HOMILY

Father Bill Heric (Sunday Evening)
Father Steve Sundborg, SJ (all other Masses)

CREED:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WELCOME TO OUR PARISH FAMILY

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION | CHRIST OUR HOPE

The 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time February 16, 2025

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese.

ON THE COVER Blessed is the one whose hope is the Lord. That one is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream. Detail of the Ceremonial Bronze Doors, St. James Cathedral. Ulrich Henn, artist.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are offered by Alex Pepino in honor of Pevalin Pepino-Ong on her birthday, and in thanksgiving for the 8th anniversary of Pepino Schnibbe.

FLOWERS AT THE STATUE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY are offered in loving memory of Dr. George Damian Monda by his family. May he rest in peace.

SUNDAY HOSPITALITY AFTER 10:00AM MASS Join us in Cathedral Hall for blueberry scones from Macrina Bakery, fresh fruit, and fellowship.

ICON OF VENERABLE AUGUSTUS TOLTON The entrance procession at today's Mass featured an icon of Venerable Augustus Tolton, the first recognized Black priest in the United States, whose cause for sainthood is underway. During Black History Month, you are encouraged to find out more about Father Tolton. You'll find resources in the Cathedral Bookstore. You can also visit www.bcacseattle.org to find out more about "Father Gus" and five other Black American Catholics on the road to sainthood!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL COLLECTION

This is the Third Sunday of the Month! As you leave the Cathedral, the ushers will be at the doors to receive any offering you are able to make in support of our St. Vincent de Paul Society outreach to the poor and needy in our downtown neighborhood. You can also use the QR code at the right. Your support makes a tremendous difference!

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each parish family in the Archdiocese of Seattle. This week we pray for the parish family of St. Frances Cabrini and St. John Bosco, Lakewood, and Immaculate Conception, Steilacoom.

CATHEDRAL KITCHEN 50TH ANNIVERSARY

CELEBRATION The Cathedral Kitchen first opened its doors on February 24, 1975. On Saturday, February 22 we celebrate this milestone with a special meal. The dinner is almost full! If you haven't yet registered but would like to be added to the guest list, email Maria to inquire about availability. Information, Maria Laughlin, mlaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU This retired gentleman is a cancer survivor who has been in remission for five years. Paying rent takes nearly all his social security so he drives for Amazon to meet the rest of his needs. When his car broke down, he had to use a portion of his rent money for repairs. Thanks to your generosity, the SVdP ministry was able to help with rent and keep him in good standing with his landlord. Those in need of assistance can call the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449 or apply online <https://svdpseattle.org/get-help/online-help-request-form/>) Information, Blake Steller 907-244-6683 or blsteller@gmail.com.

MONTHLY FOOT CARE CLINIC Seattle and King County Public Health are offering free monthly foot clinics and blood pressure checks, last Wednesday of every month, 1-4pm, held at Pastoral Outreach Center, 907 Columbia St. Next session: February 26.

HOUSING AND HOMELESSNESS ADVOCACY DAY MARCH 14 IN OLYMPIA Express your support to your state lawmakers for fair housing and an end to homelessness! Join the Housing Advocacy Committee of St. James Cathedral and St. Joseph Parish, as well as advocates from all of Washington state, to share your story with lawmakers and other stakeholders. The day will include time to develop and strengthen your advocacy skills through attending workshops. Information, Patrick Barredo, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org, 206-382-4515.

IN OUR OWN VOICE PRESENTATION On Saturday, March 22, 10:00am-11:30am in the Pastoral Outreach Center, 907 Columbia Street, you are invited to attend a free 90-minute presentation by trained NAMI Seattle presenters living in recovery from mental health conditions. Open to anyone who wants to learn more about mental health! Sponsored by the Mental Health and Wellness Ministry. Information, Anisa Ralls, aralls@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4269.

IMMIGRATION UPDATE Spurred by recent federal changes to the nation's immigration policy, St. James Immigrant Assistance has been pro-active in assessing its continuing ministry. Updates have been made to the Cathedral's protocol for What do you do if ICE shows up at St. James Cathedral. Two weeks ago, Cathedral staff met with leaders of other Catholic entities to discuss coordination of services to our immigrant neighbors. In addition, Know Your Rights information is being updated and distributed to those who are impacted. We are encouraged to witness the continued commitment of the Cathedral community to the Immigrant Assistance program, including through generous donations and new volunteers. Information, Erica de Klerk, edeklerk@stjames-cathedral.org.

