, or like a watch in the night.
You sweep them away like a dream, like grass which is fresh in the morning.
In the morning it sprouts and is fresh; by evening it withers and fades.
Then teach us to number our days, that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Turn back, O LORD! How long? Show pity to your servants.
At dawn, fill us with your merciful love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Let the favor of the LORD our God be upon us; give success to the work of our hands.
O give success to the work of our hands.

HOMILY

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Jacques Berthier

Lord, we ask you, hear our prayer.

Offertory (10:00 & Noon)

Be still, for the presence of the Lord
David J. Evans (b. 1957)

Be still, for the presence of the LORD, the Holy One is here;

Come, bow before him now, with reverence and fear.

In him no sin is found, we stand on holy ground.

Be still, for the presence of the LORD, the Holy one is here.

Be still, for the glory of the LORD is shining all around;

He burns with holy fire, with splendor he is crowned.

How awesome is the sight, our radiant King of light!

Be still, for the glory of the LORD is shining all around.

Be still, for the power of the LORD is moving in this place;

He comes to cleanse and heal, to minister his grace.

No work too hard for him, in faith receive from him.

Be still, for the power of the LORD is moving in this place.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU An older man works as a court interpreter. During the pandemic, his work changed from in-person jobs to online jobs via zoom. This change resulted in lower pay. The man is looking for additional work, but feels he is being passed over because of his age. With the loss of his usual income, he fell behind in paying rent and called the St Vincent de Paul Helpline requesting assistance (206-767-6449). With your help, we were able to offer rental assistance and also provide additional resources. Information, Jo Ann Wiesner, 206-291-4012 or wiesnerjo@gmail.com.

Sacred Steps

REST IN PEACE Please pray for the repose of the souls of John Daly and Walter Brazelton.

CELEBRATE THE SEASON OF CREATION!

*Human life is grounded in three fundamental and closely intertwined relationships:
with God,
with our neighbor and
with the earth itself
- Laudato Si'*

In 2015, Pope Francis promulgated his encyclical Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home, calling on all people of good will to heed the Cry of the Earth, the Cry of the Poor and the Cry of Young People. God's Creation has been groaning in pain as a result of the effects of human consumption, as testified by the scientific community. Pope Francis urges us to move from a Culture of Waste to a Culture of Encounter which "highlights not just the interconnectedness that exists among God, humanity and creation, but also recognizes how political, economic, cultural, social and religious values and decisions are interrelated and affect the way people live with one another on the planet and use its resources" (America magazine).

The Vatican has created the Laudato Si' Action Platform (LSAP) to "bring the whole human family together . . . for we know that things can change". With profound care for each other, our Creator, and all creation, we can build a better future together by working towards these 7 LSAP goals:

- + Response to the Cry of the Earth
- + Response to the Cry of the Poor
- + Ecological Economics
- + Adoption of Sustainable Lifestyles
- + Ecological Education
- + Ecological Spirituality
- + Community Resilience and Empowerment

More information and registration at www.LaudatoSiActionPlatform.org

September 1 through October 4 (the Feast of St. Francis) is the Season of Creation, a time to renew our relationship with our Creator and all Creation through celebration, conversion, and commitment together. During the Season of Creation, we join our sisters and brothers in the ecumenical family in prayer and action for our common home, as together, we heed Pope Francis' theme for this year's Season of Creation, "Listen to the voice of Creation!".
