Friends of Cathedral Music

Become a Friend of Cathedral Music! You can designate your gift to support our Concert Series, Cathedral Music (liturgical music), and/or Youth Music. St. James Cathedral is qualified as a charitable organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to St. James Cathedral are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law. All donations are acknowledged for one year in programs for our self-produced concerts and special liturgies throughout the year, and donors of $250 or more are offered admission for all ticketed Cathedral concerts in the calendar year following the donation, and reserved seating upon request. When you make your gift, indicate how you wish to be acknowledged in print (i.e. John Smith & Jane Doe-Smith; Anonymous; Jane Doe in memory of Janet Smith).

Support the Concert Series

Ticket sales to our concert series cover only a small fraction of expenses incurred by producing the concerts. Your donations make it possible to bring in world-class musicians and keep our concerts accessible to all.

Support Cathedral Music

Our adult choirs sing for more than 150 liturgies a year. Donations to our general Cathedral Music fund support expenses relating to our choirs, as well as maintenance of the Cathedral organs and pianos.

Support the Youth Music Program

Generosity like yours allows St. James Cathedral's Youth Music Program to continue and deepen its vital artistic inclusion and outreach to the Archdiocese and greater Seattle. Your donations help make this program available to all, regardless of financial means, and further enables the ministry of our youth.