PORTICO PROJECT CONSTRUCTION began on Monday, January 6 and will continue through March 23 (note date change!). During this time, the Cathedral's Terry and Marion entrance will be inaccessible, and the Cathedral restrooms will be closed. At each weekend Mass, restrooms in Cathedral Hall will be open. These restrooms can be easily accessed from Columbia Street. In addition, there is a wheelchair accessible restroom on the south side of the west vestibule. This small restroom is reserved for families and those with mobility issues. Lastly, portable restrooms will be available at the Terry Avenue entrance to the Cathedral Courtyard (near the fenced area around the dumpster). Thank you for your patience!

SEASON OF SERVICE To honor the history of the local Church, while embracing our Catholic Social teachings, the Archdiocese of Seattle will host a "Season of Service." From March 1 to May 31, 2025, local Catholics, parishes, schools, ministries and families are invited to participate in service with the goal of reaching 175,000 collective hours of service across Western Washington. More information to come on how you can participate through St. James Cathedral.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN WASHINGTON STATE Another legislative session began Monday, January 13. This year Washington State is facing major budget shortfalls which means that cuts to services and programs for poor and vulnerable communities will surely be proposed. There is much evidence that funding cuts for poor and vulnerable populations have an irreversible impact only multiplying the harms and overall public expenses in the long term.

We welcome you to stay informed as the session begins by joining the Washington State Catholic Conference and advocate for issues impacting our vulnerable communities. Please do so by scanning the QR code to the right.

One of the best ways of advocacy is developing relationships with your local legislators. Encourage your local legislators to prioritize funding that impacts the poor in our community. You can find your local legislators and their contact info by scanning the QR code to the right.

BUILDING A FUTURE OF HOPE AND HUMAN DIGNITY IN WEST AFRICA

DOREEN KARGBO,
PRESENTER

Thursday, February 27, 2025, 7pm—8pm
St. James Cathedral Pastoral Outreach Center
907 Columbia Street
Also livestreamed

How are we making a difference among poor countries in West Africa?

Come and learn how our work in education, agriculture, and public health are lifting people out of poverty and creating a more stable, peaceful society in Sierra Leone, one of Africa's poorest countries. Doreen Kargbo will introduce you to the people making a difference!

Doreen Kargbo is a senior policy officer with CRS. She is a native of Sierra Leone and an attorney with law degrees from Sierra Leone and London.

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is the international aid agency of the U.S. Catholic community, working around the world with your support.

Your participation in this 50th year of CRS Rice Bowl supports the work of CRS to address hunger around the world and throughout Western Washington.
Your generosity builds a future of hope!

"Hope overflows in generosity."

St. Luke and the Kingdom of God

LENTEN BIBLE STUDY

Thursday evenings,
March 6, 13, 20, 27,
and April 3
7:00pm, Cathedral Hall

Please join a five week Lenten study of the Gospel of Luke. We will examine its portrait of Jesus as the Christ who fulfills the messianic promises of the Old Testament, while establishing the Kingdom of God on earth and proclaiming salvation for all. This Scripture study is a wonderful way to draw closer to God in preparation for Easter by coming to better know His Son through the story of His life, death and resurrection.

Tara Simons, presenter, is a teacher and writer who has her M.A. in Catholic Theology from the Franciscan University of Steubenville and did her doctoral studies in Theology at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, CA.

Registration required.

FACILITATORS

“It is your right, your birthright, to seek out others to work toward a world you imagine, a world where we are all free.” — Sarah Augustine

The Land Is Not Our Own: Seeking Repair Alongside Indigenous Communities will inspire and equip you to stand alongside Native communities in working for justice and repair. This 8-week small group lays a foundation of trust and relationship, so that together participants can acknowledge injustice, honor the interconnectedness of all Creation, and seek healing, repair, and hope alongside Indigenous communities.

The Land Is Not Our Own is an invitation to hope, joy, and healing. Together, the small group will celebrate Indigenous artists and activists, engage in a spiritual reorientation toward honoring our sacred connection with one another and all Creation, and learn concrete ways that individuals, churches, and communities can partner with Native leaders in their work for justice and repair.

GOALS

- Guide participants in “discern[ing] how Christian communities can address the extinction, enslavement, and extraction done in the name of Christ on Indigenous lands.”
- Equip participants to seek justice and repair alongside Indigenous leaders.
- Celebrate the wisdom and traditions of Indigenous authors, artists, and spiritual teachers
- Through spiritual reorientation, inspire daily decision-making that honors participants’ sacred relationships with all of Creation.
- Transform the participants into a community of love and support. The members will continue to encourage one another as you seek spiritual transformation and take action for justice after the program has finished.
